

PEARSON RESCUES SKIDDING YANKEES

One-Hit Game Against Sox In Spotlight

Puts Champs Back in the First Division; Pirates Increase Lead.

By GEORGE KIRKSEY
United Press Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK, May 11.—The New York Yankees' retreat was at an end today and the man who stopped the panicky flight came close to the hall of fame.

Monte Marcellus Pearson, 28-year-old right-handed pitcher, in breaking the Yankees' four-game losing streak—longest since 1933—narrowly missed a no-hit, no-run game. He allowed one single, Larry Rosenthal, White Sox outfielder, was the second man to get in the first inning and he singled to right.

After that the White Sox got only two men on bases, both on passes, and one of them was nullified by a double play. In one stretch Pearson set down 16 men in order. He fanned four men.

Pearson was the Yankees' second-best pitcher last year, winning 19 games, but this season he promises to be their No. 1 moundman. He has won his first three games.

The Yankees' 7-0 victory ended the world champions to move back into the first division, tying with Detroit for third place. Joe DiMaggio hit two homers and Selkirk one.

Pittsburgh increased its National League lead to two and one-half games by a 4-1 victory over the Cincinnati Reds. Bill Swift held the Reds to eight scattered hits. The Pirates won the game in the first inning, scoring three runs off Lou Fette.

Jurges Out of Action
Clyde Shoun, rookie southpaw, halted the Cubs' three-game losing streak by pitching Chicago to a 4-3 victory over the New York Giants. He kept the Giants' nine hits scattered and struck out four. Another Cub player joined the casualty list when Shortstop Jurges came up with a stiff wrist, making six Chicago regulars out of the game. Hal Schumacher lost his third straight start.

Van Mungo set the Cardinals down with four hits as Brooklyn beat St. Louis, 8-2. He fanned six and walked three, scoring his fourth victory. The Cardinal defense again fell apart, with Guttridge, Bordagaray, Brown and Ogdowski making errors.

The Phillies pounded out a 10-3 victory over Cincinnati while Buck Walters held the Reds to four hits. Whitney hit a homer and Browne, Johnny Moore and Hershel Martin hit doubles.

The Philadelphia Athletics kept up their torrid pace by winning from Detroit, 9-5. Luther Thomas went the route for the A's, allowing only eight hits. The A's knocked out Tommy Bridges and continued their attack on Clyde Hatcher. Chubby Dean drove in four runs with three singles.

Cleveland beat the Boston Red Sox, 6-5, in 11 innings, and retained the lead over the Athletics. Manager Cronin's wild throw let Cleveland score the winning run. The Indians made 17 hits off five Red Sox pitchers.

The St. Louis Browns won from Washington, 6-3, behind the fifth-inning pitching of Rookie Julio Bonetti, who blanked the Senators until the ninth. Beau Bell made three of the Browns' nine hits.

Yesterday's Heroes—Rip Collins, Chicago first baseman, who hit a homer with Frey on base to give the Cubs a 4-3 victory over the Giants, and Mitcher, who blanked the White Sox, 7-0, holding them to one hit.

Indiana Central
Downs Butler
Keene, Greyhound pitcher, held Butler to six hits as Indiana Central defeated the Bulldogs, 10 to 5, yesterday at the University Heights diamond.

Brown led the Greyhounds' 14-hit attack with a triple and two singles. Score:
Butler... 000 000-10 5 8
Central... 100 100-10 14 9
Blackaby, Laymon and Wilson; Keene and Clayton.

Butler will clash with DePauw at Greencastle tomorrow in the first of a home and home series. The second game will be played on the Fairview diamond, May 18.

Walker Hits Triple
With Bases Loaded
Walker's triple with the bases full in the sixth inning featured the 12-to-0 victory scored by the Indianapolis A's over the St. Louis Stars. The St. Louis team won two out of three in the series.

Tribe Opens 3-Day Stand At St. Paul

Locals Downhearted Despite Halting Losing Streak in Millers' Finale.

Times Special

ST. PAUL, May 11.—With the new season less than a month old, the Indianapolis Indians, in seventh place, are eight games behind the league-leading Milwaukee Brewers.

The Redskins lost six in a row before checking the toboggan slide in Minneapolis yesterday and the crestfallen Tribesmen moved into St. Paul today to open a 3-game series with the Apostles at Lexington Park.

The Saints are another disappointed outfit and are in the eighth hole, less than one-half game back of the Hoosiers. Gaby Street's pastimes were heralded as powerful contenders for the pennant but, like the Indians, they seem to lack balance and consistency.

The Apostles finished second last year, and with the Indians fourth, and in the post-season playoff between the clubs Indianapolis won four out of five.

Wade Killefer's Redskins will leave for home Thursday night, travel on Friday and open the night baseball season at Perry Stadium Saturday against Milwaukee.

Logan Finally Checks Millers
Times Special

MINNEAPOLIS, May 11.—Striking out seven, three in one inning, Lefty Bob-Logan of the Indians subdued the Mauling Millers in the series finale at Nicollet Park yesterday and the Indians salvaged one game out of three, 2 to 1.

The battle went on to the ninth stanza with the score deadlocked, 1 and 1, when Danny Taylor blasted a home run over the left field fence as first up in the last round. It was the game-winning punch and the Millers were turned back in.

John Peacock, the Millers' catcher, touched Logan for a round-tripper in the third inning and when on in the Millers were blanked.

Beau Also in Form
Hits were eight apiece and it was a mound struggle seldom seen in the ballpark park. Bevy, Ben, right-hander went the round for the home nine and held Logan to even terms until the ninth.

Shanty Hogan's first hit as an Indian led the Tribe fifth, but George Archie grounded into a double play, one out, three executed by the Millers. Parker singled and Oscar Eckhardt connected for his second hit of the day and it scored Parker with the important tying marker.

Logan, pitched out of a hole in the Millers' fifth when, with runners on second and third and one out, he fanned Bean and forced Spence to tap out to the infield. Peacock's homer was registered in the third as first out. It was the inning in which Logan fanned three in a row, Bean, Spence and Cooke.
