

Teaches 25 Years at Butler

Dr. Henry L. Bruner

STUDENTS GROW 'YOUNGER,' SAYS LOCAL TEACHER

Dr. Bruner, Veteran Zoology Professor, Calls Job 'Favorite Hobby.'

College students of 1892 seemed "more mature" than they now are, Dr. Henry Lane Bruner, Butler University zoology department head, said today in commenting on his 45 years as member of the Butler faculty.

The professor joined the Butler faculty in 1892 when the campus was in Irvington and he's still going strong. He came here from Eureka College where he had taught zoology.

During the 45 years, Dr. Bruner has observed ever-changing youth and thinks the students are acting and thinking a little younger every year.

Dr. Bruner did his graduate work at the University of Freiburg, Germany. He is a member of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, the Indiana Academy of Science, the Iowa Academy of Science, Phi Kappa Phi and the American Society of Zoologists. Dr. Bruner is the author of "Laboratory Direction in College Zoology."

When asked about his favorite hobby he smiled and replied, "Teaching at Butler."
