

2000 REBEKAHS MEET IN ANNUAL STATE SESSIONS

Convention Opens Today in Local Odd Fellows Building.

More than 2000 members of the Rebekah Assembly of Indiana were in Indianapolis today for the opening of the annual state convention in the Odd Fellows Building.

Today's program includes obligations of delegates by Mrs. Gladys Dunkle, Kokomo, state warden; memorial services in charge of Mrs. Lila Shugart, Marion, and special memorial services by Mrs. Clara D. Evans, Gary. Reports of officers were to be made this afternoon.

George E. Hershman, Crown Point, past grand sire of the Sovereign Lodge, I. O. O. F., spoke on advantages of fraternalism at a pre-convention banquet attended by 500 in the Hotel Lincoln last night. He cited the work of fraternal orders as a contributive factor to international understanding. Other speakers were Miss Anna Belle Gaynor, Indianapolis, state president, and Mrs. Cecelia Monical, Washington, vice president.

At the meeting tonight in Tomlinson Hall, degrees are to be conferred by the Olive Branch Theta Rho Girls' Club 6 and the Olive Branch Rebekah Lodge 10. Miss Martha Foltz, Indianapolis, will be in charge of the first ceremony and Mrs. Stephen O. Sharp, Indianapolis, will supervise conferring of the Rebekah degree.

Officers are to be elected and committee reports read at the sessions tomorrow, followed by a reception for new officers in the Hotel Lincoln.

ODD FELLOWS TO GATHER HERE

Choice of Grand Secretary To Come Before 101st Communication.

Indiana Odd Fellows are to hold their 101st annual communication in the Grand Lodge hall here Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. Registration was to begin this afternoon.

Grand Master Elmer A. Weeks, Columbia City, is to preside.

One of the major matters to be transacted is the election of a grand secretary to succeed Joseph G. Long, Indianapolis, who died recently. Candidates include Ernest Barrett, Paul A. Pfister and H. E. Roessner, all of Indianapolis; Webb Pickrell, Trafalgar; Carl Byrd, Ellettsville, and O. D. Shepherd, Newcastle.

A feature of the opening night program is to be the exemplification by a Cincinnati degree team of the first degree.

POLICE TO TALK AT ROTARY LUNCHEON

Indianapolis Police Department officials are to address the Rotary Club's weekly luncheon program tomorrow.

Chief Morrissey is to open the program and introduce Fred Simon, detective chief; John Mullin, police inspector; Capt. Lewis Johnson, traffic department head; Lieut. Albert G. Perrotti, identification bureau head; Lieut. Lawrence McCarty, accident prevention bureau head; Albert H. Schlensker, secretary to the chief, and Lieut. Edward Kruse, of the police training school.

GROSS INCOME TAX DEADLINE IS FRIDAY

Friday is the deadline for paying gross income taxes for the third quarter, Clarence A. Jackson, Gross Income Tax Division director, warned today.

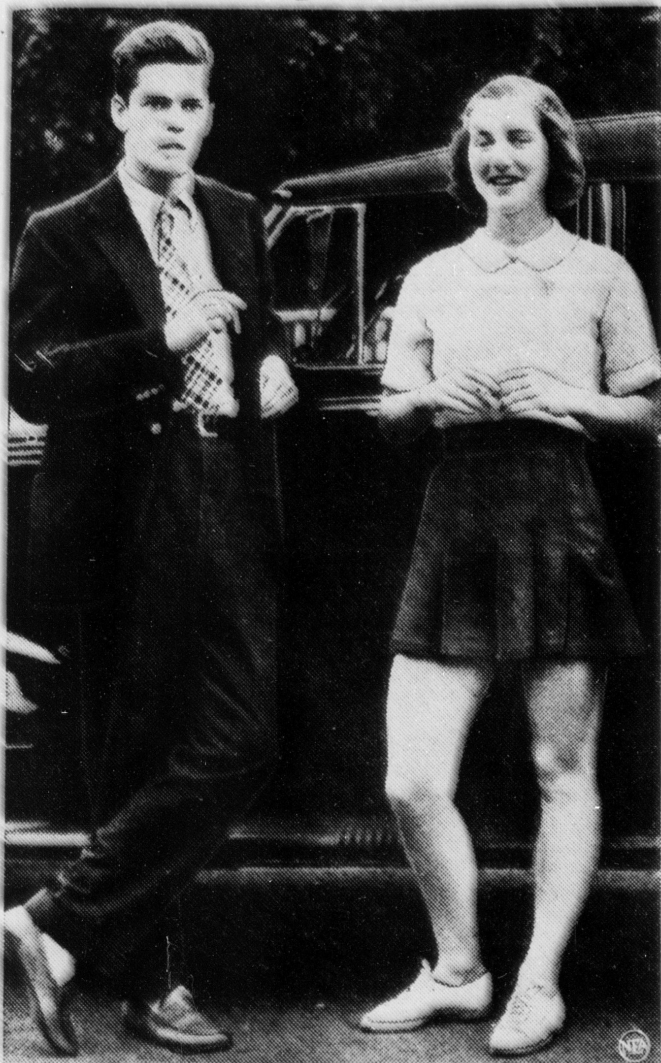

While other State offices are to be closed tomorrow in observance of Columbus Day, the Tax Division office, 141 E. Meridian St., is to remain open, as are 29 other establishments in the county where tax return forms are available.

Payments are due from all persons whose tax is more than $10 for the period.

CAMERA LECTURES SET

"Photography for Fun" is the title which has been given a series of lectures and demonstrations to be conducted by the Y. M. C. A. Camera Club every Wednesday evening.

Here's Surprising Couple

The engagement of Aimee du Pont, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene du Pont and sister of Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr., to Walter F. Wicks Jr., was a matter of record, so Wilmington, Del., society awaited invitations to a fancy wedding. But the young couple, seen together above, fooled all, including their parents, by unexpectedly being married at Baltimore.

BOY, 13, HELD AFTER ATTACK ON WATCHMAN

Youth Confesses Slugging in Attempted Holdup, Police Report.

A 13-year-old boy was held in the Juvenile Detention Home today after police said he admitted slugging a night watchman in an attempted holdup yesterday.

According to police, the youth confessed he saw Robertus Rutherford, 24, of 1544 S. Concord St., watchman, in the Indiana Terminal Warehouse offices as he wandered about the streets. He said he entered and struck the watchman twice with a wrench.

A few minutes later, according to police, Mr. Rutherford found the boy hiding behind a wall. Mr. Rutherford was treated at City Hospital for scalp wounds.

Wounded in Holdup

L. M. Hinds, 30, 911 English Ave., was in Methodist Hospital today with scalp wounds received in a holdup and shooting Saturday.

Mr. Hinds, a newspaper subscription manager, told police he was closing the station at 2525 Brookside Ave., when a Negro came up behind him. Mr. Hinds said the man fired when he stepped back from the door. The manager was unable to estimate the amount of money in the sack the bandit took. Paul Nissenbaum, 15, employed in his father's grocery at 725 W.

Michigan St., told police a Negro bandit who held him up Saturday night took $27.

Slugged and Robbed

Elias Dorland, 48, 2050 Carrollton Ave., was robbed of $30 after being slugged as he walked along 20th St. near Carrollton Ave. Saturday night.

Two Negro gunmen escaped with $100 after holding up Bernath Lob, 48, 3456 N. Capitol Ave., in his grocery at 724 N. Senate Ave.

MRS. ROOSEVELT JR. TO DESCRIBE FLIGHT

Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt Jr. is to tell of her personal experiences in Shanghai during recent bombings by Japanese in a lecture at 8 p. m. Friday in the Irvington School 57 auditorium. Her appearance here is sponsored by Irvington Union of Clubs.

Mrs. Roosevelt was forced to flee from Shanghai as one of the many American refugees endangered by bombings near the International Settlement.

Mrs. Walter Montgomery is general chairman in charge of the lecture.

THIEVES PROFIT $15 ON 5000-POUND HAUL

CANTON, O., Oct. 11 (U. P.).—William Bennett reported to police the theft of 5000 pounds of scrap paper from the rear of his residence. At the current paper mill price for scrap paper, the thief or thieves netted about $15 for the back-breaking "enterprise." To add insult to injury, Mr. Bennett is janitor of the Safety Building in which police headquarters are located.
