Dalhover Tells of Slaying Three Officers, Clerk, Police Say.

murders. The captive, declared by G-Men to have been the gang's "trigger-man," steadfastly maintained that he merely carried out Brady's orders.

Despite their long residence in New England, Dalhover said, the gangsters had "pulled no jobs" in this section. He admitted, however, that they had looked over a couple of banks.

Planned Return to Indiana

Dalhover told Federal agents that yesterday's trip was the last one they planned to make to Maine. He said that as soon as they had replenished their arsenal they planned to return to their native Indiana and resume activities.

Myron E. Guernsey, Federal agent in charge of yesterday's coup, had left Bangor today and was believed in Bridgeport investigating Dalhover's story of the hitouts.

Meanwhile, Dr. Herbert C. Seriver announced that on the body of gang-leader Brady he found an unhealed old wound, just above the heart. Indications were that the wound had been the result of proper medical treatment, he said.

At Bangor airport several Government planes were held in readiness to fly Dalhover to Indiana, and attaches believed the start would be made within 24 hours.

Walter Walsh, 28-year-old truck shot expert of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, who was shot in the chest during the battle at Bangor yesterday, remained in Eastern Maine General Hospital. Physicians said that his condition was "not critical."

Conn's Body Found In Ohio Ditch

FREEDPORT, O., Oct. 13 (U. P.).—The body of State Highway Patrolman George Conn for whose murder James Dalhover was reported to have confessed the Brady gang was responsible, was discovered in a ditch near here Sept. 28.

Five bullet wounds were found in the officer's body, which was covered partially by a scrap of burp cloth. He had started out to arrest a farmer for traffic law violation and had been missing a half day.

The patrolman's automobile was discovered nearly a mile from the spot where the body was found by a passing autoist. There were no indications of a struggle. The only clew left by the killers was a small piece of paper which indicated their car had been stored in a garage.

MAY RETURN TO VATICAN

CASTEL GANDOLFO, Oct. 13 (U. P.).—Pope Pius will return to his Vatican apartments late this month, a reliable church source said today. Although the Pope originally planned to return to the Vatican at the end of September his departure was postponed.

Hints Dalhover May Be Kept in Indiana Prison

calm it was Dalhover who pumped the fatal shots into the young officer. They will demand a verdict of death—the same fate that his "boss" and a companion in crime met.

Dalhover also is wanted by Indianapolis police for the murder of Sgt. Richard Rivers, a charge on which the gang was awaiting trial when it battered its way out of the Greenfield jail.

Conference Planned

Capt. Eckert, Mr. Reinecke and Detective Chief Fred Simon are to confer later on who will get the gunman, who has been indicted on both charges.

Meanwhile, the body of the gang leader, Al Brady, slain by the G-Men, was claimed by unnamed relatives or friends. It is to be brought here.

And the body of Clarence Lee Shaffer Jr., the other pal in crime, lay on a Bangor morgue slab, claimed by his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Shaffer, 1142 S. Lyndhurst Drive.

Burial in Floral Park

They said they were arranging for burial in Floral Park, but did not know when the body would arrive here.

Shaffer's mother, Mrs. John Staley, who lives on a farm near Canaan in Hamilton County, blamed the youthful gangster's turn to crime on a love of pot pistols and a desire to emulate the deeds of movie badmen.

Authorities were "gratified" over the killing of the two and capture of the third. So was Matt Leach, ousted State Police captain.

"I had many reasons to be thankful for the capture of the gangster," he said, "but my greatest feeling of satisfaction is because they were the ones who killed Paul Minneman, one of our best officers. I sacrificed my position for the sake of a program of closer co-operation between the State Police and Federal Bureau of Investigation and it was gratifying to me to know that the help of the State Police played an important part in the end of the gang."

Morrissey Pleaded, Too

The cold-blooded murder of our own Sgt. Richard Rivers and of State Policeman Paul Minneman are at least partially avenged," Police Chief Morrissey said. "I'm sorry it could not have been even men who brought these killers to justice."

Sheriff Otto Ray was pleased over the gang's end, but regretted that the desperadoes ever had been taken to the Greenfield jail from which they escaped. He said that if they had been taken to Pendleton instead "the grim trail which they marked after their escape never would have been made."

Arrest of Two Women In Bangor Unconfirmed

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Oct. 13 (U. P.).—Local police said that while they knew nothing of the reported arrests by Federal agents of two women at a reputed Al Brady gang party in this city they understood Federal agents "were in town."

No information concerning the apprehensions was obtainable at the FBI headquarters at Hartford.

CONGRESSMEN ANSWER CALL RELUCTANTLY

jectives; denied that the Government sought to put individuals out of business. He charged that "what-ever danger there may be to the property and profits of the many, if there be danger," comes from business restraints imposed by "private monopolies and financial oligarchies." These he promised to end.

He said his large and hours program, by distributing jobs and shortening the work-day, should so increase consumption that production costs would decrease and industry would absorb "a considerable increase in labor costs" without raising prices to the consumer.

Four of Mr. Roosevelt's five immediate legislative proposals—excluding only further antitrust legislation—revive battles of the last Congressional session in which a Democratic majority refused to enact his bills.

Outlines His Desires

Describing his program as of immediate need and for the immediate future, Mr. Roosevelt told the nation a few hours after he had called a special session that he wanted Congress speedily to enact legislation for:

1. Crop surplus control.
2. Proper land use.
3. Reorganization of Government departments.
4. Minimum wages, maximum hours and prohibition of child labor.
5. Stronger antitrust laws to end monopoly.

Mr. Roosevelt did not repeat his re-organization of the judiciary, but he challenged the courts on two counts, complaining that invalidation of NRA and AAA kept "many groups" on a substandard living and that legal interpretations and the law's delays over a period of years "limited effectiveness" of antitrust legislation.

Cautions Against Deception

Cautioning the nation against the deception of "merely temporary prosperity," Mr. Roosevelt explained that he would ask the session "to consider immediately certain important legislation which my recent trip through the nation convinces me the American people immediately need."

Keying his chat to the theme of not only balancing the financial budget, but balancing the "human budget" as well, Mr. Roosevelt said: "What you and I want is such Governmental rules of the game that labor, agriculture and industry will produce a balanced abundance without waste."

Challenge to South

Tucked in the body of the speech was a challenge to those Southern Congressmen, who balked last summer at wages and hours legislation on the ground that it would rob the South of favorable wage differentials.

The President said that business men agree "that no one section of the country can permanently benefit itself, or the rest of the country, by maintaining standards of wages and hours far inferior to other sections of the country."

Ever-Normal-Granary Part of Plan

Mr. Roosevelt's crop surplus control program appears to be substantially the ever-normal-granary plan advanced by Secretary of Agriculture Wallace in behalf of the plan which the Secretary has sought a special session since Congress adjourned in August. The bumper cotton, corn and wheat crops just forecast by Agriculture Department experts were believed to have clinched the argument by which Secretary Wallace won an early Congress.

Roosevelt Hints at Black-Klan Issue

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Oct. 13 (U. P.).—Referring indirectly to the controversy over the Ku-Klux Klan membership of Justice Hugo L. Black, President Roosevelt today declared that dissensions of 150 years ago over religious freedom and the Bill of Rights, are being "rightly" continued by the people in 1937.

Although the connection with the Black issue was not direct it appeared in this city's Theater this week when Mr. Roosevelt was referring to it for the first time since it first was brought out that Mr. Justice Black once joined the Klan.

The President's speech was made in dedicating Poughkeepsie's new postoffice.

Closes Brady-Shaffer Records

Cases closed! Capt. Walter Eckert of the State Police is shown closing the file record of the criminal careers of Al Brady and Clarence Lee Shaffer, who were killed by G-Men in Bangor, Me., yesterday. He hopes to close the record of James Dalhover, the captured member of the gang.

to the Accident Prevention Bureau and a special investigator assigned to the case.

The investigator is to interview all persons involved in the accident and to examine the site and condition of the cars.

If he finds there has been a law violation, he is to request the other party to sign a warrant.

'Get Violators Off Streets'

"The only way to stop accidents is to get the law violators off the streets," Lieut. McCarthy said. "One investigator made three arrests in four investigations one day."

He said Municipal Court judges have promised their co-operation.

Meanwhile, Chief Morrissey said "chances are mighty slim" that the Police Department will be able to provide equipment for Lieut. Frank Kreml, Evanston, Ill., safety expert, to set up his accident investigation survey here.

The revised budget didn't leave us any money to equip the squads. I may be able to work out something, but it is doubtful," the Chief said.

Confers With Kreml

He said it would be a year before another effort could be made to secure Kreml's services.

Chief Morrissey and Lieut. Kreml conferred briefly in Baltimore last week where both attended the police chiefs' convention.

The local Safety Week program progressed today with two speakers scheduled to address the Lions Club at its luncheon meeting this noon. They were to be Dusty Miller and Billie Vallie, 11-year-old motion picture actor.

Mr. Miller was to give a radio talk at 2 p. m.

A short film demonstrating how most automobile accidents occur is being shown at Keith's Theater this week. The film was endorsed by the Police Traffic Department and automobile clubs, it was announced.

Farmer Killed While Riding Bicycle

VINCENNES, Oct. 13 (U. P.).—Injuries received when struck by an automobile while riding his bicycle on U. S. Highway 41 south of here last night were fatal to John Rusch, 55-year-old farmer.

tial, but London is inclined to await the outcome of the Nonintervention Committee's meeting.

Prime Minister Chamberlain summoned the Labor leaders, Clement R. Attlee and Arthur Greenwood, into conference this afternoon to acquaint the opposition with the Government's policy towards Spain.

Premier Chamberlain told them developments were likely as a result of the negotiations between Paris and London, and reaffirmed that an opportunity would be given for full debate when Parliament assembles next week.

Rebel sources claimed at Hendaye today that the Loyalist Government was fleeing to Barcelona in the face of an impending offensive against Valencia, the present capital. The sources hinted that "sensational" military operations in the Valencia region could be expected soon—possibly today.

The Rebel sources refused to reveal details of the offensive, but observers believed that the attack would be opened from the sea, probably from the Balearic Islands.

Germany Recognizes Belgium Neutrality

BERLIN, Oct. 13 (U. P.).—Germany in a formal declaration today guaranteed to respect the integrity and inviolability of Belgium's frontiers and territory.

The declaration supplements similar ones made by Great Britain and France six months ago, recognizing Belgium's desire to remain neutral in any European war.

It was made in the form of a joint note issued by Baron Konstantin Von Neurath, German Foreign Minister, and Viscount Jacques Davignon, Belgium Minister to Germany.

Germany pledges, as did Britain and France, to assist Belgium if she is the object of attack or invasion.

Logan Urges Naval Blockade of Japan

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13 (U. P.).—Senator Logan (D. Ky.), today suggested a naval blockade of Japan to be accomplished by collective action of world powers—as a means of halting the undeclared Sino-Japanese war.

"I am opposed to war," Senator Logan said, "but I am also opposed to running for a hole every time any one says 'boo!' I think the fleets of a group of nations blocking Japan would stop the present hostilities. But it would have to be collective action by several nations."

Franco-Jugoslavian Pact Is Renewed

PARIS, Oct. 13 (U. P.).—The renewal of the Franco-Jugoslavian friendship pact, which was signed yesterday by Premier Milan Stoyadinovich and Foreign Minister Yvon Delbos, again placed Yugoslavia firmly at the side of France and Britain.

Pears were dispelled in Paris that Yugoslavia through close economic relations with Germany and Italy was gradually deserting the little entente and France and it was understood that Premier Stoyadinovich assured Minister Delbos that his country would honor its signature in case of conflict.

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 13. — I suppose by this time most of you are back home again and you sure would have had a wonderful vacation if you had had as much fun as you did plannin' it. These travel folders all read so pretty because they don't say a thing in the world about flat tires, rainy weather or insects. Personally I come from a pretty conservat'ive family and we always figure the worst that can happen. It's like the time my Cousin Hod was in love with a girl down home and he would sit around and brood about how he was gonna win her. Finally I said to him, "Why don't you take a bath and spruce up and go over and propose to her?" and he says, "Yeah, but suppose I get all cleaned up and then she don't marry me? What then?"

Scratching Not Parking, Judge Rules on Itching Plea.

JEFFERSON M. LAYER, 2157 Kilder St., is a cab driver and he was up in Municipal Court today charged with parking outside a taxi stand and with parking at a fire plug. He said it wasn't so.

"Judge," he said, "I stopped the cab just an instant to scratch my nose."

His attorney spoke up.

"Move to dismiss charge of parking outside a taxi stand to solicit a fare. My client was merely scratching his nose."

"Motion sustained," Judge Myers ruled.

A. F. L. AID DEMANDS 'CLEANUP' IN NLRB

DENVER, Oct. 13 (U. P.).—The American Federation of Labor today heard a demand for a "thorough house-cleaning" of the National Labor Relations Board set up, including removal of Edwin Smith and at least three regional directors on the grounds they have aided the rival Committee for Industrial Organization.

The demand for President Roosevelt to "clean out" allegedly "prejudiced" Labor Board officials was voiced by Secretary John P. Frey of the Resolutions Committee, which called for congressional action if necessary to end the Board's asserted "usurpation of authority."

"So far as I am concerned I will have no confidence in the Labor Board until there has been a thorough house-cleaning," Frey shouted to the A. F. of L. annual convention.

Mr. Frey also demanded ouster of three regional NLRB directors: Mrs. Elinore Herrick, New York; Mrs. Alice U. Rossiter, San Francisco, and Director A. Howard Meyers, Boston.
