

HISTORIANS OF STATE TO TAKE BOAT VOYAGE

Pilgrimage to Harrison and Eggleston Homes on Itinerary.

The Indiana Historical Society is to make its annual pilgrimage, a two-day trip, beginning early Saturday morning at Cincinnati, on the Ohio River in the steamboat Gordon C. Greene.

Christopher B. Coleman, State Librarian and society secretary, said the cruise includes visits to the Great Miami River mouth; North Bend, home and tomb of William Henry Harrison; Loughey Creek, Indian massacre scene; Rising Sun, and Vevay, Swiss settlement and home of Edward Eggleston. Stops are scheduled at Madison and Vevay.

A special bus is to leave the Tracton Terminal Building here at 1 p. m. tomorrow and is to return from Cincinnati Sunday night, Mr. Coleman said.

METHODIST SOCIETIES' RALLY IS TOMORROW

Members of 34 Indianapolis district Methodist young people are to hold their annual rally dinner tomorrow evening in Central Avenue Methodist Church.

Two missionaries are to speak. They are Mrs. Virginia Maltby Clarke, who with her husband, Roger T. Clarke, served as Disciples of Christ Church missionaries in the Belgian Congo, and Mrs. Neal D. Ireland, who with her husband served the Methodist Church in South Africa.

Mrs. Frank F. Hutchins is to preside. Dr. William C. Hartinger, Methodist district superintendent, is to install officers. Music is to be in charge of Mrs. Leland Clapp. Dr. Rebecca Parish, Mary Johnston in charge of the Mary Johnston Hospital, Manila, is to be a guest.

SHORTRIDGE LEAGUE TO HEAR ETCHEVERRY

Alfred Etcheverry, new Civic Theater director, was to be guest speaker at a Shortridge High School Drama League meeting today.

The league has admitted 25 new members after two elimination tryouts. Miss Eleanor Dee Theek, Shortridge English Department member, is league sponsor.
