100 APPLY FOR PRESIDENCY AT STATE SCHOOL

Indiana U. Trustees May Cut Field Today; Name Due Jan. 1.

Indiana University trustees, meeting today in the Columbia Club, began narrowing down the field of candidates for the I. U. presidency. It was reported at least three more meetings this fall would be required before a final selection of a permanent successor for Dr. William Lowe Bryan is made. The next meeting is scheduled for Sept. 13, it was announced.

No other business was to be considered by the Board of Trustees, since George Ball, Muncie, board president, was unable to attend, a member said.

Selection Due Before Jan. 1. He indicated that the board is planning to make the selection before Jan. 1 in order to enable the new president to assume his post when the second semester opens in February.

Approximately 100 names are being considered, it was said. Some were substituted by alumni, some by University officials and others were presented by application, according to a member.

Dean Herman Wells is acting president. Reports that an executive vice presidency would be created at the meeting were denied by some board members. They said there had been some discussion of the need for the new post but it would not be considered in the near future.

commander-in-chief, intimated that he would order all American merchant ships not to try to enter "hostile" waters off the Wosung and Yangtze lightships.

This was the President Hoover's second dramatic arrival in local waters since the beginning of the battle for Shanghai.

It was at Manila when the United States Government became convinced of the urgent danger to American women and children here. By arrangement with the Dollar Line, the liner took aboard a company of Marines, the first American reinforcements, and made full steam for Shanghai.

One bomb hit the deck on the port side. A second hit a dummy smoke stack. A third struck amidships.

The President Hoover's master counted 25 shrapnel holes in the ship above the water line.

The liner's message that it had been ordered to proceed to Japan was interpreted to mean that it would drop its passengers by tender at the mouth of the river, take aboard refugees and make for San Francisco by way of Japan.

It is the first United States-bound American liner since the outbreak of the Shanghai battle. Previous refugees have been taken to Manila.

Two hours before the dramatic bombing messages, the liner had radioed ahead that Norman G. Harris, 53, Rochester, N. Y., a resident of China since 1905, was missing.

Friends Note Absence. Mr. Harris, a director of the Yee Tsong Tobacco Co., went to Manila with the liner on its last cruise, accompanying his wife and daughter, Mrs. Julian Briggs, who went as refugees. He sailed back with it. Friends noticed his absence this afternoon, the liner reported.

Britain Expected to Demand Early Reply

LONDON, Aug. 30 (U. P.).—Great Britain will follow up her note of protest to Japan with an early demand for a prompt, satisfactory reply, it was reported today.

J. L. Dodds, British charge d'affaires at Tokyo, presented the note yesterday to Koki Hirota, Japanese foreign minister, demanding the "fullest measure of redress" for a Japanese airplane attack on the British ambassador to China.

Of the 94 discharged in Brown County, artists' colony and farming area, 17 have returned to relief rolls, the survey showed.

One hundred and thirty-one, or 23.1 per cent of the 567 discharged in Elkhart, industrial county, fell back on relief. The percentage of return to relief rolls in the Evansville district was 15.7 per cent and 26.6 per cent in the Terre Haute district.

The commission is planning to make a second survey. One of the matters to be learned is how much time elapsed after their removal before the discharged workers asked for relief.

U. A. W. TO FRAME POLICY FOR '37-'38

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Aug. 30 (U. P.).—The executive board of the United Automobile Workers of America, dominated by the "progressive" faction headed by International President Homer Martin, will meet today to draft the 1937-1938 program.

Principal item in the next two years' work will be organization of workers in the vast Ford system, for which the national convention which adjourned last night voted a $400,000 "war chest."

Fifteen of the executive board's 24 votes were held by "progressives." The "unity" faction headed by Wyndham Mortimore, Cleveland, held eight.

Completion of the board's membership yesterday and last night brought a fresh outbreak of the factional strife which John L. Lewis, head of the C. I. O., sought to end by securing election of a compromise slate of general officers.

Bitter charges of "steamroller tactics," succeeded by disorder at the afternoon recess, brought special guards and an extra detachment of Milwaukee policemen to the hall as delegates convened for the final session.

Blames 'Bad Advice'. The Governor was asked: "Why, in your opinion, did VanNuy's oppose the court plan and break with the Administration?"

"The only reason I can see is that he must have received bad advice," the Governor answered.

After the editors' banquet, Mr. Townsend and Senator VanNuy's walked down a hall at the French Lick Springs Hotel within a few feet of each other, each in a contrasting mood.

Governor Townsend calmly was headed toward his room. He remarked that a fine meeting it had been. A short distance away, the Senator strode up to the elevator angrily. He was angry through and through at the Governor's address leveling 'the guns of the State Administration directly in his face.'

"Why didn't they let me speak after a while?" he roared. "I would have told them and my remarks would have been vastly different."

"The Governor made a cowardly attack upon myself, my patriotism and democracy."

Senator VanNuy said he would fight for renomination at the 1938 convention despite the opposition of the Administration. What form this battle will take he did not reveal.

But he is expected to go away on a brief vacation and then return to tour the state, building his political fences for 1938.

It was indicated at French Lick that Sam Jackson, Pt. Wayne attorney and chairman of the 1936 convention which nominated Mr. Townsend, has the Administration's support to succeed Mr. VanNuy, at least for the present. Mr. Jackson and his supporters contacted every important personage at the meeting, obviously booming him for the Senate seat.

Although Mr. Jackson had unofficial approval for the nomination the Administration was leaving loopholes enough to take care of advantageous changes in strategy, it was indicated.

"This was shortly after the Supreme Court plan had been proposed and Fred asked me what the people back home thought of it. I told him the rank and file of the party was for it."

"Although I knew of it, but didn't ask or insist on it, the Legislature voluntarily passed a resolution endorsing the President's stand on the Court. I told Fred about that resolution and added that all these men in the Legislature were doing their best to please the folks back home and knew what their people were thinking. I told him I didn't think they would jeopardize their own political careers by deliberately doing something their constituents opposed."

"But he said that his mail didn't show that was the way the people were thinking."

MOTHER OF F. D. R. SCORES THIRD TERM. PARIS, Aug. 30.—President Roosevelt does not want a third term, his mother, Mrs. Sarah Delano Roosevelt, declared today.

SURE HE DOESN'T WANT FOUR MORE YEARS, SHE SAYS. (Copyright, 1937, by United Press)

PARIS, Aug. 30.—President Roosevelt does not want a third term, his mother, Mrs. Sarah Delano Roosevelt, declared today.

"I am sure my son does not want to run for a third term as President," Mrs. Roosevelt said in an interview with the United Press.

"He feels that when he has completed the next three years, he will have done what was expected of him and will be ready to let someone else take his place. Surely there are other able men in the country competent for the Presidency."

Regarding rumors that the President might be planning to start a third party, Mrs. Roosevelt said she had never heard him mention such a possibility. She believes the idea could not originate with him because he is an ardent Democrat.

Mrs. Roosevelt, who is on a vacation, came here from the Salzburg festival for a month's stay, during which she will explore the Paris Exposition thoroughly. It will be her second one. As a little girl she visited the Paris Exposition of 1867.

WILLIAMSTOWN, Mass., Aug. 30 (U. P.).—America is "propaganda ridden" and "in the hands of sinister minorities" more than most nations, President William Mather Lewis of Lafayette College charged today at a round-table conference of Williams College's Institute of Human Relations.

Completion of the board's membership yesterday and last night brought a fresh outbreak of the factional strife which John L. Lewis, head of the C. I. O., sought to end by securing election of a compromise slate of general officers.

Bitter charges of "steamroller tactics," succeeded by disorder at the afternoon recess, brought special guards and an extra detachment of Milwaukee policemen to the hall as delegates convened for the final session.

Principal item in the next two years' work will be organization of workers in the vast Ford system, for which the national convention which adjourned last night voted a $400,000 "war chest."

Fifteen of the executive board's 24 votes were held by "progressives." The "unity" faction headed by Wyndham Mortimore, Cleveland, held eight.
