INDIANA PUNCH GAINS RESPECT

LUCK FROWNS ON PURDUE, IRISH

ONE member of the Hoosier Big Three survived last Saturday's football warfare, the others lost what are known on the campus as heartbreakers when the luck of the game turned against them. . . . Indiana lived up to its reputation as a team with a scoring punch and rallied in the last quarter to defeat Illinois, 13-6, in the homecoming attraction at Bloomington. . . . It was an exciting contest in which the Hoosiers were forced to use everything in their kit of plays as well as defend their lead when the invading warriors counter attacked.

Indiana and Illinois had not clashed since 1932 and the Hoosiers had not triumphed over the neighbor-state eleven since 1903.

BOMMILLIN'S pastimers were especially brilliant in the execution of passes and also far above the average on pass defense. . . . The Hoosiers were in sound physical condition and warmed the hearts of the old grads by setting a swift pace and maintaining it.

Indiana has caused alarm to spread in the camps of future Conference opponents, namely, Ohio State, Iowa and Purdue. . . . In last year's clashes, the Buckeyes edged the Hoosiers, 7-0, Indiana downed the Hawkeyes, 13-6, and the Hoosiers and the Boilermakers played a 20-20 deadlock. . . . McMillin's team has a "breather" this week at Cincinnati.

NOTRE DAME fell out of the undefeated class by the margin of a Carnegie Tech field goal, 9-7. . . . The Irish gained enough ground to win a couple of games but the touchdown punch was absent in the pinch. . . . Notre Dame was constantly at Tech's goal line in the final quarter only to be repulsed as the Scots of Pittsburgh piled up plunges or knocked down passes. . . . Carnegie's touchdown was set up on a pass interception and its field goal on a lucky break.

DEFENSIVE work by Fred Vanzo, Universal, Ind., product, caused the defeat of Purdue by Northwestern. . . . The count was 14-7, after the Boilermakers held a 7-0 lead at the half. . . . In the fourth quarter the Boilermakers lost the ball on downs 18 inches from the Northwestern goal mainly as the result of Vanzo's defensive efforts. . . . Later, Vanzo intercepted a Purdue pass and raced to the Purdue 10-yard line. . . . When tackled, Vanzo fumbled and the ball rolled into Purdue's end zone. . . . Players on both teams dived for the ball. . . . Cutliff, Northwestern tackle, a product of northern Indiana, won the race and it meant a touchdown and the game for the Wildcats. . . . The Boilermakers have an open date this week.

ONCE under way there was no stopping Butler's Bulldogs and Evansville's 6-5. . . . The winners tallied eight touchdowns in the second and third quarters. . . . The contest turned the Bulldogs just right for the homecoming game with Washington-Jefferson this week. . . . Tom Harding opened the scoring Saturday by turning end for 18 yards and for two periods the Evansville Aces were bewildered by long runs, passes and line smashes. . . . The Bulldogs' only loss in four starts was to Purdue.

DEPAUW made good before the Old Gold Day crowd at Greencastle by staging a fourth-quarter uprising to tumble Ball State, 13-0. . . . Both lines repulsed charges of the backs and the rivals took to the air. . . . A long pass, Shiach to Joe Edwards, was good for the Tigers' first marker and later in the final period Downey of DePauw grabbed a Ball State punt and raced 65 yards for his team's second touchdown. . . . The Tigers hope to make it five in a row over Evansville this week before they come to grips with Butler on Oct. 30. . . . Ball State is matched with undefeated Hanover this Saturday.

EARLHAM and Wabash fought it out to a standoff at Richmond, 6-6. . . . The Quakers jumped off to a lead in the first period and the Little Giants bounced back to tie the struggle in the second. . . . Wabash will be host to Rose Poly this week and Earlham is to invade Franklin. . . . The Grizzlies of Franklin triumphed over Indiana State after a tense battle, 13-6. . . . Gene Starr, fullback, tallied both touchdowns for the Grizzlies. . . . Indiana State will tackle Valparaiso this week.

DR. RICE INDORSES I. H. S. A. A. PROGRAM

Health Chief Denies 'Feud' on Basketball

Finds Aims Similar in Desire to Get Away From Overemphasis.

The State Bureau of Health and Physical Education is in complete accord with the recently announced program of the Indiana High School Athletic Association, according to an article by Thurman D. Rice, bureau chief, in the October Bulletin of the Indiana Division of Public Health.

A widespread belief that the Bureau of Health is fighting the I. H. S. A. A.'s program because of alleged overemphasis on basketball in Hoosier high schools was responsible for the article, Dr. Rice said.

"It is true that the Bureau of Health and Physical Education thinks that basketball is overemphasized in Indiana high schools," the article states. "We are interested in the physical education and development of ALL children."

The I. H. S. A. A. in a booklet published under the date of Sept. 1, listed a 10-point program, which compares almost exactly with the program of the Bureau of Health, according to Dr. Rice. He calls attention to certain points of the program which he deems "particularly praiseworthy."

Cardinal points of both programs are real physical training for all boys and all girls, elimination of the "win at any cost" ideal in high school sports, and recognition that athletics are secondary to scholarship, high ideals, and real sportsmanship.

"Therefore," the article continues, "it appears that the I. H. S. A. A. and the Bureau of Health and Physical Education have no real differences at all."

Zaharias Boys On Mat Program

Two of "those Zaharias guys" will appear on the mat card at the Armory tomorrow night with George, the "Cry Baby" strutting his stuff in the main event against Shinkins (Killer) Shukuma, 205. Babe Zaharias, 230, meets the popular Pete Peterson, 222, Minneapolis, in a supporting tug.

Four instead of the customary three matches are carded. Billy Thom, 175, Bloomington, faces Jim Wagner, 180, Dayton, in a special semi-windup and Roy Eckert, 220, St. Louis, meets Tom (Bulldog) Marvin, 218, Tulsa.

As an added attraction Shukuma will offer $50 to any fan who stands up under his sleeper hold for 60 seconds. He has no one but pro grapplers. Shinkins later in the evening hopes to clamp his "sleeper" hold on the 241-pound George Zaharias.

Football

Broad Ripple defeated Beech Grove, 26-0, in a Smith-Hassler Stunt Senior League game at Christian Park yesterday. Peggs, Eller and Campbell scored for the winners, whose season record lists three victories and one defeat.

In a Junior League game at the same park, the Red Devils gained a last-minute 8-6 victory over the Royal Guards.

The Jugoslavs piled up a 40-0 win over Pendleton to maintain an undefeated season record. Sartor scored two touchdowns to lead the winners.

The Morris Street Merchants defeated the Fall Creek Athletics, 26-0, in a Majestic League game at Christian Park. St. Roch's won from Shur-Deth by forfeit.

The Fashion Cleaners and the Jugoslavs, both undefeated this season, will clash at Riverside Park next Sunday. The Cleaners won from Ft. Harrison yesterday, 6-0, when two passes from H. Weaver to Doodrum clicked for a touchdown. State teams wanting games with the Cleaners are asked to address Lonnie Heighthigher at 1440 W. 22d St. or call Lincoln 9629.

Tickets for the Notre Dame-Navy football game at Notre Dame Saturday are on sale at the offices of the Sexton Real Estate and Insurance Agency, 707 People's Bank Bldg.

Power Counts on the Courts Too

Whether you're man or woman, to rise to the tennis heights you have to put power into the game. In this remarkable picture of Hilda Sperling, made in English tournament play, is captured the spirit of driving power required to make difficult returns—plays that look spectacular from the grandstand, but are energy sapping on the courts.

Smith and Erner to Clash For Pleasant Run Title

Wedmore Smith and Harold Erner will tee off next Sunday at Pleasant Run in a 36-hole match for the club golf championship.

In yesterday's semifinal matches, played in a driving rain, Smith defeated Fred Gronauer, 1 up, in a 19-hole match, while Erner was eliminating J. Reeve, 3 and 2. V. H. Stambough took the president's flight championship by winning from J. Deiker, 1 up in 18 holes.

The Smith-Gronauer battle was a thriller. Both players shot sub par golf. On the 500-yard 18th hole, Gronauer's third shot was a foot from the cup for a sure birdie, and

Washington Gains In Pro-Grid Loop

The Washington Redskins climbed above the Brooklyn Dodgers into second place in the Eastern division of the National Football League today. Only other change in standings was in the Western group where Green Bay ousted the Chicago Cardinals from third place.

The Redskins came from behind to score four touchdowns in the last half and defeat the Pittsburgh Pirates, 34-20, before 13,000 fans at Washington while the Dodgers were taking a 30-0 shellacking from the Lions in Detroit, where 19,000 spectators turned out. Vern Huffman, former Indiana star, intercepted a Dodge pass on the goal line and sprinted 100 yards for a touchdown, to lead the Lions' attack.

Green Bay wallowed the Cards who were beaten, 16-7 by the Chicago Bears, Western division leaders. A crowd of 23,000 saw the Bears chalk up their fourth straight win. The New York Giants whitewashed the Philadelphia Eagles, 21-0, before 38,000 fans to retain the lead among the Easterners.

Horton Smith, Harry Cooper, Pace Golfers

Cling to Lead Despite Defeat in $5000 Four-Ball Tourney.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 18 (U.P.).—The team of Harry Cooper and Horton Smith led the field in the $5000 Oklahoma City four-ball tournament today as it met the combination of Ralph Guidahl and Billy Burke in the final round.

The leaders' margin, however, was reduced to a single point over Ray Mangrum and Johnny Revolta who moved into second place yesterday with their fifth straight victory while Cooper and Smith were beaten 2 up by Lawson Little and Paul Runyan.

Mangrum and Revolta, who play Tommy Armour and Jimmy Thomson today, gave a steady exhibition on a soggy course yesterday to defeat Ky Laffoon and Dick Metz, 3 up.

Ed Dudley and Jimmy Hines beat Tommy Armour and Jimmy Thomson, 3 up, and the Oklahoma City combination of Zell Eaton and Francis Scheider won its first match of the tourney by defeating Guidahl and Burke, 2 up.

Pairings for today's final play, including point standings:

Little and Runyan (plus five) vs. Eaton and Scheider (minus 11).
Laffoon and Metz (plus four) vs. Dudley and Hines (even).
Guidahl and Burke (minus two) vs. Cooper and Smith (plus nine).
Armour and Thomson (minus 1) vs. Revolta and Mangrum (plus eight).

Basketball

The Rhodius Park Junior Basketball League, sponsored by the WPA's Marion County Recreation Dept., is open to teams in the 16-17-year-old class. The league will play on Thursday nights.

The Meridian Boys Club will sponsor a senior basketball league which will play at the club gymnasium at St. Clair and Meridian Sts. For information regarding either of these leagues write H. E. Wince, 1470 Charles St., or call RI-6805 between 6 and 7 p. m.

PRACTICE CARDED FOR Y. M. C. A. TEAM

First practice for the Y. M. C. A. varsity basketball team, which will again be a part of the Y physical education program this winter after a lapse of several years, will be held this evening.

Games are planned with other strong local teams and with out-of-town clubs. Practice and tournament competition in an association league, open to all members, will begin shortly after the varsity team gets under way.

"WHOOPEE...."
Dad Bought a House"

It's a grand and glorious feeling for any child to be able to say: "Come on over to OUR place." You have the respect of your children as they grow older when you have created a "home of your own," because children get much out of the fact that their parents own the home in which they are living and it comes into the pattern of their lives constantly.

When parents finally come to the occasion when they can buy a home of their own, the children almost invariably want to live where there are grass and trees. They do this with the instinct of play which actually means the building of health and fine form of body. Children like to play outdoors all year 'round and homes in the suburbs are pleasant and happy places for children.
