

HOMECOMING AT BUTLER TO HAVE BUSY SCHEDULE

Football Game With Eastern School Tops Three-Day Program.

Homecoming festivities on Butler University's campus will start Thursday, Oct. 21 and last through the week-end. George A. Schumacher, Butler Alumni Association secretary-treasurer, announced today.

Paul D. Hinkle, athletic director, and Mrs. Alice B. Wessenberg, head of the Butler Women's Council will speak at a luncheon in the Columbia Club Thursday noon. President James W. Putman will preside.

Friday night will be the annual homecoming broadcast over WFBM and the traditional bonfire on the campus, arranged by the Sphinx Club.

Saturday activities included the freshman-sophomore flag rush followed by luncheon at the Campus Club. The Butler football team will meet Washington and Jefferson College at 2:30 p. m. preceded by a parade sponsored by Blue Key, senior honorary fraternity.

Evening features will be the alumni dinner in the Campus Club with Howard Caldwell as toastmaster. A homecoming dance is to be held in

MOVIES ARE SEEKING MENUHIN'S SERVICES

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 18 (U. P.)—The movies today were after Yehudi Menuhin, violin genius.

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studio was reported to have made the 21-year-old violinist an offer to appear in the picture "Symphony of Six Million."

Mr. Menuhin, after several years retirement in his California home, is appearing again in concerts, for which he receives more than $4000 each.
