

STATE PASTORS WILL CONVENE NEXT WEEK

Parley Aim Is Broadened Christianity

Dr. Edgar D. Jones Is to Be Keynote Speaker For Conference.

Developing Christian personalities and creating a definitely Christian society are to be the aims of the Indiana State Pastors' Convention in the First Baptist Church here next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Dr. Edgar D. Jones, Detroit, Federal Council of Churches president, is to make the principal address.

Dr. Jones is to sound the convention keynote at 1:15 p. m. Monday, speaking on "Accent in Action." He is to give a second address Monday at 8 p. m. on "The Federal Council Would Speak and Act for All."

On Tuesday at 11 a. m. he is to speak on "What Christian Discipline of Life Should We Offer Our Church Members?"

Bishop R. E. Jones to Speak

Methodist Episcopal Bishop R. E. Jones, Columbus, O., chairman of the Federal Council's Interracial Commission, is to speak on "We Can Improve Race Relations," at 9 p. m. Tuesday and close the convention at 12 noon Wednesday with a sermon, "Thy Kingdom Come Within."

Current economic problems are to be discussed in seminars and in addresses by W. Rowland Allen, L. S. Ayres & Co. personnel director, and the Rev. Sam H. Franklin Jr., head of the Delta Co-operative Farm for sharecroppers in Delta, Miss.

The seminar on "Christian Methods in Industry" is to be led by Dr. S. Grundy Fisher, University Christian Church, pastor. Assisting in the discussion are to be J. W. Esterline, Mr. Allen and the Rev. Mr. Franklin.

The Rev. E. G. Homrighausen, who is to speak on the "Worldwide Church," is to conduct a seminar on "The Church Within a Democracy."

Rural Problems to Be Topic

Problems of the rural and local church are to be studied at three seminars. One, "The Church in the Countryside" is to be led by Dr. O. F. Hall, Purdue University sociologist and educator. Dr. Hall also is to address the full conference. A second seminar is to consider "Methods of Changing Social Patterns in Community Life." It is to be led by Mrs. Edna G. Fuller of the Federal Council of Churches. The third, "Practical Methods of Church Co-operation in Local Fields," is to be led by Dr. P. A. Swartz of Bloomington.

Personality problems are to be studied in a seminar conducted by Prof. E. R. Bartlett, DePauw University.

The Indiana Council of Federated Church Women is co-operating with the pastors in the convention. Its luncheon is to be held at noon Tuesday. Mrs. Fuller is to describe its work to the convention.

The meeting is interdenominational, and most Protestant denominations are co-operating. Six denominations are represented on the program.

'Loyalty Is Church Need'

Dr. P. H. Welshimer Speaks At Butler Meeting.

Loyalty of laymen and ministers to the church was called the greatest need of Christianity by Dr. P. H. Welshimer, Canton, O., at the 10th annual Butler University College of Religion convocation yesterday.

"There is a greater necessity for a distinct loyalty to the church today than ever before," he said.

'LIFE'S AUCTION' IS TOPIC

Weekly Sunday School Lesson

God In a Nation's Making

Text: Deuteronomy 8:11-20

By W. E. GILROY, D. D.

IF our lesson is insistent to the point of repetition upon the need of religion and the recognition of God in the life of a people, we can only point out that the attitude of the children of Israel made this insistence necessary, and the attitude of masses of people today make repetition and insistence necessary now.

There are solemn words of warning spoken here. Beware, says Moses, of forgetting God and failing to keep His commandments, lest when soul and body are surfeited with ease and prosperity, and the hearts of men are lifted up with a feeling of their self-sufficiency and a forgetfulness of the dangers through which they have been led, destruction come upon them.

THE temptation of a people to national pride is very deep. We are apt to say that what we have achieved was through our own might and power. We are apt to become complacent and Pharisaic when we think of the wealth that we have created, and we are apt to forget that these things could never have been done by ourselves but for the resources of nature and the powers and resources of God.

Moses instructs the people to remember that it is God who gives them power to get wealth, that without God they are nothing, that
