

Jumbo Is Pocket-Size Pooch

Jumbo's the name of this toy Manchester terrier—all 12 ounces of her. Jumbo is owned by Long's Kennels, 1905 E. Minnesota St. She weighed less than an ounce and a half at birth and is two months old now. Her owners say she won't weigh more than about a pound and a half at maturity. Normal Manchester terriers weigh four or five pounds when they're grown up. Jumbo's father, Tony, weighs three and three-quarter pounds and his mother, Mickey, weighed four. They're both thoroughbreds.

MONEY STOLEN FROM SOLDIER, OFFICERS TOLD

Ft. Harrison Private Accuses Two Service Men In Report to Police.

Two soldiers who took a billfold containing $20 from Private Oliver R. Bailey, Company A, 11th Infantry, Ft. Benjamin Harrison, were sought today. Bailey told police the money was taken last night as he stood at Ohio St. and Park Ave.

Byron Theising, 325 N. Warman Ave., reported to police that burglars, who ransacked his house yesterday, took two watches valued at $65 and jewelry valued at $40.

The loss of a billfold containing $85 was reported to police by Albert V. Witzki, 44 N. Pennsylvania St. Tools valued at $70 were reported stolen yesterday from the garage of Mrs. Agnes Gastineau, 215 N. Tacoma Ave.

CULVER MARKS FOUNDER'S DAY

Admiral Rodman Speaks on School's History.

Times Special

CULVER, Aug. 10.—Culver Military Academy summer school students today observed Founder's Day with ceremonies on the shores of Lake Maxinkuckee.

The memory of Henry Harrison Culver was honored. Admiral Hugh S. Rodman, U. S. Navy, retired, spoke of the school's work during its 43 years existence.

He was introduced by Brig. Gen. L. R. Gignilliat, Academy superintendent. A 43-gun salute was fired, and the Academy band played.

The ceremonies took place where Mr. Culver first planned the institution that bears his name. Born in Ohio in 1840, he began as a stove salesman. He founded and headed the Wrought Iron Range Co. of St. Louis. In 1881, ill health forced his retirement.

After two years of wandering, he made his home at Culver. After founding Culver Academy, he died in 1897. His sons carried on his work, and today the school is under direction of the Culver Educational Foundation.

PARK BOARD SEEKS BAN ON RESTAURANT

Site on 75th St. Violates Zoning Order, Claim.

The City Park Board today had asked Superior Judge Herbert E. Wilson to issue an injunction, restraining Mr. and Mrs. Samuel A. Spencer from building a restaurant at 75th St. and Road 31. William E. Mick, Inc., also was named defendant.

The Park Board charged that construction of a commercial building in that area would violate a general order issued by the Board July 10. The suit stated that the Board's resolution prohibited commercial buildings within 500 feet of boulevards or parkways.

The Board stated that the area around Road 31 and 75th St. recently was taken over by the Board as part of the City's park and boulevard system.

RIVAL REPUBLICAN LEADERS ARRIVING

Leaders of rival factions within the Republican State Committee were arriving today for conferences preliminary to the committee's meeting in the Claypool Hotel at 1 p. m. tomorrow.

The meeting was called by Ivan C. Morgan, State chairman, who has denied reports that he will resign and said that the principal reason for the meeting was to select a treasurer to succeed Burrell Wright, resigned.

Ewing Emison, Vincennes, 12th District chairman, leader of the minority faction which opposed the ousting of Harry C. Fenton, secretary, was among the first to arrive. Also in the city was Ralph Gates of Columbia City, majority faction leader.
