

BEECH GROVE CHURCH TO CONDUCT FETE

Ex-Pastors
Return for Anniversary

Three Programs Scheduled for 25th Birthday Sunday.

Beech Grove Christian Church members are to commemorate the church's 25th anniversary tomorrow with three services.

The program includes a worship service in the morning, an anniversary message in the afternoon, and an evangelistic praise service in the evening.

Founded in 1912 by 25 charter members, the Beech Grove Christian Church began during an evangelistic tent meeting conducted by the Rev. Aubrey Moore.

Worshiped in Basement

The congregation worshipped in the present building's basement from 1912 until 1926, when the structure was completed.

From its original membership of 25, the church has grown to a resident congregation of 375.

At the morning service at 9:30 a. m., the Rev. E. E. Russell, pastor, is to speak on "The Future of the Faith." Bible School and a special program are scheduled for 10:30, and a fellowship period and dinner are set for 11:15 a. m. and 12:30 p. m.

School Orchestra to Play

The Beech Grove High School orchestra is to present a program at 1:30 p. m., and the anniversary program is scheduled for 2 p. m.

A highlight is the anniversary address by the Rev. Mr. Thorne, former pastor, on "The Glory of the Ordinary Church Member."

An evangelistic praise service at 7:30 p. m. is to be conducted by the Rev. Bert Johnson, Downey Avenue Christian Church pastor.

6 Assistants
Are Shifted

Bishop Ritter Announces Changes for Clergy.

Six changes affecting diocesan clergy in Indianapolis were included in a list announced today by the Most Rev. Joseph E. Ritter, bishop of the Diocese of Indianapolis.

The Rev. Fr. John Holloran, temporary assistant at St. Anthony's Church, has been appointed superintendent of the Keltz Memorial High School, Evansville.

The Rev. Fr. James F. McBaron, St. Joan of Arc Church assistant, was named administrator at All Saints, Cambridge.

The Rev. Fr. Andrew Bastnagel, St. Martin's, Meridian, is to act as assistant at St. Mary's Church here.

The Rev. Fr. John Betz of Terre Haute was named assistant at Our Lady of Lourdes.

All appointments are to be effective next Friday, Bishop Ritter said.

CHURCH TO PICNIC

St. Matthew Lutheran Church is to observe picnic Sunday tomorrow when the entire congregation will go to Riley Park at Greenfield for a basket dinner.

—Weekly Sunday School Lesson—

God Provides a Leader

Text: Exodus 3:1-12

FROM the story of Joseph and the descent of the children of Israel into bondage in Egypt, we come now to the equally inspiring story of Moses, the great type of the leader and deliverer.

The story of Joseph began in personal tragedy as Joseph was sold by his brethren and suffered persecution and imprisonment in Egypt.

Here the story begins in the tragedy of a people, cast down from their former prosperity in the bitterness of cruel tasks, and suffering from tyrannous masters, yet helpless and almost in despair because there is no way of deliverance.

NOW suddenly a leader and deliverer appears, a man who, like Joseph, has had the opportunity of power and preferment, but in whom loyalty to his people and in whom great traditions means more than any success or power he may achieve for himself.

Moses had been born in this condition of bondage at the very time when Pharaoh, in fear of the increasing numbers of the Jews, had taken the ruthless course of destroying their babes. The love of the mother for her babe had led her to set him afloat in the little ark of bulrushes, in the hope that though she would lose him, he might escape destruction.

Pharaoh's daughter had found the babe and taken him into the palace, and as it turned out, the babe's own mother had become his nurse. It was no wonder that Moses had become so instilled with the sense of unity with the people, that when he became older he refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter, and chose rather to cast in his lot with his own people, and to share their afflictions.

He was a man of intensity and sympathy for his people. When he went out and saw one of his own race being smitten by an Egyptian,

1400 Due at
Notre Dame
Conference

Laymen to Live as Students for Three Days On Campus.

Times Special
SOUTH BEND, July 10.—An estimated 1400 Catholics are expected for the 19th annual Laymen's Retreat on the University of Notre Dame campus Aug. 5-8, the Rev. Fr. Patrick Dolan said today.

For three days, the participants withdraw from business affairs, live the routine of a Notre Dame student, with religious conferences taking the place of classwork.

The Rev. Fr. Leo P. Flood is to assist Father Dolan. Ten members of the Holy Cross mission band also are to aid in preaching at the conference.

Distant Points Represented

Advance registration shows that groups of laymen are coming from as far West as California and Washington and from as far East as New York and New England.

Conferences are to be held in the Grotto of Lourdes on the campus. This is a replica of the famous French shrine.

Climax of the retreat is the candlelight procession on the last night of the conference. All participants carry lighted tapers and march from Sacred Heart Church through the University grounds to the Grotto for solemn benediction. It is the one public ceremony of the retreat.

The Forty-ninth Street Christian Church, 49th St. and Schofield Ave., is to celebrate its 10th anniversary July 18 with morning and afternoon services.

A basket dinner is to be served at noon. Dr. G. I. Hoover, State Christian Missionary Association general secretary, is to speak in the morning, and the Rev. E. L. Day, Christian Church Union executive secretary, is to be in charge of the fellowship service in the afternoon.

Principal speakers on the afternoon program are to be the Rev. Harry T. Bridwell, Christian Ministers' Association president, and the Rev. Ephraim D. Lowe, Christian Church Union president.

Former ministers and other church members are expected to attend. The Rev. Joseph Craig, pastor, is to have general charge of the day's program. Mrs. C. F. Dillenback is to be in charge of music.
