

SECURITIES AIDS ARE TO CONVEENE AT FRENCH LICK

Delegates From Over Nation To Hear Governor On Friday.

FRENCH LICK, Ind., Oct. 7.—Securities Commissioners from throughout the United States and Canada will gather at the French Lick Springs Hotel here Tuesday for their 20th annual convention. Governor Townsend will be the principal convention speaker. He is to address the financial leaders on Friday night at the securities association banquet.

Russell Maloney, Missouri Securities Commission, is to speak Tuesday on "Investment Contracts and their Registration."

The Commissioners are to hear J. P. Battenberg, Oklahoma official, Tuesday night. He is to speak on "Oil and Gas Securities and Their Registration."

414 ALIENS DROPPED FROM ROLLS OF WPA

John K. Jennings, Indiana WPA Administrator, today said 414 aliens have been removed from Indiana WPA rolls during the last two months and 122 more are to be dropped before Oct. 15.

In conformance with a Washington order several months ago, aliens were first to be dropped from the rolls when administrators were ordered to pare their lists.

CCC WILL REGISTER 2600 YOUTHS OCT. 15

Hoosier youth, 2600 strong, will be enrolled in Civilian Conservation Camps throughout Indiana on Oct. 15, Fred Hoke, CCC Selecting Agency director, announced today.

Membership in the fall enrollment will be selected from hundreds of applications that have been on file for several weeks, Mr. Hoke said.

Declaring the boys "are not considered soldiers," Mr. Hoke said each CCC member is considered a civilian employee of the Government.

FOUR ENLIST IN NAVY

The U. S. Navy recruiting office here today announced enlistment of four Indianapolis youths. The recruits, assigned to the training station at Great Lakes, Ill., were George Byrd, 434 Massachusetts Ave.; Joseph D. Gribben, 404 Central St.; Otto R. Clouser, 247 S. Oakland Ave.; and Herbert R. Moore, 318 E. Walnut St.

VALLEE AND DANGER TO MARRY, SHE SAYS

Gloria Youngblood, Indian's Daughter Tells Plans.

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 7 (U. P.)—Rudy Vallee, the crooner, and Gloria Youngblood, red-haired film dancer and daughter of a full-blooded Cherokee Indian, are engaged and probably will be married within three months, Miss Youngblood said today.

Miss Youngblood is 21. Her father was an Indian, her mother German. She went from Alton, Ill., to New York as an advertising model before entering the movies.

Mr. Vallee met her in New York. He was with her on a film set nearly half a day yesterday. After he had gone, Miss Youngblood announced the engagement. Mr. Vallee brought his orchestra here for an hotel engagement.
