

Local Residents Obey Spring Urge to Travel, Plan Trips for Summer

Organizations Prepare to Halt Activities Here Until Fall; Many Out-of-Town Visitors Are Entertained.

By VIRGINIA MOORHEAD MANNON

That the arrival of spring is a direct challenge to obey one's migratory impulses is indicated by the general shifting about of local population. Those not already on the wing are laying plans for summertime flights. A number of out-of-town visitors are being welcomed this week.

Dr. and Mrs. Leonard A. Ensminger have returned from a month's trip to Arizona and California. They spent three weeks at Tucson where they visited Dr. Ensminger's son, Robert Ensminger, a University of Arizona student. Mrs. Jack E. Haring, who has returned from an extended trip through the South and West, met Dr. and Mrs. Ensminger at Los Angeles and had luncheon at Waco, Tex., with Gen. and Mrs. L. R. Gienliat of Culver.

Mr. and Mrs. Thor G. Wessenberg will sail June 15 to spend the summer in England where they will visit friends and study at the British Museum. The Misses Nellie Armstrong and Margaret Donnell sailed today on the S. S. Queen Mary to spend three months abroad.

Miss Mary Wildhack, who has been studying dramatic art with Mme. Maria Ouspenskaya at New York, will go to Peterborough, N. H., next month to join the Peterborough Players for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyman S. Ayres, who are taking a trip to Bermuda, are expected to return the last of the month. Mrs. Paul H. White is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. White Jr. in Hollywood, Cal.

Several Parties Honor Mrs. G. A. Clapp

Several informal parties are being given this week in honor of Mrs. G. A. Clapp of Wellesley Hills, Mass., who is visiting Mrs. Horace Caldwell. Another popular visitor is Mrs. Charles Snyder of Pasadena, Cal., who is spending a month here with her sister, Mrs. C. Augustus Harms and Mr. Harms.

Mrs. John Graham of Piqua, O., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Stanley C. Brooks and her daughter, Miss Marjorie Graham. Mr. and Mrs. Brooks' daughter, Miss Dorothy Brooks, has left for Pinecliff Fishing Lodge, Basswood Lake, Minn., to stay until Oct. 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Holt and Mr. and Mrs. Hinkle Hays of Sullivan will go to Leland, Mich., Sunday, to spend several days at Mr. and Mrs. Holt's cottage. Mr. and Mrs. Frederick G. Appel will go to Leland, Mich., Sunday, to spend several days at Mr. and Mrs. Holt's cottage.

Mrs. John Latham of Miami Beach, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Hiram D. Keehn, has gone to New York. Mrs. May Houser who has also been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Keehn, has returned to her home at Washington, D. C.

Mrs. G. G. Stall and her sister, Mrs. E. M. Stevens of Montreal, Canada, will leave today for Dayton, Ohio, with their father, Mr. R. E. Niven. Dr. and Mrs. D. O. Kearby and their daughter, Miss Frances Kearby, who have been spending the winter at Tampa have returned.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Neal Thurston have returned from Yellow Springs, O., where they visited their son, Frederick Neal Thurston, who is a student at Antioch College.

Mrs. Hoke to Attend Junior League Parley

Mrs. Frank J. Hoke, Indianapolis Junior League president, and Mrs. Wilson Motherhead will attend the conference of the Association of Junior Leagues of America May 17 to 20 at Pittsburgh.

Mrs. Doris Haney Jones of Santa Monica, Cal., who has been spending a month here, has gone to Dallas, Tex. Other travelers include Mrs. Clemens O. Mueller, who has left to spend three weeks at New York; Mrs. John Gordon Kugler, who is spending a few days at Chicago, and Mrs. Wallace Barnes, who is also at Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. Donald Burge will go to Louisville Saturday.

A number of luncheon parties were given today following the morning bridge party at the Propylaeum. Guests of Mrs. Frederick Matson were Mesdames Walter H. Green, W. B. Rosseter, Lucius Walnwright, Ross Wallace, John C. Butler, Edwin T. Wood and Miss Juliet Bryan. Mrs. Edward Knight entertained Mrs. Frank L. Einfeld, Mrs. Arthur R. Brown and Mrs. Fred Gall. Mrs. Ward H. Dean, Mrs. Stanley C. Brooks and Mrs. J. H. P. Gauss were guests of Mrs. William Perry Hahn.

Clubs are rapidly winding up the year's activities and electing officers who will carry on in the fall. The Players Club will hold its annual business meeting, dinner and dance at Woodstock Club, May 27. The Dramatic Club will also hold its final meeting late this month. The Government Science Club will elect officers Friday at a meeting at the home of Mrs. Delos Allig. The annual meeting and election of officers and directors of the Indianapolis League of Women Voters will be held on May 25. The time and place of the meeting have not been set.

New members of the Indianapolis Woman's Club who will be honored at a reception at the Propylaeum June 3 at the club's last meeting of the year are the Misses Elsie Sinclair, Evelyn Chambers and Phyllis Strauss.

Mrs. Clarence Royce of Terre Haute reviewed a current play at the second of a series of four Wednesday morning lectures on modern plays and poetry today at the home of Mrs. Frederic M. Ayres.

Among Leaders at Garden Club of Indiana Convention

Arrangements of flowers were discussed and demonstrated by Mrs. Frank Garry, Cincinnati, at the judging school yesterday at the Hunters Lodge. The school is the first of its kind in the state. Mrs. Garry is Ohio Federation of Garden Clubs flower show chairman.

State Garden Club President Slated for Re-election Today

Mrs. Walter P. Morton, Indianapolis, was slated to be re-elected president of the Garden Club of Indiana this afternoon.

More than 500 delegates are attending the organization's seventh annual convention today at the Marriott Hotel.

Other officers expected to be elected are Mrs. J. N. Ritchey, Ft. Wayne, first vice president; Miss Marcelle Hayes, Muncie, second vice president; Mrs. H. B. Johnson, Mooresville, third vice president; Mrs. Rex P. Young, Indianapolis, secretary; Mrs. A. L. Young, Newcastles, treasurer, and Mrs. Victor E. Watkins, Muncie, Mrs. Frank Schick, Ft. Wayne, and Mrs. Fred Eichhorn, Gary, directors.

Mrs. E. C. Correll, Winamac, was nominations committee chairman. Assisting her were Mrs. Luther Thompson, Winamac, and Otto Carmichael, Muncie.

Mrs. O. W. Dwyne, National Council of State Garden Clubs president, spoke following the noon luncheon on "Leadership in the Garden Club Movement."

"Enthusiasm is the prime qualification of a garden club leader," Mrs. Dwyne said. "She must have inherited or acquired a talent for conservatism, not only in her judgment, but in her plans and conversation. She must never tell anything disclosed in confidence which might affect the cause she champions."

Qualifications Listed

Other qualifications are business ability, promptness, organization of thought and work, expedition, ability to ignore unpleasant details and stress pleasant ones, humor, and a sense of fair play that places credit where credit is due, according to Mrs. Dwyne. "The individual must remember that she is not as important as her circle of associates," she concluded.

Miss Julia Landers, representing the state highway commission, urged that the club appoint a committee to meet with the commission and discuss plans for roadside parks authorized by the 1937 State Legislature.

Mrs. E. C. Cline, Richmond, club highway beautification department head, was expected to be appointed committee chairman.

Mrs. Joseph L. Brewer, Grand Rapids, former central region vice president, was also a luncheon speaker.

The club this afternoon was expected to revise by-laws so that only half of the officers are elected each year. Lafayette was expected to extend an invitation to the club to meet there next year and to hold a horticulture school preceding the convention at Purdue University.

Delegates toured gardens of Dr. and Mrs. Morton, and Mesdames Ethel Charlotte, to Victor LeMar Rensberger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rensberger, Goshen.

The marriage was read Saturday by the Rev. Virgil D. Ragan in the Fairview Presbyterian Church, Muncie, Indianapolis.

The bride, who attended the Arthur Jordan Conservatory of Music in Indianapolis, is a member of Tri Kappa Sorority here.

Fraternities—Mrs. Alene Vey, Marion; Mrs. Nellie Johnson, Perryville, and Mrs. Louise Wolfe, Peru.

Publicity—Mesdames Lola Keenan, Ginn and Millie Gilmore, Indianapolis, and F. L. Huddleston, Evansburg.
