

By Eddie Ash

PURDUE 'BUCKET' BRIGADE WINS

CECIL ISBELL CHIEF RIVETER

BY staging a Garrison finish and with the drive spear-headed by the artful dodging, plunging and passing of Cecil Isbell, their ace halfback, Purdue's Boilermakers today were in possession of the cherished Old Oaken Bucket, symbol of football supremacy between Purdue and Indiana. . . . It was Isbell's last game in the livery of the Lafayette school and he dominated the Hoosier classic before a capacity throng at Bloomington Saturday as Purdue swept to victory over the Fighting Hoosiers, 13-7.

The contest, played on a snow-fringed field, was a typical affair between the old rivals and was the 40th renewal of their series. . . . First, the Boilermakers scored in the opening quarter on a long pass from Cecil Isbell to Jim Zachary and Cecil kicked the extra point. . . . Then Indiana hit its stride in the second period and lunged, plunged and passed to a touchdown on Frank Filchok's accurate toss to Captain Kenderdine. . . . George Fowler added the point and the half ended in a 7-7 deadlock.

FRENZIED fans were willing to settle for a tie as the third period was scoreless and the final quarter reached the last stages. . . . In the waning minutes Cecil Isbell, Lou Brock and Jack Brown, sophomore from Indianapolis, turned it on against the tiring Hoosiers and plunges and laterals advanced the Boilermakers from near midfield to the Indiana nine. . . . A lateral from Isbell to Brown set up the winning touchdown. . . . Cecil Isbell lost two yards at end and then picked up one on a plunge at center on second down.

Isbell then hit the middle of the line with a thunderous burst of power, bowled through the Indiana defenders and scrambled over the goal line for a touchdown and victory. . . . His kick for point was blocked, but time was too short for the courageous Indiana team to catch the Boilermakers, and thus ended one of the most interesting battles of all state classics.

HONORS for outstanding play were distributed on both sides in the Bloomington attraction and Coaches Mal Edward of Purdue and Bo McMillin of Indiana shook hands all around in the clubhouses after the bitterly fought struggle. . . . Corby Davis of Indiana lived up to his reputation as a powerhouse fullback, Filchok got off several splendid passes, both lines smashed hard and the tackling and blocking supplied eye-filling entertainment for the shivering fans. . . . Isbell's fine kicking harassed the Hoosiers and caused them to expend extra energy working out of holes.

Purdue's players were sent into a frenzy of emotion and "will to win" when Noble Kizer, head coach now on leave of absence on account of ill health, talked to them from Albuquerque, N. M., before the game.

A newspaper attached to the phone in the Purdue clubhouse, enabled every player to hear Kizer's voice and he told them he felt it was to be their day, that Purdue had been underrated and handicapped by bad breaks, and to get out there and prove it. . . . And Noble called again after the game to offer congratulations and the happy Boilermakers answered him with all the cheers at their command.

Purdue was a shade the better team Saturday and the Hoosiers were well-earned. . . . The Boilermakers simply outlasted the Hoosiers in that bruising fourth quarter. Indiana played without the service of its star center, George Miller, and Capt. Martin Schreyer of Purdue also was on the sidelines. . . . Injuries kept these fine players from performing.

INDIANA finished the season with five victories and three defeats, Purdue with four wins, one tie and three defeats. . . . The Hoosiers won third place in the Big Ten race and the Boilermakers finished in a four-way tie for fourth with Northwestern, Michigan and Wisconsin. . . . Paul Graham, backfield star, has been elected 1938 Indiana captain and Purdue will name its new leader tonight at the annual Lafayette Kiwanis Club football banquet.

Indiana players also will dine tonight in Bloomington at the Union Club's annual grid banquet.

The Purdue-Indiana football series now shows 22 victories for the Boilermakers, 13 for the Hoosiers and five ties. . . . Saturday's triumph was Purdue's first since 1933. . . . Indiana won in '34 and '35 and last year's score was a 20-20 tie.

NOTRE DAME maintained its one-touchdown complex Saturday and knocked off Northwestern, 7-0. The Irish threatened on other occasions but their goal drives stalled when everything pointed to a triumph by a wider margin. . . . But the Irish have been that way this fall and one touchdown has been their dish in the last six starts. . . . However, Elmer Layden's gladiators have been strong on the defense and have won five games, tied one and lost two.

THE irrepressible Chuck Sweeney, flashy end, tallied the Notre Dame touchdown Saturday and Andy Pupils kicked the extra point. . . . In the second quarter Alec Shelloog, Irish tackle, blocked a Northwestern punt and Sweeney snatched the ball out of the air and carried it across the Wildcats' goal. . . . Jefferson of Northwestern was trying to kick out from behind his own goal line when the South Benders swarmed through and broke it up.

It was another good afternoon for Notre Dame and the play was in Northwestern territory almost constantly. . . . Pupils, Irish quarterback, got off on another of his specialties, a long run, and the kicking of Harry Stevenson, Notre Dame sophomore halfback, was a factor in the destruction of the Wildcats.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA will clash with Notre Dame at South Bend Saturday to ring down the curtain on football in this section. . . . The teams played a 13-13 tie at Los Angeles last fall. The only Turkey Day game in the state will be Rose Poly and Shurtliff at Terre Haute.

Hanover defeated Evansville Saturday, 6-0, the touchdown coming in the final period when Dendinger passed to Anders when the Hilltoppers had the ball on the Aces' eight-yard line. . . . Evansville lost all games—nine in a row—and failed to tally a single point against 198 for opponents. . . . Hanover won five and dropped three.

Football Scores

STATE COLLEGES
Hanover, 6; Evansville, 0.
Purdue, 13; Indiana, 7; Northwestern, 0.

OTHER COLLEGES
Albion, 19; Wabash, 9.
Arnold, 21; Bergen Junior, 8.
Army, 47; St. John's, 6.
Auburn, 13; Boston, 12.
Baker, 18; Bethany, 0.
Bates, 27; Loyola (Los Angeles), 13.
Bethany, 13; Boston College, 0.
Bradley Tech, 27; James Millikan, 0.
Brigham Young, 13; Montana, 0.
Boston, 13; Boston College, 6.
Brown, 13; Davis, 13; New York, 0.
Brooklyn College, 27; New York, 12.
Bryn Mawr, 13; Washburn, 0.
California, 13; Stanford, 0.
Colorado, 8; Illinois, 6.
Carnegie Tech, 8; Holy Cross, 0.
Colgate, 7; Syracuse, 0.
Cornell, 13; Norwich, 0.
Central, 1; Southwestern, 6.
Detroit Tech, 41; Ferris Institute, 0.
Drexel, 19; Michigan, 12.
Duke, 20; North Carolina State, 7.
Duke, 13; Wake Forest, 10.
DePaul (Chicago), 12; Western, State (Kalamazoo), 13.
Tulane, 1; Syracuse, 0.
East Texas Teachers, 20; Denton, 0.
East Texas Teachers, 20; University of Louisville, 6 (tie).
Fordham, 6; St. Mary's, 0.
Georgia, 6; Auburn, 0 (tie).
Georgia Tech, 13; Florida, 6.
George Washington, 13; Arkansas, 0 (tie).
Harvard, 13; Yale, 6.
Heidelberg, 6; Wittenberg, 3.
Hofstra, 13; Cornell, 12.
Illinois College, 32; McKendree, 3.
Illinois Normal, 12; Elmhurst, 6.
Illinois State, 13; Chicago, 12.
Iowa State, 13; Kansas State, 7.
Iowa Teachers, 13; University of Omaha, 6.
Lowell, 18; Simpson, 0.
Loyola, 6; Mount St. Mary's, 0.
Kutztown Teachers, 7; Millersville, 0.
Lebanon Valley, 16; Juniata, 0.
Louisiana State, 22; Louisiana Normal, 0.

BROWNING WINCHESTER
REMINGTON
SHOTGUNS
BUY IT ON OUR EASY WEEKLY
PAY PLAN
BLUE POINT Delaware, Madison & Ray

SORE THROAT
DUE TO COLDS?
demand
TONSILINE

Indianapolis Times Sports

PAGE 6

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 22, 1937

PITT, RAMS EACH PLACE 2 ON ALL-EAST

Alex Wojciechowicz

Bill Osmanski

Ed Franco

Elliott Hooper

Marshall Goldberg

Frank of Yale Is Named With Dartmouth Wingman

(Sixth of a Series)

By HARRY GRAYSON

Pittsburgh and Fordham, the section's most formidable and well within the nation's first five, each place two men on the first All-East team of 1937, selected for NEA Service by coaches and critics.

There is no doubt about any one of them. The phenomenal halfback, Marshall Goldberg, and the cyclonic tackle, Tony Matisi of the Pioneers, and the stop sign in the middle of the line, Alex Wojciechowicz, and the accomplished tackle, Edmund Franco, of the Rams, are unanimous choices.

There are five Juniors on the first squad, Sid Luckman of Columbia and Bill Osmanski of Holy Cross, backs; Johnny Wysocki, Villanova end; Elliott Hooper, Cornell's punting guard, and Goldberg, which means even more trouble for certain clubs next fall.

Clinch Frank, Yale's inspirational leader who has earned his place as a Blue immortal; Capt. Merrill Davis, Dartmouth end, and Ray DuBois, Navy captain and guard, complete the first array.

Frank Joins Immortals

Wojciechowicz and Frank were All-America choices last autumn and Frank is a certain repeater. Goldberg scarcely can miss this trip and Wysocki will pull the votes of those who have seen him.

Matisi and Franco are two more about whom it is unnecessary to go into details. Pitt got rolling in the final period against Notre Dame when Matisi returned to the firing line. Matisi and Franco were two reasons why Pitt and Fordham battled to a scoreless tie for the third straight season.

Hooper and DuBois pull out of the line and move rapidly in either direction and are among the East's toughest guards on defense. Hooper drops back to do the bulk of Cornell's punting.

Greats on Second Team

But what needs more explaining than the first team selections is the presence on the second squad of such renowned athletes as the Pioneers' Frank South of Pittsburgh and Frank Holloman of Cornell, ends, and the leaping of Bill Hutchinson, the elusive Dartmouth halfback, to the third string.

Hooper and DuBois pull out of the line and move rapidly in either direction and are among the East's toughest guards on defense. Hooper drops back to do the bulk of Cornell's punting.

Greats on Second Team

But what needs more explaining than the first team selections is the presence on the second squad of such renowned athletes as the Pioneers' Frank South of Pittsburgh and Frank Holloman of Cornell, ends, and the leaping of Bill Hutchinson, the elusive Dartmouth halfback, to the third string.

I'm not going into that, but something in the way of proof of the thoroughness of the NEA scouts' search is the election of Clark of West Virginia to the second on-string backfield and their awarding Dick Riffle of little Albright a third-string backfield post for the second season.

With Hamill setting the pace, the South Side Craftsmen defeated the Christamore Cardinals, 24-13. For games with the Craftsmen, call Riffle between 5 and 6 p. m. and ask for Joe.

Greats on Second Team

But what needs more explaining than the first team selections is the presence on the second squad of such renowned athletes as the Pioneers' Frank South of Pittsburgh and Frank Holloman of Cornell, ends, and the leaping of Bill Hutchinson, the elusive Dartmouth halfback, to the third string.

I'm not going into that, but something in the way of proof of the thoroughness of the NEA scouts' search is the election of Clark of West Virginia to the second on-string backfield and their awarding Dick Riffle of little Albright a third-string backfield post for the second season.

With Hamill setting the pace, the South Side Craftsmen defeated the Christamore Cardinals, 24-13. For games with the Craftsmen, call Riffle between 5 and 6 p. m. and ask for Joe.

Greats on Second Team

But what needs more explaining than the first team selections is the presence on the second squad of such renowned athletes as the Pioneers' Frank South of Pittsburgh and Frank Holloman of Cornell, ends, and the leaping of Bill Hutchinson, the elusive Dartmouth halfback, to the third string.

I'm not going into that, but something in the way of proof of the thoroughness of the NEA scouts' search is the election of Clark of West Virginia to the second on-string backfield and their awarding Dick Riffle of little Albright a third-string backfield post for the second season.

With Hamill setting the pace, the South Side Craftsmen defeated the Christamore Cardinals, 24-13. For games with the Craftsmen, call Riffle between 5 and 6 p. m. and ask for Joe.

Greats on Second Team

But what needs more explaining than the first team selections is the presence on the second squad of such renowned athletes as the Pioneers' Frank South of Pittsburgh and Frank Holloman of Cornell, ends, and the leaping of Bill Hutchinson, the elusive Dartmouth halfback, to the third string.

I'm not going into that, but something in the way of proof of the thoroughness of the NEA scouts' search is the election of Clark of West Virginia to the second on-string backfield and their awarding Dick Riffle of little Albright a third-string backfield post for the second season.

With Hamill setting the pace, the South Side Craftsmen defeated the Christamore Cardinals, 24-13. For games with the Craftsmen, call Riffle between 5 and 6 p. m. and ask for Joe.

Greats on Second Team

But what needs more explaining than the first team selections is the presence on the second squad of such renowned athletes as the Pioneers' Frank South of Pittsburgh and Frank Holloman of Cornell, ends, and the leaping of Bill Hutchinson, the elusive Dartmouth halfback, to the third string.

I'm not going into that, but something in the way of proof of the thoroughness of the NEA scouts' search is the election of Clark of West Virginia to the second on-string backfield and their awarding Dick Riffle of little Albright a third-string backfield post for the second season.

With Hamill setting the pace, the South Side Craftsmen defeated the Christamore Cardinals, 24-13. For games with the Craftsmen, call Riffle between 5 and 6 p. m. and ask for Joe.

Greats on Second Team

But what needs more explaining than the first team selections is the presence on the second squad of such renowned athletes as the Pioneers' Frank South of Pittsburgh and Frank Holloman of Cornell, ends, and the leaping of Bill Hutchinson, the elusive Dartmouth halfback, to the third string.

I'm not going into that, but something in the way of proof of the thoroughness of the NEA scouts' search is the election of Clark of West Virginia to the second on-string backfield and their awarding Dick Riffle of little Albright a third-string backfield post for the second season.

With Hamill setting the pace, the South Side Craftsmen defeated the Christamore Cardinals, 24-13. For games with the Craftsmen, call Riffle between 5 and 6 p. m. and ask for Joe.

Greats on Second Team

But what needs more explaining than the first team selections is the presence on the second squad of such renowned athletes as the Pioneers' Frank South of Pittsburgh and Frank Holloman of Cornell, ends, and the leaping of Bill Hutchinson, the elusive Dartmouth halfback, to the third string.

I'm not going into that, but something in the way of proof of the thoroughness of the NEA scouts' search is the election of Clark of West Virginia to the second on-string backfield and their awarding Dick Riffle of little Albright a third-string backfield post for the second season.

With Hamill setting the pace, the South Side Craftsmen defeated the Christamore Cardinals, 24-13. For games with the Craftsmen, call Riffle between 5 and 6 p. m. and ask for Joe.

Greats on Second Team

But what needs more explaining than the first team selections is the presence on the second squad of such renowned athletes as the Pioneers' Frank South of Pittsburgh and Frank Holloman of Cornell, ends, and the leaping of Bill Hutchinson, the elusive Dartmouth halfback, to the third string.

I'm not going into that, but something in the way of proof of the thoroughness of the NEA scouts' search is the election of Clark of West Virginia to the second on-string backfield and their awarding Dick Riffle of little Albright a third-string backfield post for the second season.

With Hamill setting the pace, the South Side Craftsmen defeated the Christamore Cardinals, 24-13. For games with the Craftsmen, call Riffle between 5 and 6 p. m. and ask for Joe.

Greats on Second Team

But what needs more explaining than the first team selections is the presence on the second squad of such renowned athletes as the Pioneers' Frank South of Pittsburgh and Frank Holloman of Cornell, ends, and the leaping of Bill Hutchinson, the elusive Dartmouth halfback, to the third string.

I'm not going into that, but something in the way of proof of the thoroughness of the NEA scouts' search is the election of Clark of West Virginia to the second on-string backfield and their awarding Dick Riffle of little Albright a third-string backfield post for the second season.

With Hamill setting the pace, the South Side Craftsmen defeated the Christamore Cardinals, 24-13. For games with the Craftsmen, call Riffle between 5 and 6 p. m. and ask for Joe.

Greats on Second Team

But what needs more explaining than the first team selections is the presence on the second squad of such renowned athletes as the Pioneers' Frank South of Pittsburgh and Frank Holloman of Cornell, ends, and the leaping of Bill Hutchinson, the elusive Dartmouth halfback, to the third string.

I'm not going into that, but something in the way of proof of the thoroughness of the NEA scouts' search is the election of Clark of West Virginia to the second on-string backfield and their awarding Dick Riffle of little Albright a third-string backfield post for the second season.

With Hamill setting the pace, the South Side Craftsmen defeated the Christamore Cardinals, 24-13. For games with the Craftsmen, call Riffle between 5 and 6 p. m. and ask for Joe.

Greats on Second Team

But what needs more explaining than the first team selections is the presence on the second squad of such renowned athletes as the Pioneers' Frank South of Pittsburgh and Frank Holloman of Cornell, ends, and the leaping of Bill Hutchinson, the elusive Dartmouth halfback, to the third string.

</