

32 Juniors Qualify for Match Play

John David Fires 148 to Set Pace in State Meet at West Lafayette.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., July 27 (U. P.).—Thirty-two golfers today began a three-day session of match play under a blazing sun on the West Lafayette Country Club course for the Indiana junior golf tournament championship.

One of the favorites to wind up with the title was husky John David, Indianapolis, who took medalist honors yesterday with a qualifying round of 148. The young Purdue University trail blazer holed a five-foot putt on the last green to edge out Dale Morey, Martinsville, and Alex Garbacz, South Bend, who came in with 149.

David added a 73 to his 75 for the first day's triad, chiefly by the power behind his long drives which started clicking on the incoming nine.

Tied in third position with 152s were Bob Hoffer, West Lafayette, and Jack Clements, Richmond. Match play, to go in five flights, will end with the finals Friday.

First round pairings and qualifying scores:

John David, Indianapolis (148), vs. Dink Gyransky, Dyer (150).
John Feltich, Hammond (157), vs. Don Elbel, South Bend (161).

Bill Davis, Dyer (158), vs. Wayne Clark, Evansville (161).

Roy Ballweg, Indianapolis (155), vs. Ray White, Indianapolis (161).
Bob Stafford, Fortville (158), vs. Steve Rose, Terre Haute (162).

Alex Garbacz, South Bend (149), vs. Bob Phillips, Indianapolis (159).
John Cooper, Kokomo (157), vs. Fred Tully, Franklin (161).

Bill McClure, Richmond (154), vs. Stanley Siler, South Bend (160).
