BOARD TO STUDY ZONE APPEALS

Filling Station and Home Renovation Plans Basis Of Some Pleas.

Eleven appeals for variance in the City zoning laws were to be heard today by the Zoning Board.

At the same time Val McLeary, City Plan Commission secretary, said he was planning a new zoning code incorporating all ordinances passed since its last publication in 1932. It probably will be published around Jan. 1.

One of the variance requests due for action was that of Mary E. Knue, who asked permission to erect a filling station at the southwest corner of 58th St. and College Ave.

The other requests follow: Warman H. Plack, northeast corner Mount and Washington Sts., requests variance of use to permit the erection of a filling station.

Harry H. Coburn, 3349 Park Ave., requests variance of use to permit the erection of a filling station.

Margaret Rochade, southwest corner 21st and Keokue Sts., requests variance of area requirements to permit the erection of a double house.

Mary Edith Robinson, 3019 Clifton St., requests variance of area requirements to permit the conversion of existing double house into a three-family apartment.

Charles Kaplan, northwest corner 14th St. and Senate Ave., requests variance of use to permit the erection of a coal and junk yard.

Secov Vacuum Oil Co. Inc., southwest corner 34th and Illinois Sts., requests variance of use to permit the erection of a filling station.

Brightwood Free Methodist Church, Inc., southwest corner 34th St. and Forest Manor Ave., requests variance of use to permit the erection of a basement church building.

FAIR MANAGEMENT TO GIVE LUNCHEON Representatives of 15 civic and commercial organizations are to attend a luncheon Thursday under the auspices of the State Fair management, it was announced today.

Lieut. Gov. Henry F. Schrieker and State Agriculture Board members also are to attend. The meeting is to be held in the Claypool Hotel Riley Room.

BURGLARS LOOT HOME HERE AS FAMILY SLEEPS

Cash, Jewelry, Merchandise Reported Stolen; Nine Face Gaming Counts.

While four members of the family slept, a burglar early today entered the home of Jess Davis, 2711 Cornell Ave., and stole $12 from his trousers pocket, he told police.

Mr. Davis said the intruder, who cut through a screen door to gain entrance, also took a flashlight, leaving his own in exchange.

Two Negroes who late Saturday night attacked Bayard Bell, of 1533 Steele St., and took his billfold, were due to find the wallet empty, Mr. Bell told police. The pair also robbed him of a watch valued at $15, he said.

Gets Ride, But Robbed After accepting an auto ride with two men yesterday, Wallace H. Arnold, 426 E. Morris St., was attacked by them at the Pennsylvania Railroad tracks and Morris St., and robbed of $5.70, he told police. Mr. Arnold said he mistook one of the men for a friend.

Police yesterday found Harold Boyd, 25, of 44 E. Raymond St., sitting in Military Park minus trousers and shoes, with a cut on the head. He said he had been slugged and robbed by two men. He was taken home after treatment in City Hospital.

Nine men were to appear in court today on gaming charges after a police squad reported walking into a cigar store at 416 Massachusetts Ave. last night and finding a poker game in progress.

Lottery Charged Ernest Mohler, 52, of 410 E. 10th St., was charged with keeping a gaming house, operating a room for pool selling and conducting a lottery and gift enterprise. John Ensley, 39, 108 E. St. Clair St., was charged with keeping a gaming house. Seven others were arrested on charges of gaming and visiting a gaming house.

Five cartons of cigarettes and $8 in cash made up the loot of two bandits who yesterday locked Robert Corn, 32, of 1229 Hiatt St., in a back room of his filling station on a cigar store at 416 Massachusetts Ave. last night and finding a poker game in progress.

Phil Scanlan, 32, faced vagrancy and burglary charges today after he confessed, according to police, that he broke into a filling station where he formerly was employed and took a blanket and pennies. He gained entrance to the station, at 5701 N. Illinois St., by breaking a window with his fist, police said.

Mrs. Marie Bryant reported a thief entered her apartment at 1433 N. Pennsylvania St., and stole a wrist watch valued at $40 and a ring valued at $17.

Burglars stole a radio set valued at $30 from the home of Mrs. Harry Becker, 716 Elm St. Miss Pearl Becker reported luggage and clothing missing from her apartment, No. 106, 2152 N. Meridian St.

Thieves entered a filling station at Orange and Shelby Sts. and took $25, police were told.

H. E. Gentry told police that a watch valued at $65 had been taken from his downtown hotel room.

JULY SALES IN STATE AND CITY GAIN OVER 1936

Retail Turnover Here Dips 14.1 Per Cent Under June, Survey Reveals.

Retail sales of 64 independent stores in Indianapolis showed an increase of 1.9 per cent in dollar volume for July, 1937, as compared with the same month for 1936, according to U. S. Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce estimates released today.

July sales here fell 14.1 per cent below those of June, according to the report.

Sales of 529 Indiana independent stores increased 7 per cent in July, 1937, over July, 1936. Evansville dealers reported the greatest gain, 23 per cent, with other changes for Indiana cities ranging down to the 3 per cent loss listed by Terre Haute.

Cities of 25,000 to 50,000 reported the largest increase over July, 1936, with an average of 15 per cent, followed by areas of less than 2500 with a gain of about 12 per cent. Cities in the 5000 to 10,000 group showed a climb of 7.9 per cent.

Cities of 100,000 and over, including Indianapolis, Evansville, Ft. Wayne, Gary and South Bend rose 5.4 per cent.

Without adjustment for seasonal influences, July sales for this year in the State were estimated to be 13.6 per cent below those of the preceding month.

Jewelry Sales Jump The Bureau's report, covering larger independent stores, represents 22 kinds of business. Jewelry dealers, with a gain of 40 per cent, reported the largest increase for July, 1937, as compared to July, 1936. Department stores followed with a reported boom of 19.2 per cent.

Businesses showing decreases ranging from 8 to 6 per cent included men's and boys' clothing, furniture, household appliances and motor vehicles.

'Who Am I?' Police Asked By Young Man

A young man who walked into police headquarters last night and said, "I wonder if you could tell me who I am," was under observation today in City Hospital.

He was identified tentatively by State Police as John Paul Chambers, through a postcard found in his pocket addressed to Mrs. J. P. Chambers, Alexandria. State Police checked with Alexandria authorities and found that Chambers had been living in Cleveland.

He had the initials J. P. C. tattooed on his left forearm, but he said they meant nothing to him. He told police he was sitting in a park and suddenly "I didn't know where I was going or who I was."
