HARRY FREY, proprietor of the Star Hotel for 19 years, died in the hotel today. He was 61. He is survived by his wife, Nettie. Funeral services are to be held in the hotel at 2 p. m. tomorrow with Rabbi David Jacobson officiating. Burial is to be in the United Hebrew Cemetery.

ARE YOU NERVOUS?

DO you feel so nervous that you want to scream? Are there times when you are cross and irritable... times when you scold those who are dearest to you?

If your nerves are on edge, try LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND. It will help Nature calm your quivering nerves and give you the strength and energy to face life with a smile.

For three generations one woman has told another how to go "smiling through" with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It helps Nature tone up the system, thus lessening the discomforts from the functional disorders which women must endure in the three critical periods of life: 1. Coming from girlhood to womanhood. 2. Preparing for motherhood. 3. Approaching "middle age."

Don't be a three-quarter wife, take LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND and go "Smiling Through."

ACADEMY TO HONOR COLLEGE SCIENTIST

BERKELEY, Cal., Oct. 7 (U. P.).—The Comstock prize of the National Academy of Science will be awarded Dr. E. O. Lawrence, professor of physics at the University of California, at the fall meeting of the academy in Rochester, N. Y., it was announced.

Dr. Lawrence was the inventor of the cyclotron and succeeded in producing radio-active salts and low-grade synthetic radium.

He was given the award "for the most important discovery or investigation in electricity of magnetism of radiant energy."

5 REPORTED DEAD IN ITALIAN STORM

ROME, Oct. 7 (U. P.) (By radio from Milan to London).—A storm of terrific violence struck central Italy today. Telephonic communication between Rome and Europe generally was interrupted and at 1:40 a. m. (Indianapolis Time) the storm was hitting Rome.

Torrential rains driven by a gale caused floods and destroyed bridges and telegraph and telephone lines. First casualty reports said that a family of five persons was killed by a landslide that crushed their farmhouse in the Pistoia district.

ARGENTINE WILLING TO SEND U. S. MEAT

BUENOS AIRES, Oct. 7 (U. P.).—Argentina will export meat to the United States to prevent a threatened shortage if Washington abolishes restrictive sanitary regulations, Minister of Agriculture Miguel Angel Carcano said today.

Argentina is interested in sales to the United States, he said. "Our cattle breeders would take the utmost care in satisfying American demands."

"Argentina is actually in a position to carry out exports to the United States under the similar advantages which we offer other countries who are our customers and who now impose no restrictions on our produce."

"I believe we are ready to cover any demand that may be made upon us. As to shipping facilities, they always exist."

EARLHAM STUDENTS PLAN 2-DAY OUTING

RICHMOND, Oct. 7.—Earlham College is to hold its seventh annual all-college outing Oct. 23 and 24 with about 200 students expected to participate.

A 400-mile automobile tour is to be taken through Southern Indiana. An overnight stop is to be made in West Baden. Three State parks are to be visited: Spring Mill, Brown County and Clifty Falls. Students also are to visit the Marango Cave in Crawford County and the Indiana University and Hanover College campuses.
