

$295,200 SLASH IN RELIEF COSTS IS SOUGHT HERE

Center Township Officials
Begin Examination
Of Rolls.

Examination of Center Township direct relief applications in an effort to cut 1938 expenditures by $295,200 was begun by township officials today.

Leo X. Smith, attorney for Miss Hanna Noone, Center Township Trustee, said the checkup is being made to drop from the relief rolls persons least deserving.

Mr. Smith said the decision to reduce the load followed a cut in the 1938 poor-relief levy from 61 to 30 cents by the County Tax Adjustment Board.

There are about 7000 families, averaging four persons each, on the rolls at present. Costs average about $16.40 a family a month, Mr. Smith said.

7000 Families Now on Rolls

All persons on relief will be required to make out new applications. "We know that conditions with many families have changed considerably since the last general application filings in 1935," Mr. Smith said. "And we will attempt to weed those out who are now receiving relief under false pretense.

"Each person must file an affidavit with his application. False statements constitute perjury and are subject to prosecution.

"We hope that by the first of the year about 1500 persons will be removed from the rolls."

He also said Miss Noone considered that any decrease in the payment average would be unfair and that cutting the load itself would be the better solution.

Poor relief this year is being paid for by bond issues. A partial "pay-as-you-go" plan was adopted for poor-relief financing next year.
