

Spider Keeps Guard Over Eggs

Like a sentinel on his beat, this spider is keeping constant vigil over the web that contains eggs hatching out a new family. The demonstration was snapped on the front porch wall of a Carrollton Ave. home yesterday. A single gesture toward the ball of eggs brings the spider to its feet in defense.

Ralph Polk Re-Elected Head of Volunteers of America Board

Ralph Polk was re-elected president of the Volunteers of America executive board at its annual meeting in the Columbia Club today. Other officers re-elected were J. Martin Antrim, vice president; E. H. Wolcott, treasurer, and Col. Earle F. Hites, volunteers director, secretary. Judge Dan V. White was elected to the board. Other board members re-elected were Arthur R. Robinson, Chester W. Albright, Clarence I. Baker, Dr. Thomas J. Beasley and Bishop H. H. Fout.

CCC ENROLLMENT IS SET FOR OCT. 4

Youths 17 to 23 Eligible to Enlist in Corps.

Enrollment of Marion County white youths from 17 to 23 years old for the CCC is to be held Oct. 4. Fred Hoke, selection agency director, said today. Applications must be filed at the Marion County office, 257 W. Washington St. Under the CCC act extending the life of the corps to 1940, any youth between these ages who is out of work and in need of a job is eligible to enroll regardless of whether or not his family is on relief or in need and in danger of going on relief. However, no applicant is eligible for re-enlistment in less than six months after expiration of a previous enlistment, unless his service was continuous. No applicant who has served a full two years in the Corps is eligible for re-enlistment, Mr. Hoke said.

CALVIN COOLIDGE'S SPONSOR DIES AT 79

NORTHAMPTON, Mass., Sept. 30 (U. P.).—Judge Henry P. Field, of Hampshire Probate Court, who started Calvin Coolidge on his legal career, died of heart disease at a hospital today. He was 79 yesterday. It was in Judge Field's office that Mr. Coolidge read law after graduating from Amherst College, also the jurist's alma mater. In 1898 Judge Field sponsored Mr. Coolidge for admission to the Hampshire County Bar. Twenty-four years later it was Judge Field, as a presidential elector, who nominated Mr. Coolidge for Vice President.

RESERVE BOARD AID TO RESIGN HIS POST

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30 (U. P.).—Joseph A. Broderick will send to the White House today his resignation as a member of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve Board. Chester C. Davis, a fellow-member of the Board, confirmed the report that Mr. Broderick had forwarded a letter of resignation to President Roosevelt dated today and asking that it be effective today. Mr. Davis said that Mr. Broderick was returning to the banking business in New York and that an announcement concerning that also would be made today.
