HIESTAND HAS EYE ON CLAYS
MAY WIN HIGH AVERAGE TITLE

GENERALLY recognized as the world's ace shotgun marksman, Joe Hiestand, Hillsboro, O., farm product, who lives comfortably off the prize money he collects at trapshooting tournaments, has never won a national high average championship. . . . The high-average crown is to trapshooting what winning a batting championship is to a ball player. . . . Somehow, the title always has managed to miss Hiestand by a fraction of a percentage point or so, although he probably shoots more registered targets than any other "claybuster" in the country, winter or summer.

To date this year, Hiestand has fired at 3750 registered birds, and indications are that he will win the first high-average title of his career. . . . He leads now with the remarkable average of .9888—approximately 99 hits out of every 100 registered targets fired at.

HIESTAND will have a chance to hike his average in the coming Grand American tournament, trapshooting's annual world series, held at the permanent home grounds of the Amateur Trapshooting Association, Vandalia, O. Last year, Hiestand won the North American Clay Target title, the Doubles and the High Over-All crown at the Grand American, among other triumphs.

As Ohio champion this year with 200 straight, he is eligible for the State Champions' race, and will be among the favorites to win. . . . Hale Jones of Wood River, Ill., was last year's national high-average champion.

BROOKLYN is trying to buy outfielder Carl Reynolds and Shortstop Red Kress from the Minneapolis Millers. . . . Seasoned timber and entitled to another chance in the majors. . . . Carl is slapping the leather at about 370 and Red at 330. . . . A local bookie is singing. . . . At the start of the American Association season a customer wagered a half C-note he could pick a higher 1937 hitter than the bookie. . . . The bookie named Oscar Eckhardt of Indianapolis who batted .353 last year. . . . The customer named Reynolds. . . . And Eckhardt is 19 points off his 1936 pace. . . . Reynolds, with Washington last season, hit .276.

BOB JOHNSON of the Philadelphia Athletics has brought a measure of fame to himself and the lowly Mackays this year. . . . He has robbed two pitchers of no-hit games. . . . The only hit off Eddon Auker of the Detroit Tigers on June 9 was a one-baser by Johnson, and on June 30 the lone hit off Lefty Gomez of the New York Yankees was a round-tripper by Johnson. . . . And he was below the 300 mark in the last published averages.

THE East defeated the West, 7 to 2, in that annual Negro All-Star game in Chicago. . . . A crowd of 30,000 turned out. . . . Ted Strong of the Indianapolis A's, banged out a single and triple for the Westners, who were away from home next Sunday, Aug. 15, playing at the early tomorrow morning to clear the decks for a record mid-week crowd in Beantown. . . . The Red Sox and Yankees are to clash in a double-header. . . . Cleveland has not won a game in Yankee Stadium this year. . . . The Clevelanders will be glad when the season ends.

BARNEY ROSS, world welterweight champion, will engage in a warmup bout with Al Menefredo of California at Des Moines Aug. 19 in preparation for his title go with Cefterino Garcia in New York on Sept. 23. . . . Johnny Hopp, outfielder with the Rochester Internationals, will receive a thorough tryout with the St. Louis Cardinals next spring. . . . Hopp is an all-around star for the Red Wings. . . . Matty Bell, Southern Methodist grid coach, told a Dallas sports writer that Vernon Huffman, Indiana University's 1936 quarterback, was the equal of Slim Sam Baugh of the Mustangs in the art of tossing the football.

ANSWER to fan—Three more night games remain on the Cincy Reds' schedule at Crosley Field, as follows: Aug. 17, St. Louis Cardinals; Aug. 20, Chicago Cubs; Sept. 3, St. Louis Cardinals. The Aug. 20 tilt with the Cubs is the postponed night game of July 12. The Reds will be away from home next Sunday, Aug. 15, playing at Wrigley Field, Chicago, in a double-header with the league-leading Bruins. . . . Johnny Rizzo, hard-hitting Columbus outfielder, was the property of the Reds in 1932 when he was a raw rookie and landed in the St. Louis Cardinal chain in the deal that sent Jim Bottomley to the Queen City.

GRONAUER ADVANCES IN STATE AMATEUR

Indianapolis Star Defeats Huffine of Elwood, 5 and 3, At Kokomo Country Club

64 Compete in Match Eliminations Second Day of Title Tournament; Polnow, Speedway, and Stevens, Evansville, Reach Championship Flight.

KOKOMO, Aug. 10.—Fred Gronauer, Indianapolis, eliminated K. W. Huffine, Elwood, 5 and 3, today to advance to the afternoon round as match play began in the 37th annual amateur tournament of the Indiana Golf Association.

Displaying the same brand of golf that landed him in a tie with three others for medal honors in the opening day of play over the Kokomo Country Club links, Gronauer disposed of his Elwood opponent with little difficulty.

This afternoon Gronauer will oppose Leonard Polnow, representing the Speedway links, Indianapolis. Polnow defeated Steve Rose, Terre Haute, who was one of the star performers in the recent state junior tournament.

Talbot Moves Up
Other results this morning: W. C. McClure, Richmond, defeated Dick Aughe, Frankfort, 3 and 1. H. Klein, Kokomo, won from R. W. Wood, Washington, 3 and 2. Phil Talbot, Bloomington, eliminated Dick Elliott, Logansport, 5 and 3. R. L. Phillips, Terre Haute, was eliminated by Don Kirk, Speedway, 4 and 3. Mike Stefachik, Gary, won one up, from H. Yelch Jr., Gary. Don Orlick, Gary, won 2 and 2 from L. T. Boyd, Kokomo.

Polnow got into the championship flight with Ralph Stevens, Evansville, in a playoff this morning. John Brittenbach, Indianapolis, the loser, qualified for the president's flight.

The short Kokomo course, approximately 6100 yards with par 70, again offered difficulties to the 64 golfers who entered this morning's round and none among the early finishers had achieved or bettered par.

The field was late in getting started and only eight matches had been completed at noon.

Still out on the course were John David, Hillcrest, of the Purdue golf team, who was playing Jess Deitzen, Kokomo, and Bill Reed Jr., Highland, whose opponent was Marion Coulter, Richmond.

David and Reed shot 72 yesterday to the with Gronauer and McClure for medalist honors.

The annual father and son tournament held in connection with the state amateur was won by Prof. G. A. Young of Lafayette, who scored an 81, and his son Keith, who took an 85 to give them a combined score of 166.

Harriet Randall, Indianapolis, turned in an 85. She had 41 going out and 44 coming in.

Women's Tourney In Second Round

Dorothy Ellis, Meridian Hills, Miss., champion; Elizabeth Dunn, Highland, Ind., runner-up; Mary Gorman, Highland, are paired in the feature matches of the second round of the Indianapolis Women's Golf Association tournament at the Meridian Hills Country Club today.

In yesterday's matches, Miss Ellis, ran true to form and took the lead, shooting an 81 over the soggy turf of the Highland Golf and Country Club course. Miss Dunn was six strokes behind, while Miss Gorman was third with an 88. Today's pairings and yesterday's scores:

9:30—Dorothy Ellis, Meridian Hills (81); Elizabeth Dunn, Highland (88); Mary Gorman, Highland (88).
9:45—Mrs. Frank Pletcher, Pleasant Run (87); Mrs. Ben Olson, Highland (88); Lillian Brown, Ellettsburg (90).
10:00—Mrs. George Stewart, Pleasant Run (90); Mrs. Scott Legge, Pleasant Run (90); Mrs. W. M. Morris, Country Club (90).

10:15—Mrs. J. W. Wurst, Highland (90); Mrs. C. Smith, Highland (90); Catharine Thompson, Pleasant Run (90).
10:30—Mrs. J. L. Miller, Broadmoor (90); Mrs. W. M. Morris, Country Club (90); Mrs. W. M. Morris, Country Club (90).

WATER POLO TILTS SCHEDULED TONIGHT

Three games are scheduled in the City Recreation Department Independent Water Polo League at the Ellingerberg pool tonight. Willard will play Rhodius in the first game, Garfield meets Ellingerberg in the second, and the league leaders, Indianapolis A. C., will clash with the Hoosier A. C. in the final game. The standing:

Northwest Picks One of Its Own to Win U. S. Amateur

Don Erickson today at the finish of his splendid swing.

A blown-in-the-rain Pacific Northwesterner will win the National Amateur golf championship, in the opinion of the stalwart denizens who live among the lofty fir trees of "God's Country."

They advance a half dozen straight-grained reasons.

The first is that the tournament goes to the northwest corner of the United States for the first time.

The scene of the week of Aug. 23 will be the tree-studded course of the Alderwood Golf and Country Club of Portland, fronted by the majestic Columbia River and with majestic Mt. Hood giving it a backdrop that Shubert couldn't match.

Only once before in 41 editions has the championship gone far west—in 1929, when at renowned Pebble Beach of San Francisco, Cal., Johnny Goodman put out the immortal Bobby Jones.

Four of the Pacific Northwest legion's shock troops are onetime Walker Cup stars—Moe of Portland, Westland of Everett, Wash., and Campbell and Givon of Seattle. The fifth member, Ward, is a phenomenal Tacoma youngster.

Moe Scores Comeback
A veteran at 27, Moe is shooting the brand of golf which rocketed him into international fame while he was still a Portland high school boy and later a University of Oregon undergraduate.

A precocious Moe won the Oregon Amateur at 18, the Western at 19, and held up his end triumphantly as a Walker Cup man at 20.

His brilliant shotmaking and contagious grin made him a gallery darling. He remains one of the most popular Americans ever to show on British fairways.

But sickness struck Moe soon after he performed on his second Walker Cup combination in 1932. The Great Open has thrown few fast balls since the foot injury.

At his best at match play, he is the favorite in the National up Washington way.

Given, a Walker Cup teammate of Campbell, has captured the P. N. G. A. championship the last two years in a row.

A large, apparently nervous young man, Givon is an amazing recovery artist. With Harry, it generally is a tie to rough to green to cup. He usually manages to get there somehow, and recently over a Seattle course, birdied and parred to a 61—merely 11 strokes under regulation.

Ward Demands Attention
Westland, who has a Western Amateur and French Open to his credit, is a former University of Washington luminary who now resides at Everett, some miles north of Seattle. He also played pretty fair Walker Cup golf, but gained his greatest renown in 1931, when he was runner-up to the ancient and honorable Francis Ouimet in the National Amateur. He didn't miss by any large amount of daylight, and it wouldn't be too surprising if he picked this trip.The Hoosier Athletic Club will hold its annual tournament at the Riverside Golf Course, Sept. 12.

Clark Espie, Pleasant Run, broke the amateur record for the Lakeshore Country Club course recently with a 73. The former mark was 74, set by Bobby Monroe. Espie, who represented the City in national tournaments a few years ago, carded four birdies.

Don Erickson With 67 Paces Field on Coast

Telegrapher Backed Heavily For First Honors in Public Links Tourney.

By United Press
HARDING PARK GOLF CLUB, SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 10.—Don Erickson, 25-year-old telegrapher from Alhambra, Cal., went into the second round of qualifying play in the National Public Links Golf Tournament today an overwhelming favorite after shooting a 67, five under par, for a new competitive record.Erickson, whose wood game failed to impress, set the new record with accurate chip shots and accurate putting. He used only 24 putts for the 18 holes, holding out five times on the outgoing nine and four times on a single putt coming in.

On the 16th hole he chipped into the cup from the apron of the green and on the 18th he sunk a 35-foot putt to finish the best round among the 191 golfers seeking the title now held by Pat Abbott of Hollywood.

Erickson was champion of public links players in his section in 1934. Three times before he had fought his way into the match play phase of the annual championship and once he won. In two other tournaments he failed to qualify. Yesterday he shot 34-33-67.

Abbott Shatters Par
Abbott, representing Pasadena, also shattered par with a round of 33-37-70.

Close behind Erickson was Joseph Greene, automobile company worker from Lansdowne, Pa., who had a 33-36-69, three below par.

Par also took a beating from Van Hall, Long Beach, Cal., with 71; from Robert Abels Jr., Santa Monica, also with 71, and Paul Genuis, Dayton, O., 71.

Par was equalled many times during the day. Among those turning in 72s were Edward Sams, Buffalo, N. Y.; Hall Dufour, Sacramento, Cal.; Claude Rippey, Washington, D. C., runner-up in the 1936 tourney; John L. Meier, Toledo, O.; Ralph Presby, Sacramento; Carl Kauffman, Pittsburgh, three times public links champion; Wes Berner, Portland, Ore.; Kaula Akau, Honolulu, and Lawrence Jankowski, Elizabeth, N. J., last player to finish the round.

Tie in Team Honors
The field will play the same course today to determine the 64 players who will compete in match play for the championship.

San Francisco and Sacramento teams tied for first place in the first-day team competition which will be decided by the total score of the four-man squads over the 36-hole qualifying round.

For the first 18 holes the two teams totaled 295 strokes. Philadelphia was in third place with 298, and Honolulu next with 300. Buffalo, Toledo and Los Angeles, tied for fifth with 304. Seattle, defending champion, was in 10th place with 309.

Golf experts estimated that on the basis of yesterday's play, a 29-hole total of 154 would be necessary to place a player in the match rounds beginning tomorrow.

William Walsh paced Indianapolis golfers with 38-37-75. Leonard Oliver tallied 36-42-78. Brainerd Bray, 40-40-80, and Ralph Givon, 41-44-85.

Roche's Record In Peril Tonight
The tricky and powerful George (Cry Baby) Zaharias, 240, Pueblo, Colo., one of the most colorful matmen in the game, comes to Sports Arena tonight with the intention of halting the winning ways of Dove (Iron Man) Roche, 220, the popular Deacon, Ill., husky. They headline an all-star card.

Roche, who always has been at his best against the "meanie" type faces wrestling fans' No. 1 "pet hate" when he grips with Zaharias. The latter is highly rated for his skill but is far from popular with most fans. The Colorado Grek is right at the top in heavyweight circles. The tussle is for two falls out of three.

In a special semiwindup, two star light heavies will provide the action. They are Billy Thom, 178, mat instructor at Indiana University and an outstanding contender for the crown in that division, and Ray Ryan, 181, the "Hoboken Hurricane" who is published as one of the best in the East. Frank Schroll, 215, Utica, N. Y., faces Chris Zaharias, 219, brother of George, in the opener.
