

(Eddie Ash is on vacation)

THE Amateur Day attraction seems to have turned out very well from the standpoint of attendance, and certainly those who attended were well rewarded.

The Chevrolet Commercial Body team put on a Garrison finish to trip the Real Silk boys in the opener and in the feature tilt the Mallorays defeated the top rung Schwitzer-Cummins team in a regular league game, thus repeating a triumph scored earlier in the season.

Proceeds will help send our local champions to the national tournament.

The Indianapolis Amateur Baseball Association, sponsor of the program, again is to be congratulated. For many years this organization has been a great force in developing amateur baseball and a constant source of encouragement to the young men engaged therein, not a few of whom have found the opportunity to play in organized competition a stepping stone to the big time.

We are glad that this enthusiasm shows no sign of hitting the downgrade. We trust it never will.

OUR Indians, though defeated in the nightcap of yesterday's double-header with the Mud Hens, definitely seem to have shaken off that "debut" batting slump.

They grabbed Saturday's opener, 4-3, assaulting Fred Johnson, the Hens' moundsman, for a total of 12 safeties. This served very nicely as a warmup for the first game of the double bill, on the Sabbath, when they bombarded the combined offerings of Sorrell, French and Johnson for a total of 19 hits which is good enough slugging in anybody's league.

Even in the nightcap the boys didn't fare so badly, getting eight blows off their erstwhile teammate, that reticent young man, Mr. Dizzy Trout.

The Redskins are showing a disposition to reverse their behavior of last year when they fell to pieces on the road and then came back home to stage a very impressive winning streak.

Maybe they'll be back up there at or near the top when they return July 23.

Let's hope so.

ON Friday of last week the big league batters went on a rampage and almost blasted the pitchers out of the various parks with a murderous attack that resulted in a total of 128 runs from 203 hits, a record for the year.

Yesterday, however, the pitchers had their innings.

Lou Pette, the 30-year-old rookie of the Boston Bees, who did plenty of pitching for the St. Paul Saints, last year, won a 13-inning thriller from the Phils, 1-0.

Vernon (El Goofy) Gomez' six-hit performance against the Senators demonstrated that his pitching in the All-Star classic was no mere flash in the pan. Undoubtedly Lefty has the stuff and is headed for one of his very best years. And when the Goofy one is good he is very, very good indeed.

Bob Feller's defeat while allowing the Tigers only two hits is no less than a tragedy, another episode in the boy's courageous fight to demonstrate his ability in fast company.

FIRST Bob threw his arm out in his first start of the year. It was shortly before that he unintentionally beamed Hank Leiber of the Giants during a game in New Orleans. Hank was badly hurt but kept the management in the dark. His hitting and fielding fell off, however, and finally he owned up to be shipped off to a hospital. While in New York, Feller dropped in to see Leiber as sort of a sportsmanlike gesture, but seeing Hank done up in bandages, in the opinion of many, didn't do the boy any good.

Yesterday's loss was his third in as many starts.

Though wildness was mainly responsible for his defeat yesterday, it begins to look as if the Iowa boy will have to turn in a perfect game before he chalks one up in the win column.

Anyway, he went the route and that ought to go a long way toward answering questions as to whether his arm is back in shape.

It will be things up at the turnstiles if it develops that the young valdicator can take his regular turn.

The Cleveland front office probably would appreciate it, too. The young man's contract doesn't call for marbles!

Baseball at a Glance

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION
Columbus	47	36	.567
Indianapolis	47	37	.560
Dayton	42	38	.526
Kansas City	41	38	.518
St. Paul	38	41	.480
St. Louis	32	48	.400

AMERICAN LEAGUE
New York	42	29	.592
Detroit	42	30	.583
Chicago	40	32	.558
Boston	39	33	.543
Cleveland	38	34	.526
Washington	30	42	.417
Philadelphia	22	47	.316

NATIONAL LEAGUE
Chicago	45	27	.621
Pittsburgh	40	31	.563
St. Louis	38	30	.558
Boston	38	30	.558
Brooklyn	30	40	.430
Cincinnati	28	43	.395
Philadelphia	28	43	.395

Games Today
INDIANAPOLIS at Toledo (night).
Indianapolis at Milwaukee.
St. Paul at Kansas City.

AMERICAN LEAGUE
Cleveland at Chicago.
Only game scheduled.

NATIONAL LEAGUE
New York at Philadelphia.
Chicago at Cincinnati.
St. Louis at Pittsburgh.
Brooklyn at Philadelphia.

AMERICAN LEAGUE
(First Game)
Boston	011 202 300	4 11 0
Philadelphia	100 001 200	4 10 0
Winn and Berg; Thomas, Keller, Gumbert and Conroy.

(Second Game)
Boston	000 100 241	8 12 1
Philadelphia	000 000 010	3 10 0
McKain and Desautels; Smith, Turberville and Brucker.

(First Game)
Cleveland	000 101 000	2 3 0
Detroit	000 101 001	3 2 0
Feller and Pytlak; Poffenberger and Tebbets.

(Second Game)
Washington	000 040 010	3 6 0
New York	101 002 001	3 11 0
Dezhong, Cohen and R. Ferrell; Murphy, Makosky, Hadley and Dickey.

(First Game)
St. Louis	000 010 000	4 11 0
Chicago	010 000 000	3 11 0
Kuust and Heath; Lyons, Whitehead and Sevel.

(Second Game)
St. Louis	000 003 000	3 7 0
Chicago	000 102 100	4 7 1
Koupal and Huffman; Stratton and Shea.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION
(First Game)
St. Paul	010 001 011	8 17 1
Kansas City	010 100 000	3 11 2
Welch and Fenner; Stine, Richmond, Gibbs and Breese.

(Second Game)
St. Paul	010 001 011	8 17 1
Kansas City	010 100 000	3 11 2
Cox and Pask; Stine; Pace and Harlie.

(First Game)
Minneapolis	011 010 030	3 10 0
Milwaukee	011 011 030	7 12 1
Bean and Peacock; Zuber and Brenzel.

(Second Game)
St. Paul	010 001 011	8 17 1
Kansas City	010 100 000	3 11 2
Cox and Pask; Stine; Pace and Harlie.

(First Game)
Minneapolis	011 010 030	3 10 0
Milwaukee	011 011 030	7 12 1
Bean and Peacock; Zuber and Brenzel.

(Second Game)
St. Paul	010 001 011	8 17 1
Kansas City	010 100 000	3 11 2
Cox and Pask; Stine; Pace and Harlie.

(First Game)
Minneapolis	011 010 030	3 10 0
Milwaukee	011 011 030	7 12 1
Bean and Peacock; Zuber and Brenzel.

(Second Game)
St. Paul	010 001 011	8 17 1
Kansas City	010 100 000	3 11 2
Cox and Pask; Stine; Pace and Harlie.

(First Game)
Minneapolis	011 010 030	3 10 0
Milwaukee	011 011 030	7 12 1
Bean and Peacock; Zuber and Brenzel.

(Second Game)
St. Paul	010 001 011	8 17 1
Kansas City	010 100 000	3 11 2
Cox and Pask; Stine; Pace and Harlie.

(First Game)
Minneapolis	011 010 030	3 10 0
Milwaukee	011 011 030	7 12 1
Bean and Peacock; Zuber and Brenzel.

(Second Game)
St. Paul	010 001 011	8 17 1
Kansas City	010 100 000	3 11 2
Cox and Pask; Stine; Pace and Harlie.

(First Game)
Minneapolis	011 010 030	3 10 0
Milwaukee	011 011 030	7 12 1
Bean and Peacock; Zuber and Brenzel.

(Second Game)
St. Paul	010 001 011	8 17 1
Kansas City	010 100 000	3 11 2
Cox and Pask; Stine; Pace and Harlie.

(First Game)
Minneapolis	011 010 030	3 10 0
Milwaukee	011 011 030	7 12 1
Bean and Peacock; Zuber and Brenzel.

FELLER'S WILDNESS WORRIES CLEVELAND

Bob Allows Only 2 Hits But Is Beaten

Bases on Balls and Wild Pitch Enable Tigers to Trip Boy Wonder.

By GEORGE KIRKSEY

United Press Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, July 12.—Bob Feller, farmboy strikeout king of the American League, was back in harness today, but his lack of control had his Cleveland bosses guessing as to how much he could help the Indians in this year's pennant race.

After amazing the baseball world by fanning 17 men in a game last year, Feller pulled a muscle in the sixth inning of his first start this year and, after fanning 11 men, lost, 4-3, to the Browns.

Until July 4 he had only two relief roles and was ineffective in both. He lost his Independence Day start to Detroit 3-2 when he fielded a bunt and threw to an uncovered bag.

The Tigers handed him his third defeat, in as many starts, yesterday by the same margin—3 to 2. The 19-year-old fireballer doled out but two hits. His own wildness spelled defeat.

Bases on balls figured in every Detroit run. White walked in the fourth, went to second on an infield out and scored on Greenberg's single. Leading 2-1 in the sixth as a result of home runs by his teammates, Solters and Trocky, Bob filled the bases with walks. He fanned a mighty slugger in Hank Greenberg, but a wild pitch to Gee Walker allowed the tying run to come in.

Reds Out of Cellar

The victory moved the Tigers back into second place above the Chicago White Sox, who divided a double-header with the St. Louis Browns.

The five-hit pitching of Jack Knott won, 4-1, for St. Louis in the opener, while Monte Stratton hurled seventh-inning ball to win the nightcap, 4-3.

The New York Yankees increased their league lead to six games, posting a 10-0 victory over the Washington Senators, 4-3, then battling to a 5-5 deadlock called at the end of the ninth because of darkness. Lefty Gomez scattered six hits to score his 11th victory in the opener. Boston's Red Sox pulled it within a hair in the five-game series for the Philadelphia Athletics twice, 9-4 and 8-2.

The National League lead of the Chicago Cubs was trimmed to a half game over the New York Giants when they were defeated, 3-2, by the Pittsburgh Pirates. Bill Swift turned the Braves back with six hits. The Giants took both ends of the twin matinee bill from Brooklyn, 10-4 and 5-1.

STERLING BEERS WIN BY RALLY IN NINTH

CHICAGO, July 12.—Scoring three runs in the ninth inning, the Sterling Beers of Indianapolis defeated the Mills squad 5 to 2 yesterday in the first game of a scheduled doubleheader. The second tilt was stopped by rain in the first inning.

Tobin starred for the Beers. He doubled in last inning to send in the winning runs. The score: Sterling Beers..... 101 000 003—5 9 2
Mills..... 000 000 020—2 9 0
Garland and Parnell; Natsurum, Williams, Bean and Finnane.

Garland Braxton started on the hill for the Indians in yesterday's finale but was chased in the sixth to be relieved by Emmett Nelson.

Fred Berger hit for the circuit in both games, his homer in the second encounter accounting for the Tribes' only marker.

TRIBE BATTING

	G	AB	H	Pct.
Riddle	45	187	65	.346
Eckhardt	32	131	118	.336
Berger	77	303	97	.320
Sherlock	82	244	106	.308
Mettler	27	66	20	.303
Lewis	44	129	38	.295
Archie	56	187	54	.289
Fausett	67	277	78	.282
Fausett	68	258	70	.271
Parker	53	185	37	.224

And there was only one way this human scenario could be ended, and that was the melodramatic Hollywood way. In the end this man whose past was so mysterious he could be nothing less than a fabulously wealthy miner, a strong, silent man by nature, whose physical prowess would have shamed the Olympians, whose athletic exploits were a compound of sheer genius and black magic—in the end this man just had to be the grimy, tawdry opposite of everything he pretended. The final fadeout had to show the miracle turned to mud.

Beaten by Dudley

The legend that was Montague began to crumble last winter when the touring professionals started filing evidence in rebuttal. To the claim he would win any major championship he could be persuaded to recall certain times when the gentleman was something less than sensational. They recalled that Ed Dudley had beaten him with a 63 against a 73 just a few weeks before.

By UNITED PRESS

NEW YORK, July 12.—Donald McNell, Kenyon College student from Oklahoma City, became the second holder of the Trotter Challenge Bowl today as a result of defeating Gerin Cameron of Tulsa, Okla., University, 6-4, 6-3, 1-6, 7-5, in the finals of the annual Queens Clay Court Tennis Championships. Gerard Foster, Montclair, N. J., initial winner of the bowl, did not defend his title this year.

BILL JURGES FINED $25

ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 10.—Bill Jurges, Cub shortstop, has been fined $25 for his run-in with the umpire in a recent game with the Cards.

ACHING HEADS AND SPOTTY EYES

Don't let constipation ruin your health. Read Mr. Davidson's message of cheer: "Kellogg's ALL-BRAN has sure been a godsend to me. It is the first relief I have ever had. Believe me, I will be a booster for Kellogg's ALL-BRAN as long as I live!"—C. T. Davidson, 722 N. St., Sacramento, Calif.

Common constipation may lead to many diseases. Unpleasant breath, blotchy complexion, spots before the eyes—are only fore-runners of worse to come.

Conquer constipation with a delicious, ready-to-eat cereal—Kellogg's ALL-BRAN. Simply eat two tablespoons daily—in chronic cases with every meal. Serve it with milk or fruits. Cook into appetizing muffins, breads, etc.

In a few minutes your plate is sweet and clean—purified and hygienic. Gums lose that false look—and appear more live and natural. Polident costs only 30 cents at any drug store for a long-lasting supply.

—Adv.

Clean False Teeth New, Magic Way

No Brushing—Yet Polished Like New in Just a Few Minutes!

Dental science has now found the ideal way to clean plates and removable bridges. All you do is place them in a small glass of water and add a little Polident powder. You can actually see the stains, tarnish and foul deposits dissolve right before your eyes. And Polident is absolutely harmless. It is made by the famous Wernert Laboratories and is approved by Good Housekeeping Bureau and other leading authorities.

In a few minutes your plate is sweet and clean—purified and hygienic. Gums lose that false look—and appear more live and natural. Polident costs only 30 cents at any drug store for a long-lasting supply.

—Adv.

Bob Feller, boy wonder of the Cleveland Indians' mound staff, went the route for the first time this year against the Tigers yesterday. Here he is demonstrating that much-debated arm action.

Johnson Due To Hurl Today

Tribe Hopes He'll Assure Edge in Series.

Times Special

TOLEDO, July 12.—Manager Wade Killefer was expected to start Lloyd Johnson on the mound tonight in the third game of the series between the Indians and the Mud Hens.

So far the Tribesmen hold the edge, repeating their triumph in Saturday's opener by taking the first game of yesterday's double bill, 12 to 3, and then dropping the nightcap, 11 to 1.

Johnson has pitched great ball in his last three starts and Killefer is confident that big boy will come through to assure an edge in the five-game series for the Indianapolis club.

Killefer was in a jubilant mood today over the manner in which the Redskin sluggers and regained their batting eyes. In the first game yesterday, the boys garnered 19 safeties compared to 12 the day before. Even in the nightcap which they lost the Tribesmen hit safely eight times.

Failure to hit in the clutches resulted in a more or less disastrous home stand recently following a successful jaunt on the road.

Vance Price, who twirled the Indians to victory in yesterday's first game, also was among the effective sluggers, banging out three lusty safeties.

Garland Braxton started on the hill for the Indians in yesterday's finale but was chased in the sixth to be relieved by Emmett Nelson.

Fred Berger hit for the circuit in both games, his homer in the second encounter accounting for the Tribes' only marker.

TRIBE BATTING

erlock	82	344	106	.308
ttler	27	66	20	.303
wis	44	129	38	.295
bie	56	187	54	.288