

Child-Adult Book Lists Merge at 12

Wider Interests Enable Youths to Enjoy 'Meaty' Reading.

(Fifth of a Series)

By OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON
After 12, the books for children take on such depth of interest and are so meaty as to content, that they make excellent adult reading also.
By this I mean that to buy a book for a boy or girl of this age is to buy one for yourself. Content is so entertaining that they should be labeled "12 to 70." The only reason we specify an age is because they have a special appeal to the tastes of the growing youth.
Some are mines of knowledge, others fiction typifying the best in human relations and endeavor. But see for yourself. These are recent additions to the child's library, and mothers will be happy, I know, to paste these suggestions in their scrap books.

Mines of Information
How They Started, by Elizabeth B. Hamilton (Harcourt Brace); The Story of Tunnels, by Archibald Black (Dutton); In Secret Service (for girls), by Jean Rosmer (Lippincott); Book of Marvels, by Richard Halliburton (Bobbs Merrill); Animals on the March, by W. M. Reed and J. M. Lucas (Harcourt Brace); Their Weight in Wildcates (frontier people), by James Daugherty (Houghton); Exploring With Bird (Pulnam); The Earth Changes, by Janette M. Lucas and Helen Carter (Lippincott).
Our America, by Irving R. Melbo (Bobbs Merrill); Yellow Eyes, by Rutherford Montgomery (Caxton); Swords in the Dawn, by John Beatty (Longmans); All About Mining, by Wallace H. Witcombe (Longmans); Houses in America, by Ethel P. and Thomas P. Robinson (Viking); No Other White Men, by Julia Davis (Dutton); Pirate Treasure, by Harold T. Wilkins (Dutton); Map Makers, by Joseph Collier and Hym Jaffe (Little Brown); Hurry's Nest, by H. A. Calahan (Vanguard).

Romance and Adventure
The Loving Heart (girls), by Elsie Singmaster (Houghton); Thunder, by Hildegarde Hawthorne (Longmans); Shanty Brook Lodge (Girl Scouts), by Fleri Hess (MacMillan); The Winter Nightingale (girls), by Marie Colmont (Coward-McCann); A Row of Stars (girls), by Jane Abbott (Lippincott); The Singing Wood (girls), by Florence Crannell Means (Houghton); The Great Tradition (girls), by Marjorie Hill Alice (Houghton); The Raid of the Terrible, by John Mackworth (Lippincott).
Jim Hunter, Sportsman, by Ray P. Holland Jr. (Houghton); The Last of the Gnomes, by Thomas Williamson (Bobbs Merrill); The Spy Mystery, by S. S. Smith (Harcourt); Stained Gold, by James Willard Schulz (Houghton); Messenger to the Pharaoh, by Dr. Wolf Morgan (Longmans); With Sword and Song, by Melvich V. Rosenberg (Houghton); 5000 Years of Glass, also "Fresh and Briny," by Frances Rogers and Alice Beard (Stokes); A Boy for the Ages, by Irving Bacheller (Farrar and Rinehart); The Shadow of the Crown, by Ivy Bolton (Longmans); Front Page Story, by Robert Van Gelder (Dodd Mead); Peggy Covers Washington (girls), by Emma Eugenie (Dodd Mead).

Zonta Members To Hear Talk by Fred C. Gause

Miss May Shields, Indianapolis Zonta Club president, is to preside at the dinner-meeting at 6:30 p. m. tomorrow in the Columbia Club.

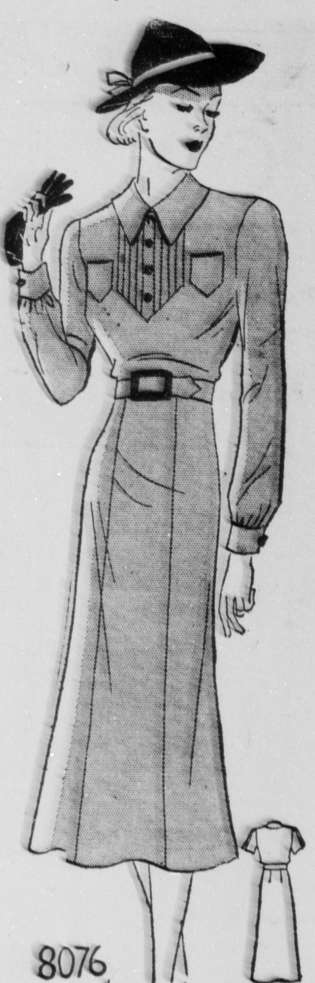

The program arranged by Miss Florio Torrence is built around the theme "Status of Women." Fred C. Gause, former Indiana Supreme Court judge, is to be speaker. He is to discuss "Is a Woman a Citizen?"
The program was inspired by Mrs. Ellen Anderson Parks, international president, who instructed delegates to the International Conference of Zonta held in June at Niagara Falls, to plan programs around the "Status of Women" theme.
At the close of the dinner-meeting, announcement is to be made regarding Zonta's service work for Indianapolis Day Nursery kiddies at Christmas.

Art Association To Hear Lecture

A lecture for members of the Art Association is to be sponsored by membership and activities committees at 2 p. m. tomorrow at the John Herron Art Museum. Miss Mary Margaret Miller is to speak on "Styles in Period Furniture."
Following the lecture, tea is to be served in the gallery. Mrs. A. L. Taggart Jr. and Mrs. Charles Brossman are to pour, assisted by Mesdames Joseph G. Brannum, Charles L. Lykins, John E. Seybert, D. Laurance Chambers, George R. Seeger, Henry V. Robin, Ralph F. Thompson, John E. Dalton, H. M. Powell, Clyde C. Dibble, Jasper C. Scott, James B. Malone and Harry Goode.

Three Weddings Are Announced Over Week-End

Three marriages, one that took place in June, one on Nov. 12 and one on Nov. 17, were announced this week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Myron D. Rinker, 3907 Graceland Ave., have announced the marriage of their daughter, Dorothy Louise, to Harry L. Harris, Indianapolis, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Harris of Monticello, formerly of this city.

The ceremony was read June 3 in Greenfield. The couple is at home at 5819 E. Washington St. Mr. and Mrs. M. Earl Robbins, 207 Carrollton Ave., are to entertain at dinner Sunday for them. During the afternoon, they are to receive in the couple's honor.

Mr. and Mrs. George Carothers are at home at 604 N. Bancroft St. They were married Nov. 12. The Rev. W. A. Ball officiated.
The bride was formerly Miss Margaret Crouch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Crouch, 1445 Massachusetts Ave.

The marriage is announced of Miss Aileen Gargathy and Charles Pfeiffer, which took place at 9 a. m. Wednesday in the St. Peter and Paul Cathedral Chapel. The Rev. Msgr. Noll officiated.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James J. Gargathy, 3621 Birchwood Ave. Mr. Pfeiffer is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Pfeiffer.

It happened to me

—maybe, I was lucky.

It happened this way: I found myself in a run-down condition . . . I was listless . . . dependent . . . my appetite was lagging . . . I was losing weight. I wasn't desperate, as I knew I had no organic trouble . . . but I was puzzled as to why I was losing ground.

I was lucky because a friend suggested that I try S.S.S. Tonic . . . she said it had greatly benefited her in building back her strength and now she felt like her old self again.

An interesting fact about S.S.S. Tonic is that 47.2% of those who take it, do so upon the recommendation of others who have themselves benefited by taking this great tonic.

There is a special reason why S.S.S. Tonic is beneficial in helping people get back their health . . . because it contains the precious mineral elements so vitally necessary for restoring deficient red-blood-cells. Moreover, S.S.S. Tonic whets the appetite and improves digestion, making for better use of food—a very important step back to health.

You, too, will want to take S.S.S. Tonic to regain and to maintain your red-blood-cells . . . to restore lost weight . . . to regain energy . . . to strengthen nerves . . . to give your skin that natural health glow.

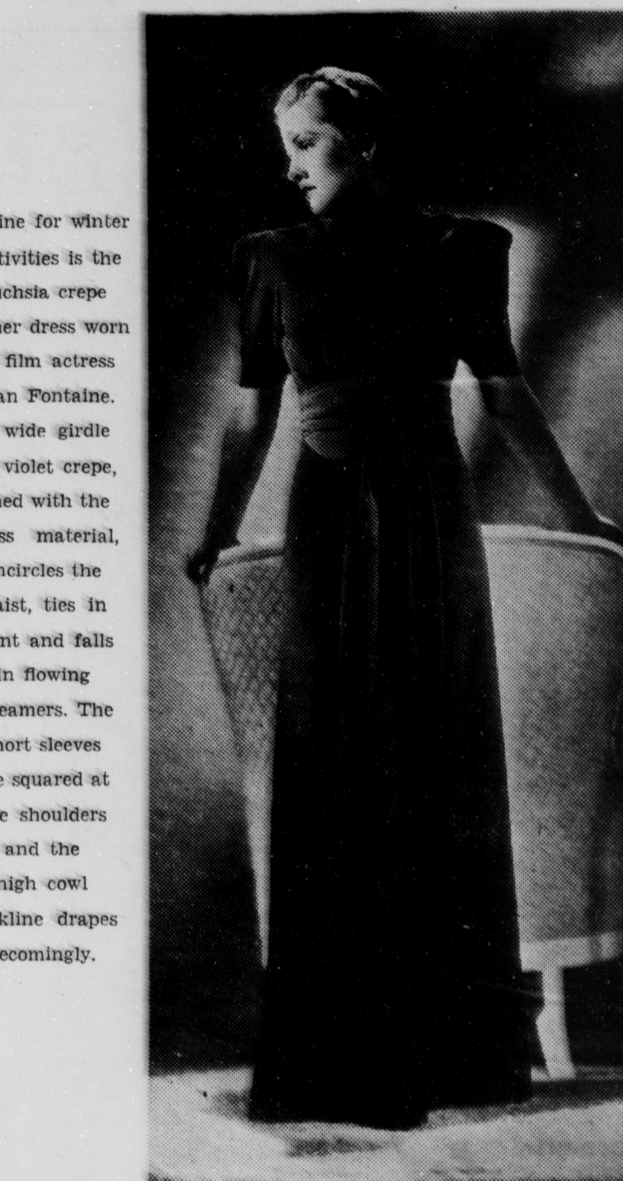

Take the S.S.S. Tonic treatment and shortly you should be delighted with the way you feel . . . and have your friends compliment you on the way you look.

Star Wears New Dinner Dress

In line for winter festivities is the tuchsa crepe dinner dress worn by film actress Joan Fontaine. A wide girde of violet crepe, lined with the dress material, encircles the waist, ties in front and falls in flowing streamers. The short sleeves are squared at the shoulders and the high cowl neckline drapes becomingly.

Breakfast On Holiday Can Be Big

Recipes Given for Festive Dishes That Stick To Ribs.

By MRS. GAYNOR MADDOX
Going home for the big Thanksgiving dinner? Then before the drive you need a breakfast that will stick to the ribs and seem rather festive. Try these special breakfast dishes.

Toasted Sausage With Eggs in Brown Butter
(4 to 6 servings)

Twelve pork sausage links, 2 tablespoons butter, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, 1/4 teaspoon tarragon vinegar, 1/4 teaspoon salt, dash red pepper, 6 poached eggs, parsley. Toast sausages. Brown butter and lemon juice, vinegar, salt and pepper. Stir until well blended. Arrange toasted sausages and poached eggs on hot platter. Four brown butter over eggs. Serve piping hot.

Hominy and Stuffed Apples

Wash, pare and partly core red baking apples. Jonathan or York Imperials or Winesaps are a few of many excellent choices. Through each cavity insert a small sausage. (If cavity is not quite large enough cut out slightly with small knife). Place in baking pan and bake in hot oven (425 degrees) about 40 minutes, or until apples are done, basting occasionally with sausage fat as it accumulates in pan. In the meantime cook hominy in boiling, salted water until kernels are tender—or use canned hominy. Drain well. Serve hominy in center of platter dressed with melted butter and paprika surrounded by stuffed apples.

Soda Sweetens Milk

A little baking soda added to milk "on the turn" will sweeten it sufficiently to use in baking. Also, if your favorite cake recipe calls for sour milk and you have none, vinegar or lemon juice added to the milk will sour it. If you use vinegar, add two tablespoons to a cup of milk.
