

Society to Greet Old Friends at New Year 'Open Houses' Today

There'll Be One on Almost Every Corner and Hospitality Will Be Kept Everywhere; Charles S. Rauh's Is Missed.

By VIRGINIA MOORHEAD MANNON

Hospitality's rite today with an open house on nearly every corner. Those who aren't entertaining themselves are pretty certain to drop in half a dozen places to say "Happy New Year!" The gracious custom of welcoming friends is one of the pleasantest ways of meeting "The Future."

Mr. and Mrs. Archer Sinclair will receive from 4 to 6 o'clock this afternoon at their home in Golden Hill. Mrs. A. Ewing Sinclair, Mrs. James F. Carroll and the Misses Mary and Elsie Sinclair will assist the host and hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lacy II are to be at home from 4 to 6 o'clock this afternoon at Lacywood Manor, Traders Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Pinnell will give a tea in honor of their house guest, Miss Cebe Wallace, of Berkeley, Cal., in the Green Room of the Indianapolis Athletic Club this afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Eno III will hold open house at Buena Vista on Cold Spring Road from 5 to 7 p. m. Assisting Mr. and Mrs. Eno will be Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Elder and Mr. and Mrs. William Gavin.

Mr. and Mrs. George S. Olive are to be at home from 3 to 6 o'clock this afternoon. The tea table will be arranged with decorations of silver and white. Assisting Mr. and Mrs. Olive will be Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Olive, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Carpenter, Mrs. John Calvin, Mrs. Marshall G. Knox and Mrs. Edna B. Crommelin.

Dr. and Mrs. John Eric Dalton will be assisted by Dr. and Mrs. Raymond Rice and Mr. and Mrs. Alvin C. Johnson when they hold open house from 4 to 6 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Ralph Hamilton are to hold their customary New Year's Day open house from 4 to 11 o'clock. Assisting Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton will be Mesdames J. P. Jahr, Norman Hamilton, Henry Ditzell, Leonard A. Smith and Miss Doris Hamilton.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert Dearmin will be at home from 3 to 6 p. m. Dr. G. D. Timmons is to hold his customary open house throughout the day.

A host of friends who have customarily attended Charles S. Rauh's New Year's Day "at home" were disappointed to learn that Mr. Rauh is not to give his party this year. Mr. Rauh, who is spending the week-end at French Lick, sent New Year's greetings to his usual invitation list and a "rain-check" for the 1939 gathering.

Col. and Mrs. A. W. Herrington are to give a housewarming in their new home, 4286 Boulevard Place, from 4 to 6 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Following the drag hunt this morning the Traders Point Hunt held a breakfast at 12:30 today in Woodstock Club. The breakfast tables were placed before a roaring fire in the fireplace in the hall.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Barskin announce the engagement of their daughter, Barbara Jean, to Marcus A. Feinberg, son of Mrs. Hattie B. Feinberg. Miss Barskin is a niece of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Goodman.

Mrs. Richard Francis, who has been the guest of her mother, Mrs. J. M. Dalrymple, in the Marlott Hotel, will leave tomorrow for New York where she is to spend 10 days before going to California for the winter. Mrs. Francis recently returned from a year's trip around the world.

Mr. and Mrs. John G. Williams are to leave Jan. 5 for a West Indies cruise.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Eberts will leave Wednesday for Tampa, Fla., where they will join their son, Kenneth M. Eberts, and Mrs. Eberts for the winter.

Dr. and Mrs. Karl Ruedell are spending the holidays in Miami and Tampa, Fla.

Dr. W. D. Funkhouser, zoology professor in the University of Kentucky, has been the guest of his mother, Mrs. H. C. Funkhouser, during the meeting of the American Association for the Advancement of Science. Dr. Funkhouser is a member of the association's executive committee.

Dr. Crues J. Clark has returned from Cedar Key, Fla., where he hunted quail, duck and deer. He was a guest of Dr. and Mrs. E. N. Andrews, formerly of Muncie, in their country home near Cedar Key.

Mrs. Robert Kerr Black, the former Janet Holliday, and Mr. Black are spending a year in London, where Mr. Black is doing research work.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred John DiCaprio, who were married Dec. 26, are at home at 1 Bank St., New York City. Mrs. DiCaprio was Miss Marjorie Faith Hendren, formerly of Indianapolis.

Mrs. S. C. Southwick, who was the holiday guest of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lieber, has returned to her home in Chicago. Dr. Francis W. Moffatt, Ohio State University, who was Mr. and Mrs. Lieber's guest during the American Association for the Advancement of Science convention, has returned to Columbus.

'Big' Events Marked 1937 Social Whirl

Lilly and Adams Debuts Among Headliners Of the Year.

The 1937 date books today go into files or are discarded. But not a few in Indianapolis society circles will resist the temptation to scan the year's outline for reminders of the year's outstanding social events.

Parents of college students in the early January days were busily arranging to send sons and daughters back to school after a gay round of holiday festivities. Other society folk were dashing off to Miami in time for the races. Mr. and Mrs. William Ray Adams and others left later in the month for the South.

On Jan. 12 the announcement was made of the engagement of Mrs. Mignon McGibney Burr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McGibney, to Charles Cutler Dawes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Dawes, Chicago. The ceremony was read on Jan. 23.

Attracting a number of parties were the Civic Theater production, "Biography of S. N. Behrman," and the Players' performance of "Emperor of Everything." Seven balls were held in the city on Jan. 30 in honor of President Roosevelt's birthday.

The Indiana Saddle Horse Association's Wild Oats Ball dominated the social scene late in February. Among the vacationers coming and going were G. Barrett Moxley and his daughter, Irving Moxley, who went to Florida for deep sea fishing.

The activities of children and the younger social set were prominent on the March calendar. The Masquers Club of Tudor Hall and the Park School boys presented "Dear Brutus," and the students at Orchard School entertained parents with "Hansel and Gretel." The Children's Civic Theater presented "Racketty Packety House" and sponsored a ballet, "Pinochio," here during the month.

Their dramatic minded elders also appeared in several plays. Performances were given by the Players, Dramatic Club and Civic Theater. On members' calendars were underlined the Indianapolis Athletic Club's "Tulip Time" Ball and the "Blossom Time" Dance at the Columbus Club.

Chiming the month were Easter parties at country clubs and the return of students from schools for the holidays.

April's pages held starred notations for two balls and four weddings. The Civic Theater's Stage Door Ball and the Junior League Crystal Ball early in the month were the occasion of many large parties.

Several Indianapolis people went to New York for the wedding on April 9 of Miss Melissa Wadley, formerly of this city, to Thomas Southworth Childs. A prominent local wedding was that of Miss Joan Hammond Auferheld to William Herbert Thompson on April 24. Two others of interest were the ceremonies uniting Miss Margaret Godfrey and Oscar Kaeflin Jr. and Miss Marjorie McDuffee and John T. Rocap.

Among the travelers leaving for abroad were Mrs. George Philip Meier, Miss Mary Davis Joiner, Mrs. F. M. Cornelius and the latter's daughter, Mrs. Vaughn Cornish, who left on the 30th to attend the Coronation.

Distinguished visitors and parties attendant upon the Speedway Race definitely overshadowed the month of May. A sport's event earlier in the month attracting society folk was the Kentucky Derby at Churchill Downs. Polo enthusiasts were pleased when Ridge Club's announcement that the sport was to be revived here.

Three prominent local couples exchanged vows. Miss Mona Taggart became the bride of Robert S. Montague Jr. and Miss Margaret Henshaw Winslow was married to Maxwell Coppock. Miss Jane Titton became the bride of R. Michael Fox.

The debut of Miss Evelyn Lilly, daughter of Eli Lilly, and Mrs. Lilly, was not only June's most outstanding event but also perhaps the most prominent of the year.

Miss Lilly was formally presented to society at a tea in the Lilly home on Sunset Lane on June 19. Mr. and Mrs. Lilly gave a dance on the 23d in honor of Miss Lilly and her friends. The two young women were guests at a party on June 26 at which Mr. and Mrs. William Ray Adams and family and Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Johnson and family were hosts.

A national society event on June 30 was the marriage of Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr. to Miss Ethel du Pont.

Commencements at eastern schools attracted many Indianapolis people early in the month while others centered their interests on activities at Tudor Hall and Oliver Military Academy.

By July a very definite exodus of society to summer homes was noted and news of local residents came from far and varied resorts. Attracting large numbers particularly were Burt Lake, Mich., Leland, Mich., Havana, Atlantic City, Canada, the Great Smoky Mountains, Lake Wawasee and the Indianapolis colony at Lake Maxinkuckee. For the stay-in-towners the country clubs offered lazy days by swimming pools.

Several Indianapolis people were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Johnson at Homestead Ranch in Wyoming during July and August. Events in the summer months included the William H. Wemmer's ranch party, the all-star women's golf tournament and the Columbus Club outing at Ulen Country Club, Lebanon.

A notable wedding of the summer was that of Miss Ellen Rogers to Javens Kahlo on Aug. 21.

Interest early in September centered about the Indiana State Fair House Show. On the 26th many of the local horsefolk attended the annual activities at Tudor Hall.
