

UNITY TO BE KEYNOTE OF M. E. PARLEY

Conference Is to Be Held Here in Fall

Roberts Park Church to Be Host to State Meeting.

Church unity is to be a keynote of the Indiana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Roberts Park Church here Sept. 14 to 20, according to an announcement today.

The opening conference sermon is to be given by the Rev. Forney Hutchins, pastor of the Boston Avenue Church in Tulsa, Okla., one of the largest churches of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in which a unification referendum is now under way.

Three hundred thirty pastors and laymen from 207 churches in southern Indiana are to be welcomed to the city by Governor Townsend. J. D. Johnston is to deliver the welcome of the Roberts Park Church, and presiding Bishop Francis J. McConnell, New York, former DePaul University president, is to respond. Bishop McConnell is to preside because of the recent illness of Bishop Edgar Blake, Detroit.

Delegates are to be entertained during the conference in Indianapolis homes.

Business on Program
Most of the week is to be devoted to church business. The educational anniversary program Saturday evening is to be addressed by President H. Marion Smith of Evansville College.

President Clyde Everett Widman of DePaul University is to address the young people's rally preceding the ordination service Sunday afternoon. Other conference speakers include faculty members of DePaul and Boston Universities.

Five of the leading Methodist churches of the city are to sing during the conference.

Assignments of pastors are to be made by Bishop McConnell on the closing day of the conference.

Weekly Sunday School Lesson

God Feeds a People

Text: Exodus 16:11-20; 17:3-6

By WM. E. GILROY, D. D.
Editor of Advance

THE symbolism of the promised land and of God's leading the children of Israel into it, and of their liberation from the bondage of Egypt, is a story of the human race. It is a story of the human race's struggle for freedom and of its ultimate triumph over the forces of darkness and death.

Construction Steel Foreman Killed in Fall at Postoffice

For 22 years, Joseph E. Lyons followed the dangerous job of structural steel worker, and laughed off his wife's fears.

He rose to a foremanship, and was in charge of steel placement on many tall buildings. Yesterday he walked along the narrow ledge of stonework on the second floor of the new Federal building wing, 40 feet above the street in which office workers were hurrying home.

He was near the day's end. He was helping to bring up a load of steel. He reached for a choker cable tossed by a fellow workman.

But he missed it, lost his balance and was plunged to his death on a pile of stone and steel.

First Fatality on Project

The accident was the first fatality since construction started several months ago on the new addition.

Mr. Lyons, who was 41 and lived at 33 S. Hawthorne Lane, was a foreman for the Ben Hur Construction Co., 1900 Montcalm St., subcontractors for steel work on the project. A resident of Indianapolis for 12 years, he had been employed by the local concern since 1924.

Mr. Lyons was a member of the Trinity lodge, P. & A. M., and the Downey Avenue Christian Church. Survivors are the wife, Mrs. Dorothy Lyons, and three brothers, all living in Eastern states.

Funeral arrangements were to be completed today. Dr. Hugh K. Thatcher, deputy coroner, was to conduct an investigation.
