Rites Tomorrow

RITES ARRANGED FOR GAS VICTIM

Frank Layton, Plumbing
Firm Head, Is Found Dead in Garage.

Funeral arrangements were to be completed today for Frank Layton, plumbing company head, found dead in his garage yesterday, the victim of carbon monoxide gas. He was 64.

Mrs. Sallie Layton, his wife, told police she became alarmed when Layton did not return from his plumbing shop, 225 N. Alabama St., at the usual time. She called Otto P. Kern, 5310 Broadway, neighbor, who found him in his car.

Mr. Kern said the motor was not running but the car hood had been raised. Dr. Norman Booner, deputy coroner, said the position of the body indicated that he had reached for the ignition switch before losing consciousness.

Mr. Layton, who lived at 822 E. 53d St., had been a resident of Indianapolis 40 years. He was a member of the Central Avenue Methodist Church.

He is survived by his wife, Sallie, and two daughters, Mrs. Mae Smith of Glendale, Cal., and Mrs. Betty Mode of Indianapolis.

PHOTOPHONE GROUP TO HOLD CONVENTION

Mrs. Norton shook with rage when Federal Judge George Costigan sent her to the Orange County jail for mail fraud.

"Hi thinks this is disgraceful," she snapped.

"If it covers the floor, we have it."
