Lake Maxinkuckee Weekdays Ruled Completely by Children

By MARGARET B. JAMESON
Times Special Writer

LAKE MAXINKUCKEE, July 12.—Children rule Maxinkuckee during the week. From the departure of father and week-end guests on forlorn Mondays until Saturday brings back excitement, the resort belongs to "the kids."

Most parents have glowing memories of early vacations spent here and they intend that their children shall have equally vivid ones.

"Turtles for sale" has been a sign on the Lake Shore Road for many seasons. All the children have tubs and cages full of turtles.

Turtle catching seems to be a hereditary pursuit among Maxinkuckee vacationists. Dickie West, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold West, has built up a turtle trade. Clyde Rockwood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rockwood, identifies and classifies turtles as well as aquatic and land beetles and plants.

Daytime is full of activity from breakfast to supper time for every youngster. Almost all sails are furled and outboard motors tuned up for fishing or just "put-putting" every morning.

Fish With Crow-dads

Boys must be driven to Liet's Ford for crawdads or around the lake for angle worms. Fred and John Holliday and Charles Res fish many hours every week.

On Tuesdays and Fridays, sons and daughters above the age of a 7 o'clock bedtime, go to Culver Military Academy for a movie. Thursday, "mild-night-out," Maxinkuckee folk meet at "The Shack" for supper. That sums up the night-life of the young except for an occasional birthday supper or picnic.

For the extremely young, there are small strips of sandy beach along the shore where buckets and shovels are piled and little fingers gather small shells and lake objects that wash up along the water edge.

Some Play Tennis

In such a place may be found Sally Delight Pifer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orien Pifer and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Baxter. Her older cousins, Mary Alice and Arthur Baxter live next door and dive and swim with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Baxter. They also enjoy the large family motor boat.

Edward Dunn and Harvey Bradley play tennis often. Cynthia Hendricks is learning tennis from her father, Thomas A. Hendricks, an excellent teacher.

Cynthia and her little cocker spaniel, "Tarbaby," usually can be seen playing with Cynthia's cousins, Henry Charles and Jackie Bennett, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Bennett, live next door.

Dogs Popular

Everyone seems to have a dog, and many of these favorite animals are so familiar that they have come to be considered part of the Maxinkuckee scene.

The second company of the Culver Military Academy was host at a dance Wednesday night. Miss Sylvia Pittman, who is visiting Miss Jane Axtel, was a guest. Other Indianapolis girls present included Misses Barbara Noel, Carol Noll, Josephine Kingston, Peggy Trussler, Dorothy Rybolt and Elsie Ann Locke. Miss Pittman visited Mrs. Henry Bliss over the week-end.

Miss Catherine Cunningham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Cunningham, is to visit Miss Eleanor Winslow this week and attend the next dance at the Academy.

Members of Alpha Chapter, Alpha Delta Omega Sorority, are to hold a Founders Day dinner this evening at Joslin's.

Miss Jennie Henshaw is to be toastmistress. Speakers are to include Mrs. Fred Milholland, retiring president; Mrs. Jack Kassenbrook, newly elected president; Mrs. Mary Sibach, president of Eta Chapter, Anderson, and Mrs. Bjorn Winger, program director.

Pledge services are to be held for the Misses Lila Clark, Hazel Barrett, Geraldine Stevens, Iris Williamson, Grace Jais and Donna Jacobson. Miss Amy Boner and Miss Mabel Hall are in charge of pledging arrangements.
