Justice Black to Broadcast Reply On Klan Charges Tomorrow Night; Symphony to Open Radio Campaign

KATE SMITH DUE BACK ON AIR

Both Indianapolis Stations Offer to Assist Orchestra.

Answer to charges he is, or has been, a member of the Ku-Klux Klan, will be made tomorrow night at 8:30 p. m. (Indianapolis Time) by Supreme Court Justice Hugo L. Black. The Justice will speak for 20 minutes over both the NBC and CBS networks, it was announced today.

The Indiana State Symphony Society is to open a radio campaign today over WFBR and tomorrow over WIRE. Both local stations have offered their facilities to the society for weekly five-minute broadcasts over an eight-week period to acquaint the public with the work and purposes of the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra, directed by Fabien Sevitzky.

The WFBR series will open today at 6:30 p. m. with a talk by Ferdinand Schaefer, founder and conductor emeritus of the orchestra. Scheduled to appear as speakers on this series are Mrs. J. A. Goodman, Mrs. Herbert M. Woolen, Franklin Miner, Mr. Sevitzky, Mrs. Elsa P. Test, Dr. G. H. A. Clowes and Gilbert J. Hurty.

William H. Ball, Muncie, State Symphony Society president, is to open the WIRE Friday weekly series tomorrow afternoon with a discussion of symphony affairs. The WIRE talks are to be heard from 4:25 to 4:30 p. m. Other speakers over WIRE will be Mrs. Frederic M. Ayres, Mrs. P. R. Mallory, Elmer A. Steffen, J. L. Mueller, Herman C. Wolf, Mr. Sevitzky and Leonard A. Strauss.

WIRE also will continue the three-minute broadcasts which have been given all summer on the Talented Musicians program, heard at 9:30 a. m. each Saturday. The series will be called "Symphony, Why They Like It," Mrs. Wayne D. Ritter will speak Saturday morning.

According to Mr. Ball, purpose of the broadcasts is to illustrate the civic value of a symphony orchestra.

Lovers of the serious drama are offered a special treat tonight when George Bernard Shaw's five-play cycle, "Back to Methuselah," will be presented to the American radio audience in a 15-minute radio version especially prepared for the air by G. B. S. himself.

The Shavian broadcast, originally scheduled for Aug. 30 and postponed because of rescheduling of the Lott-Farr fight, will be heard over the NBC-Blue network beginning at 7:30.

In the five plays, Mr. Shaw tells the version of the story of mankind from the Garden of Eden to a fancied new Garden of Eden come 30,000 years hence. The drama will be played in NBC's Radio City studios by a cast including Peggy Wood, Irene Teddie, Helen Claire, James Meighan and Louis Hector.

The air version of "Back to Methuselah" is a special condensation of its five component plays, "In the Beginning," "The Gospel of the Brothers Barnabas," "The Thing Happens," "Tragedy of an Elderly Gentleman" and "As Far as Thought Can Reach." A radio version of "In the Beginning" is linked to the last scene of "As Far as Thought Can Reach" by a narration of the three intervening plays.

On his sports review tonight at 6:15 over WFBR, Len Riley will present a round-table discussion by football coaches of local high schools.

Sitting around the table trading verbal punches will be grid mentors from Tech, Broad Ripple, Washington, Manual, Shortridge and Cathedral.

Morris Hicks will take his WIRE street reporter program to Lebanon tomorrow where he will be heard at 12:30 p. m. interviewing pupils of the Lindbergh Consolidated School on the outskirts of the town.

Going outside Indianapolis once a week for his question-and-answer broadcast, Mr. Hicks will be heard in the next few months from Carmel, Greentfield, Mooresville, Plainfield, Sheridan and Greenwood.

Ed Thorngren, sports commentator for Fox Movietone News, is to summarize the results of the World Series games as guest sports reporter on Lowell Thomas' newscast beginning next Wednesday. The programs will be heard over NBC-WJW at 5:45 p. m.

Gen. Hugh S. Johnson, pungent Times columnist, may be heard in another of his commentaries on the news of the day at 7 tonight over the NBC-Blue network. Some of the stations which carry the program are WJW, WEAN, WICC, WHK, KDKA and WOW.

Good Radio Music

By JAMES THRASHER

Since the evening is so full of the assorted entertainment of Messrs. Vallee, Boyes, Burns and others, we might turn our musical attention to another important "promised and hoped for" musical series of the fall season. That is the Sibeliuss cycle scheduled by Erno Raape to begin a week from Sunday on the Radio City Music Hall hour (WLW at 11:30 a. m.).

All seven of the Finnish master's symphonies are to be included in this series. Mr. Raape hopes that Symphony No. 8, now in the process of composition, may be ready for performance by the cycle's allotted time is completed.

The conductor, it is understood, will not present the symphonies on consecutive weeks. Rather, he plans to "stagger" them at two and three-week intervals. This is being done to allow the conscientious student time to prepare himself for the next work. There is not a great deal of piano material available for Sibelius study, and those who want to do a thorough co-operative job with Mr. Raape probably will have to extract their knowledge from the orchestra scores.

For the general listener, the "stagger" idea doubtless is a good one. Those becoming acquainted with Sibelius for the first time may find the music a trifle disconcerting at first. The composer's music seldom is derivative, so the listener must acquaint himself with an entirely original idiom at the beginning.

As Mr. Raape has said: "I feel there could have been no Beethoven without Mozart, and no Brahms without Beethoven, but I am not
