J. Earl Fouts, Camden, Ind., is to address the Indianapolis Woman's Republican Club at a luncheon at 12:30 p. m. tomorrow in the King Studio Tearoom.

Mr. Fouts was in Washington 15 years as chief of the Division of Insolvency Banks. Reservations for the luncheon are in charge of Mesdames Lyman Thompson and Harry K. Green.

Mrs. C. Dolly Gray is chairman of the hostesses. Serving with her are to be Mesdames Emsley Johnson, J. Hart Laird, Donald Ream, Roy Stebbins, Kenneth Smock, H. T. Willwerth, Alice F. Emerson, Phoebe Link, Martin Hays and Pearl Randall, and Kirk Koff, Bridgeport, and Miss Jessie Levy. Mrs. Clarence Martin, president, is to preside. She is to stress the importance of October as the organization's membership month.

Showing Slated In Chic Dressing

Miss Dana Ford and Miss Virginia Madison, who have been conducting the Alma Archer School of Smartness at the Wm. H. Block Co. this week, will give a special performance for business women, high school and college students, at the store at 1:30 p. m. Saturday.

They will combine two of the outstanding lectures of the course, "The ABC's of Chic and Personality," and "The Magic of Color and Line."

They present the right and wrong methods of dressing, retiring and arising and models also are shown wearing right and wrong colors and designs.

Today's Pattern

WHEN you are growing up, you envy the good lines of a grown-up fashion. Such a frock is pattern 8072, with 8 gore skirt and pretty bodice that flaunts a tucked sleeve to create new breadth at the shoulder.

Pattern 8072 is designed for sizes 8, 10, 12, 14 and 16 years. Sizes 10 years requires 2½ yards of 39-inch material.

A frock like those worn by the little Princesses of England is pattern 8023. Pattern 8023 is designed for sizes 4, 6, 8, 10 and 12 years. Sizes 6 requires 1½ yards of 35-inch material, plus ½ yard of contrasting fabric. With long sleeves, 2½ yards. To obtain pattern and Step-by-Step Sewing Instructions inclose 15 cents in coin together with the above pattern number and your size, your name and address and mail to Pattern Editor, The Indianapolis Times, 214 W. Maryland St., Indianapolis.

Home-Planning Lectures Arranged

A series of lectures on "Art in Home-Planning" are being arranged by an Indianapolis Art Institute Committee, of which Mrs. Edgar Kiser (left) is a member. Mrs. Frederic H. Sterling, president, has announced that they are to be giving during November.

Mrs. Kiser chats of the plan with Mrs. William Allen Moore (center) and Mrs. Lee Burns, members of the membership committee, at one of the weekly Monday morning meetings at the Institute. Special drawing classes for children are also planned.

Nassau's Sons Chicago-Bound; I. U. Alumni to Visit Campus

By VIRGINIA MOORHEAD MANNON

A general exodus of loyal sons of Old Nassau will take place this week-end when Princeton University alumni from Indianapolis leave for Chicago to attend tomorrow's meeting of the National Alumni Association of Princeton and the Princeton-Chicago football game Saturday at Stagg Field.

Alumni headquarters will be in the Stevens Hotel. Special trains carrying Princeton rooters will come from New York and other Eastern cities.

The entertainment schedule includes a tea for the alumni and their wives Friday afternoon at the Casino Club and a dinner at the Stevens tomorrow evening at which President Harold F. Dods of Princeton and President Robert Maynard Hutchins of University of Chicago will be speakers. Saturday noon before the football game there will be a buffet luncheon and after the game there will be a buffet supper at the Stevens for alumni and their wives.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul G. Bigler, Mr. and Mrs. David L. Stone and William N. Wilson will compose one party which will motor to Chicago tomorrow morning. They will be joined by Mr. and Mrs. Robert McDougal, Peoria, Ill., and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bowman, Grand Rapids, Mich., with whom they have seats for the game.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gordon Kingham will conclude their wedding trip by joining the Indianapolis contingent at the game. Mrs. Kingham is the former Jane Weiden.

Other Princeton alumni who will attend include Mr. and Mrs. Archer Sinclair, Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Johnson Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Donald N. Test, Mr. and Mrs. Alex L. Taggart, Mr. and Mrs. George L.
