

Ship Party Scheduled By City Club

Columbia Members to Go To Sea at Dance on Saturday.

"Ship ahoy!" should be the password for Columbia Club members attending the nautical party Saturday night.

A marine setting of boats in full sail, fish ponds containing live fish, water fountains and other features reminiscent of the sea is to transform the 10th floor ballroom into an ideal setting for the dance.

A man o' war, done in sugar by the club's pastry chef, is to provide a background at the ballroom entrance. Lifeboats holding yellow pompon chrysanthemums and fall foliage are to form the centerpieces on individual tables.

Ostot to Return

Government Held in Need Of Experts

Voters' League Members Hear Ohioan Outline Groups' Aims.

Governmental budgets could be balanced if incompetent county and state officials, products of the spoils system, were not in office according to Mrs. Malcolm McBride, Cleveland civic leader.

Mrs. McBride spoke yesterday at a membership tea given by the Indianapolis League of Women Voters in the L. S. Ayres & Co. auditorium.

"The thrill of league membership lies in the influence members have on the times in which they live," she said.

The league assists government officials by studying pressing problems and making them clear to the public.

Commenting on the city manager plan, Mrs. McBride said that the council, to be successful, should not be large, but should be composed of a few members elected by proportional representation.

Mrs. Merrell Presides

"The American Way" was the subject of Mrs. Phil Greenough, National League board member, who also spoke. "The heart of democracy is the opportunity for each individual to develop as he desires," she said.
