

CCC TO CLOSE 7 OF 38 CAMPS IN STATE OCT. 1

Program for New 3-Month
Period Is Announced
At Washington.

Times Special
WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—Indiana is to lose seven Civilian Conservation Corps camps Oct. 1, the beginning of a new three-month period, Director Robert Fechner announced today.

There will be 31 camps during the new period, instead of the present 38. Camps to be closed are at Mitchell, Nashville, Corydon, Kokomo, Salem, Rising Sun and Madison. Director Fechner approved the Agriculture Department recommendation for continued operation in Indiana of two camps in national forests, eight in state forests, seven on drainage projects and eight on erosion control projects under the Soil Conservation Service.

He also approved Interior Department recommendations for five camps in state parks. One camp will continue conservation projects at Ft. Benjamin Harrison under War Department supervision.

Camps for the new period are located as follows: Tell City, Kurtz, Henryville, Martinsville, Brownstown, Medaryville, Winslow, Ferdinand, Bluffton, Lago, Monon, Ft. Wayne, South Bend, Valparaiso, Frankton, Lebanon, Darmstadt, Princeton, Lafayette, Waveland, Brookville, Lexington, Wadesville, Washington, Worthington, Mitchell, Jasonville, Angola, Nashville, Versailles and Ft. Benjamin Harrison.

8000 MAY TESTIFY AT LABOR HEARING

NEW CUMBERLAND, W. Va., Sept. 10 (U. P.).—Possibility of the Weirton Steel Co. calling 8000 witnesses before the National Labor Board to refute antitrust charges against the company was advanced today.

Clyde A. Armstrong, company counsel, said he had been informed that 6500 Weirton employees have volunteered to testify and he has been told this number may reach 8000 workers. It would require six to nine months to hear that testimony, he added.

BOY, 16, RECOVERING FROM GUN WOUND

Harry Stephens, 16, of 510 W. 30th St., today was recovering from a gunshot wound in the neck received yesterday when his 22-caliber rifle was discharged accidentally while he was riding a bicycle. Young Stephens, a Shortridge High School sophomore, was treated for the flesh wound in City Hospital and taken home.

The gun discharged when the bicycle struck a bump in the canal bank at Congress Ave., he told police.
