PITT AND FORDHAM IN FEATURE

SCORELESS TIES LAST TWO YEARS

BIG game in the East Saturday—Pittsburgh at Fordham. ... They have battled it out to a standstill the last two years in scoreless ties. ... So far this fall the Rams have feasted at the expense of a couple of little fellows, Franklin-Marshall and Waynesburg, while Pittsburgh has triumphed over tougher opposition, Ohio Wesleyan, West Virginia and Duquesne. ... Pitt is this column's choice in the clash with Jimmy Crowley's New York warriors.

The Panthers still are on the Marshall Goldberg standard, and Coach Jock Sutherland has a wealth of material.

BOB ZUPPKE and 33 Illini gridders will spend Friday night in Indianapolis en route to Bloomington for the encounter with Indiana's Redskins Saturday. ... The Illinois band of 175 pieces will add color to the Big Ten encounter and, of course, Indiana's fancy band will be on hand to uphold the Hoosiers and entertain the crowd. ... The last time the teams met, in 1932, Illinois won, 18-6. ... Biggest score was 51-0, the Illini, in 1914.

Otto Seiler, Illinois quarterback in 1910, could drop-kick almost as far as he could punt and often instead of punting on the fourth down, he attempted field goals. ... He booted a 45-yard kick against the Hoosiers at Bloomington in 1910 and his team won, 3-0.

MANY leading grid coaches come from small colleges. ... Carl Snively, who has put Cornell back in the national running, hails from Lebanon Valley; Bo McMillin, Indiana, from Centre; Bernie Moore, Louisiana State, from Carson-Newman; Andy Kerr, Colgate, from Dickinson; Matty Bell, Southern Methodist, from Centre; Stub Allison, California, from Carleton; Bill Spaulding, U. C. L. A., from Washburn; Tuss McLaughry, Brown, from Westminster; I. Tubbs, Iowa, from William Jewell.

In an unofficial game last spring, Cornell defeated Colgate, 3-0. ... And made it official this fall, 40-7. ... Undeclared Cornell's remaining opponents are Syracuse, Yale, Columbia, Dartmouth and Pennsylvania. ... Cornell has a reserve tackle named Tufts, pronounced "Toots."

RED GRANGE's varsity years at Illinois were 1923, '24 and '25. ... Only one touchdown has separated Marquette and Michigan State in their last five games and the score for the last three years was 13-7 with State winning in 1934, and Marquette in 1935 and '36. ... They will come together this fall on Oct. 23 at East Lansing. ... The lead changed six times in the Army-Columbia game last week, the Soldiers winning, 21-18, as Columbia missed three shots for extra points.

Dick Riffe of Albright College, who made a touchdown run of 102 yards last Saturday, scored 14 touchdowns last year. ... Albright, of Reading, Pa., is coached by Indian Bill Dietz. ... The team lost only one game last season. ... Dietz formerly coached the Boilemakers of Purdue.

NEW YORK YANKEES have trained in St. Petersburg, Fla. 12 consecutive years and will return next spring. ... Indianapolis' Indians pitched camp there in 1920. ... Bill McKechnie's appraisal of Jim Turner: "He's the best pitcher in the National League, and I don't expect anybody. Jim has a fine curve, plenty of speed and almost perfect control. More than that, he's smart."

Regarding his new job at Cincinnati, McKechnie bubbles over with this statement: "We already have the first requisite for a winning team—a strong pitching staff and fair catching. It isn't so difficult to get the rest, especially since I believe the Reds as they stand are a long way from being a last-place outfit."

Evansville probably will become a member of the New York Giants' chain next year and place a team in the Three-I League. ... The Pocket City has been out of the league game several years after contributing many stars to the majors in days gone by. ... Churchill Downs will offer seven days of racing Oct. 23-30. ... It's another effort to revive fall running in Louisville.

Bowling Records Toppled By Mother and Daughter

Three new season records had been established by men and women bowlers competing in local leagues. The women's mark was set by Rita Johns with games of 202, 212 and 231 for a 645 total in the Tuesday Night Ladies' League at Pritchett's Alley.

Rita, who is 20, and has been bowling for only a year, is the daughter of Mrs. Race Johns, a leading pin-toppler here for many years. And to prove she has not lost her skill, Mrs. Johns turned in a count of 611, on games of 238, 183 and 192, in the Gray-Gribben-Gray Ladies' loop at the Hotel Antlers.

Mrs. Johns' score also surpassed the previous season record and led the J. S. C. quintet to a new team mark of 2684. The scores:

Pitt 188 188 148—190
Maas 180 185 169—534
Lang 170 192 156—518
Krische 180 171 180—531
Johns 228 183 192—611

Totals 939 990 815—2684
The J. S. C. five won two games in team competition and Hatfield Point, Bowles East and Marott Shoe Store scored triple victories.

"Red" Stuart's total of 727 Alley, the men's list for the campaign. The series, consisting of 257, 212 and 258, was rolled in the Parkway No. 2 League.

Ralph Ittenbach hit for counts of 201, 238 and 257 to total 696 in the Cyro League, also in action at the Parkway Alleys.

In the Tuesday Night Ladies' loop matches, England's Market and Mooney-Mueller-Ward made clean sweeps and Carey Milk, Hall-Hall, Allen's Drugs, John A. Grande & Sons Florist, Commonwealth Loan, Gardner's and Rudy's Hi-Roll Filling Station gained a pair of triumphs.

The Pritchett Recreation League was led by Morris Roeder, who hit for 643, with Ernie MacKinnon and England each getting 604. The Champagne Velvet Beer team came through with a 2931 total for a shut-out victory. The scores:

Never 156 216 168—540
M. Roeder 213 220 210—643
Welhammer 182 192 173—547
MacKinnon 211 173 220—604
Horeth 196 225 176—597

Totals 958 1028 917—2603
Indianapolis Glove also annexed three games and Jack's Restaurant, Triangle Bowling Shirts, Fendrick Restaurant, and Holcomb-Hoke finished ahead twice.

In the City loop, L. Martin was high with 624, Arbaugh hitting for 620, E. Voelz 615, and Holtman 602. George F. Cram Company and Sweeney's Coney Islands, which

How to Make Better Cough Remedy Than You Can Buy

A Big Saving, and It's So Easy! No Cooking!

Cough medicines usually contain a large quantity of sugar syrup—a good ingredient, but one which you can easily make at home. Take 2 cups of granulated sugar and a cup of water, and stir a few moments until dissolved. No cooking! No trouble at all. Then get from your drug store 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex, pour it into a pint bottle, and add your syrup. This gives you a full pint of truly wonderful medicine for coughs due to colds. It is far better than anything you could buy.

ready-made, and you get four times as much for your money. It lasts a long time, never spoils, and children love it. This is positively the most effective, quick-acting cough remedy that money could buy. Instantly, you feel it penetrating the air passages. It loosens the phlegm, soothes the inflamed membranes and makes breathing easy. You've never seen its equal for prompt and pleasing results.

Pinex is a concentrated compound of Norway Pine, the most reliable soothing agent for throat and bronchial membranes. Money refunded if it doesn't please you in every way.

WAR ADMIRAL MAY RACE SEABISCUIT SOON

Clash Possible At Pimlico or On Laurel Oval

Howard Horse Takes Lead As '37 Money Winner by Victory at Jamaica.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13 (U. P.).—Charles S. Howard's Seabiscuit, 1937 handicap champion, was established today as the year's leading money winner, but he may have to fight to remain so.

The 4-year-old colt by Hard Tack, out of Swing On, brought his earnings to $152,780 by capturing a purse of $9250 yesterday in the Continental Handicap at Jamaica. That put him ahead of War Admiral, winner of the Kentucky Derby, Preakness and Belmont Stakes, who has earned $144,620.

They may meet Oct. 30 in the Washington Handicap at Laurel, Md., or in the Riggs Handicap at Pimlico, Md., Nov. 5. The Washington is worth $15,000, the Riggs $10,000.

War Admiral, the 3-year-old son of Man O' War, was retired last June because of a foot injury received in winning the Belmont.

Reports from Laurel indicate he may come out of retirement to face Seabiscuit. George Conway, trainer of the Samuel D. Riddle colt, had the Admiral under saddle recently.

13-to-1 Shot Wins The Cambridgeshire

NEWMARKET, England, Oct. 13 (U. P.).—Maj. R. B. Glover's Artist's Prince, a 13-1 shot in the betting, won today's running of the Cambridgeshire stakes.

R. L. Glasspool's Red Squaw at 25-1 was second, and W. H. Thorpe's Inchkeith, also 25-1, was third. Eighteen ran.

Among the also-rans was the favorite, Sir Abe Bailey's Dan Bulger, winner last year of the event run for the first time in 1839.

Artist's Prince won by a neck. A head separated Red Squaw and Inchkeith. The winner was timed at 1:51 for the one mile and one furlong.

Vizena and Nygra Lead Skate Derby

As the roller derby at the Fair Grounds Coliseum entered its sixth day of competition today, the team of Gene Vizena and Joe Nygra was out in front with 49 points.

A scant two points behind were the Honey Thomas-Joe Evans team and the Grace Fred-Jack Cummings combination, tied for second place with 47 points apiece. Six teams remained within striking distance of the leaders. The standings:

Thomas-Evans 47
Cummings 47
Nygra-Vizena 49
Honey Thomas-Joe Evans 47
Grace Fred-Jack Cummings 47
Bozash-Bogash 41

top the Wm. H. Block League at the Central alleys. Hart, Schaffner & Marx and Florheim Shoes scored shutout triumphs and Apex Appliances captured the odd game.

Leo Miller's 586 led the Auto Transportation loop at the same derbies. Ziffren Truck Lines won three games while Kirschner Auto Service and Indianapolis Paint & Color had a two-out-of-three edge.

The A. & P. circuit also rolled at the Central plant with Stanley Macey's 565 best. The Rajahs registered a triple victory while Eight O'Clock Coffee and Bokars won twice.

Two bowlers tied in the Community League at the Uptown alleys. A. Quesser and Daum each getting 599. The Dells and Indiana Candy triumphed three times and Hudepohl Beer, Roberts Golden Guernsey and Seven Pins were ahead in two games.

The Commercial League at the Illinois Alleys was paced by Fred Yager's 624 while Julius Carteaux had 622 and Ray Jones 602. P. R. Malory No. 2, Indianapolis News, Coopers Brothers Brightwood and Spencer House Cafe were triple winners while Rockwood Manufacturing and John Roeder's Schmidt Beer were on the long end in two games.

Jack Hunt, one of the city's best-known bowlers, rolled the first 300 game of the local season during a friendly practice match recently at Pritchett's Alleys.

It was Jack's first perfect game in 24 years of pin toppling although he has come close many times. In fact, he has had 11 strikes in a row on no less than 14 occasions. John Murphy, Don McNew, Bud Argus and John Rea were shooting with Hunt when he made his 300.

Danger! Here's a Rassler on the Fly

Danger arising out of 200-pound heavyweight rassler being tossed out of the ring and smack into their laps doesn't seem to have much of a sobering effect on the fans above, who crowded the Olympic Arena at Los Angeles to see Gino Garibaldi leave King Chewacki, his opponent, and Referee Dick Rutherford, right, over the ropes. An alleged foul in what aroused the Garibaldi ire, but the foul was incidental to the ringersiders.

Football

St. Francis defeated Holy Trinity, 12-6, and St. Catherine defeated Little Flower, 13-0, in Sportsman's Store Parochial School Football League games. Other contests were rained out and will be played later in the week.

The league standings:

St. Catherine's 12 0 St. Francis 6 1
St. John of Arc 1 0 St. Anthony 0 0
Little Flower 1 0 St. Patrick 0 0
Holy Trinity 1 1 Lourdes 0 1

The Holy Cross team will practice tonight at 8 o'clock at State and Washington Sts. Plays to be used in the clash Sunday with Brightwood when the league lead will be at stake will be tried out. All team members are urged to be present.

The Fashion Cleaners football team will meet Ft. Harrison's eleven at the Port Sunday at 2:30 p. m. The Cleaners are leading the Capital City League and are undefeated in league play.

BULLDOGS DRILL ON PASS DEFENSE

Butler's Bulldogs planned to polish their aerial defense today in preparation for Saturday's clash with Evansville at Butler Bowl.

Rain yesterday forced the Bulldogs to hold their workout in the fieldhouse, as Coach Hinkle groomed his players on fundamentals. Captain Blackaby, fullback, injured in last week's tilt with Valparaiso, was present at yesterday's drill, but did not practice. Other Butler players on the casualty list are Joe Maack, senior end, and Jim Haas, senior tackle.

Changes in the Notre Dame lineup which was held to a scoreless tie with Illinois last week were indicated by Coach Elmer Layden. Chuck O'Riley and Andy Pupils were alternated at quarterback and three comparative newcomers were given a shot at the fullback post.

Yankees Urge Tony Lazzeri Not to Retire

World Series Hero Has Talk With Barrow Before Starting Home.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13 (U. P.).—Tony Lazzeri, Yankee second baseman and hero of the World Series, was en route to his home in San Francisco today, reconsidering his decision to retire.

Lazzeri left yesterday with his wife and son, and Myril Hoag, Yankee outfielder, after discussing plans for 1938 with Ed Barrow, Yankee business manager.

Barrow, it was understood, asked Lazzeri to reconsider and play with the Yankees again. Tony's World Series performance was too good to permit the Yankees to let him retire without an argument.

Lazzeri, it is reported, is being considered as a successor to Bill McKechnie as manager of the Boston Bees. He also has been mentioned for a job in Cleveland. Should either of these jobs materialize, Yankee owner Col. Jacob Ruppert would release him.

Davis and Whitehead In Deciding Game

CHICAGO, Oct. 13 (U. P.).—Curt Davis, a rangy right-hander who proved the most effective Cub pitcher in the final days of the National League campaign, and John Whitehead of the Sox squared off today in the deciding game of the Chicago series at Wrigley Field.

Southpaw Larry French evened the series at three games each with a seven-hit, 6-to-2 victory over the Sox at Comiskey Park yesterday. It was French's second conquest of the series.

The Cubs lost no time working over Vernon Kennedy, who beat the Cubs on three hits early in the series. They scored once in the first, twice in the second and once in the fifth, eighth and ninth on a total of 15 hits. Kennedy gave up eight hits and Clint Brown, who relieved the right-hander in the eighth, permitted seven more.

French was in trouble only in the fourth inning. He was hit twice, walked one batsman and hit another, allowing two runs before he settled down and retired the side.

Nestell Beaten by Max Rosenbloom

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 13 (U. P.).—The punishing left hand of Max Rosenbloom, the old ringmaster of New York and Hollywood, left young Bob Nestell with blood streaming from wounds above both his eyes at the end of a 10-round bout last night. Rosenbloom was awarded the decision.

The one-time light heavyweight champion won all but one or two rounds. He gave away 12 years and 10 pounds in fighting the husky young California heavyweight, who was boomed as a possible opponent for Joe Louis before losing a decision to Bob Pastor of New York four months ago.
