Stephen Chadwick, Seattle National Commander, American Legion, today paid his first visit to national headquarters here since his election last month.

ROCKHILL BURIAL WILL BE MONDAY

Raymond Rockhill, 330 E. Morris St., who died yesterday at the U. S. Veterans Hospital after a two-month's illness, is to be buried at Greencastle following funeral services there Monday. He was 41.

Born at Greencastle, Mr. Rockhill lived here 12 years. He was a member of the Garfield Post of the American Legion. He had served 13 months overseas during the World War, and spent four years with the U. S. Marines. He was a former employee of the Indianapolis Citizens Gas Co.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Eva Rockhill, two daughters, Misses Elizabeth and Cordelia Rockhill of Indianapolis; three sisters, Mrs. Conrad Shin of Lewis, Mrs. Joy Cummins of Fern, and Mrs. Lawrence Clifford of Belle Union, and four brothers, Gordon and Elbert Rockhill of Gary; Theodore Rockhill of Toledo, O., and Russell Rockhill of Fern.

LEHMAN AND DEWEY BEGIN VOTE DRIVE

NEW YORK, Oct. 7 (U. P.)—Governor Lehman and Thomas E. Dewey started active campaigning today for the governorship.

Mr. Dewey, the Republican candidate, opened his New York headquarters and makes a noon radio speech to a series of Republican women's luncheons over the State.

James A. Farley, state and national chairman, arrived to direct the Democratic campaign and expressed confidence in election of the entire Democratic ticket.

George Z. Medaille, who has guided Mr. Dewey politically during the last few years, was expected to be the New York prosecutor's campaign manager.

PARRAN PRAISES GROUP HEALTH

Calls it 'Logical Step'; Fishbein to Reply for A. M. A. Tonight.

CHICAGO, Oct. 7 (U. P.)—Dr. Thomas Parran, surgeon general, U. S. Public Health Service, said today that public health has become a people's cause and it appears to be 'both logical and desirable that the federal Government assume a larger responsibility for leadership in scientific research,' he said, 'the central government seems to be in a unique position in its ability to bring about co-ordination of effort by the best minds in a particular field of research . . . and to make available to all the additions to knowledge which each contributes.'

He spoke at the dedication of a research building of the Abbott Laboratories in suburban North Chicago. He praised highly the research work of cooperative clinical groups—center of a dispute between the Government and organized medicine. The Department of Justice announced recently that it will prosecute the American Med-
