LOOKING AHEAD—N. D. VS. GOPHERS
IT MAY BE GAME OF CENTURY

MINNESOTA fans have gobbled up 10,000 tickets for their team's tilt with Notre Dame at South Bend Nov. 12. . . . If both teams come up to that tussle undefeated and untied, try and get in! . . . The Irish meet the Army and the Navy, and the Gophers tackle Northwestern and Iowa before coming together.

Charlie Hopson, Carthage College quarterback, got his name in the record book by running 103 yards for a touchdown against Elmhurst. . . . He intercepted a pass in the end zone and took off to the promised land and made it.

A touchdown in 10 seconds. . . . Even before ye olde grad finished gurgling the first nip. . . . It happened at Galesburg, Ill., Saturday when Jack Griffin of Beloit caught the opening kickoff and streaked 90 yards to score. . . . The 10-second sprint spoiled the home-coming for Knox. . . . Beloit won, 6 to 0.

DURING the several years Fritz Crisler was head coach at Princeton, none of his teams ever won a game in Yale Bowl. . . . Michigan shattered the jinx by winning for him Saturday, 15-13. . . . A little two-point safety tallied early in the game was worth just as much as a touchdown at the finish, Michigan winning by that margin.

Tom Harmon, the Hoosier, increased his prestige toward becoming a second Red Grange by going to town as the Wolverines came f.i.m. behind.

While Northwestern throttled Illinois the Wildcats had to think of the Golden Gophers who were loafing and resting for next Saturday's big battle at Evanston.

WHILE the wind was blowing colorful fall foliage off the trees and shrubbery in Monroe County it also blew a kiss to Kansas State and caused Bo McMillin of Indiana to sprout another handful of gray hair.

Like the Chicago Cubs in the World Series, the Hoosiers forgot to gauge a stiff breeze and donated a touchdown to the burly, green-shirted boys from the Sunflower state. . . . Indiana looked a bit out of step in its home-coming game, otherwise it was a grand day down Bloomington way as the university entertained 50,000 Boy Scouts and high school pupils.

And don't forget that Indiana scored a touchdown, its first of the season. . . . Maybe the Crimson will go on from here.

DAVEY O'BRIEN, Texas Christian star, the little man with the accurate arm, tossed seven straight completed passes which figured in two touchdowns against Marquette. . . . Sign him! Ernie Laine, Rice's All-American candidate, probably will lose out in the selections. . . . He injured his ankle seriously Saturday and is expected to be out of play for several weeks.

They said it with fists in the Southern California-Stanford jamboree. . . . Two players were banished for trading punches and another melee was broken up before the officials spotted the participants.

NAVY will mark the 50th anniversary of the start of football relations with Pennsylvania with the game at Philadelphia Saturday. . . . Twenty-four games have been played, of which Pennsylvania has won 12 and Navy 10, with two draws.

In 1888 Pennsylvania sent a team to Annapolis which defeated Navy, 20 to 9. . . . Including 1900, six games had been played, all won by the Quakers. . . . In 1901 and 1902 the Middies won.

The modern series began in 1914 and includes 16 games, Navy winning eight and Pennsylvania six, with two ties. . . . A Navy victory last year would have placed the teams on even terms, but Penn won, 14 to 7.

KLOTOVICH PACES ST. MARY'S VICTORY

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 24 (U. A few moments later, Klotovich followed with a 46-yard sprint down the sidelines for the Gaels' second touchdown.

PALUMBO BRILLIANT BUT VILLANOVA WINS

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 24 (U. P.).—Two long touchdowns runs gave Villanova the football team a 13-6 victory over the University of Detroit yesterday. Carnegie Coach Berates Official in N. D. Tussle Pittsburgh, Oct. 24 (U. P.).

Coach Bill Kern of Carnegie Tech today described as "the biggest bonehead I ever saw pulled by any official" an alleged mistake by Referee John Getchell in telling Tech players they were on in the final period of the fourth down in the final period of the Tech-Notre Dame game Saturday.

"It most certainly meant defeat for us when Getchell told Quarterback Friedlander it was third down—when really it was fourth," Kern said.

"He was on our boys all afternoon, as a matter of fact, and then he had to cap his general tactics with booting a decision a high school boy wouldn't have been guilty of."

SAUER AND WORDEN WIN BIKE EVENTS

Dick Sauer won the 12-mile event for racing bikes and James Worden was first in the 12-mile event for stock bikes in the races held yesterday at Brookside Park. Complete results:

IT'S 'PORE LITTLE BOYS' AGAIN AT I. U.

Byelene Paces Boilermakers; Scots Bow to Notre Dame

Bo's Hoosiers Find Kansas State Too Tough; Butler Roms Over Wesleyan as Evansville and Franklin Win.

So help me Jupiter, the rules committee and all the tears of football, we'd vowed that all during the season we'd never quote Bo McMillin on his "pore little boys."

But today that Crimmon is a Bloomington bluish both to Indiana's alumni and to the old Centre wizard with the sting of three setbacks and a tie, the latest a 13 to 6 push by the not-so-kittish Wildcats of Kansas State in a home-coming show. They are "pore little boys."

Meanwhile, the feeling on the campuses of Indiana's other Big Three members today was as brisk and as invigorating as an autumn day in the hills of Brown County. Paced by the grace of Mike Byelene and a powerful charging line, stuck its nose out for a whiff of Big Ten leadership after a 13-to-7 triumph over the Irish Badgers of Wisconsin.

Notre Dame's Irish fumbled and fumbled, but in spite of the muffs they whipped the Carnegie Tech jinx, 7 to 0, for penance.

Who's going to stop them? Maybe the Gophers, but we still have great faith in the expression, "You can't beat the Irish."

Shiach, no doubt, had a toe ache today, for it was the young man's failure to boot the point after touchdown which gave the Spartans of Manchester a 7-to-6 edge over the snarling DePaul Tigers in a game which brought the old grads back to Greencastle.

Byelene Paces, Runs to Triumph

It was a peculiar situation up there at Ross-Ade Stadium. There was Mal Elward with a Purdue ball club. There was the silent Harry Stuhldreher with an abundance of Wisconsin Badger.

Elward was a teammate of Knute Rockne. The Badgers are taught by the immortal Rock's finest quarterback.

If you'd have seen the Wisconsin boys here in Indianapolis and on the field you'd have wanted your kid to be like Knute Rockne, a young man of youth—youth—yet soft and gentlemanly in manner and speech.

"Was he who took the Purdue chips in the first quarter after Lou Brock, the Boilermakers' big river, had muffed one on his own 23. Weiss wedged over. And the Purdue band was silent. Lynn Howland placekicked it and it looked right there like a Wisconsin day.

Everything might have been all right for Wisconsin, but Mr. Elward stuck his hand in his top pocket and the name that was on the ticket he pulled out was Mike Byelene. It looked like a routine substitution, but Michael had his own ambitions. We're in the third quarter now. Dynamite Mike welded the Boilermakers together. He limbered up his pitching arm with two practice tosses, both of which were good. Then he aimed a third one at Jack Krause, who traveled 19 yards for a touchdown. Brock kicked the point to deadlock the argument.

Totes Pigskin

73 Yards, Scores

Byelene gave way to Brock and it wasn't until the last eight minutes of play that the sophomore star returned to the green. His passes touched the Badger defense and his scampering was Wisconsin woe. Then he broke loose and sidestepped his way around the blond Weiss and the belligerent Roy Bellin 73 yards for a touchdown!

Remember, there used to be some sort of an expression about Clara Bow having it? Well, Michael Byelene has a corner on the IT market right now.

He carried the shiny leather seven times and gained 91 yards for the touchdown. He also kicked the point. A few moments later, Klotovich followed with a 46-yard sprint down the sidelines for the Gaels' second touchdown.

Despite the apparent ruggedness and stamina of the north country boys, Purdue was sturdier. The Boilermakers had a more sustained drive, more ability to last in a tough lift. The Badgers really were tired.

It was another game in which the losers won the statistics. Wisconsin gained 177 yards from rushing, Purdue 154. Passes yielded the Badgers 40 yards, and Purdue one more.

The fumbles were four to two against the guests.

Ed Harris seems worthy of Elward's pre-season salute that he's one of the country's best blockers. And a plug is due Joe Mihal and Paul Humphrey. On Purdue's offense you can't skip a dark horse by the name of Leon DeWitte. Listed among Purdue's greats, too, is Jack Brown, the halfback from right here in State House Town.

Crimson Still Victory Hungry

From all reports, it was worth the trip to watch Indiana go down, 13 to 6, before Kansas State.

There was one compensation for the home-coming Hoosiers. Their team ended the season of touchdowns. Paul Graham did that.

Kansas State, which Bo-Woe used to coach, was alert in the air and on the ground. But even so, there wasn't anything fancy about its triumph.

Aerial warfare was significant in the Wildcat victory. The first touchdown came in the second quarter when substitute Melvin Seelye fed the ball to Don Munzer, who evaded the Hoosier defense and scored.

Another Brock, first name Jim, kicked for a single.

Elmer Hackney, 19 and tough, could have stayed home, as far as the Indiana alumni were concerned. He had a lot to do with messing up their party. "One Man Gang" they call him and he didn't make a fibber of the guy who plastered him with that monkey.

The Kansas State winning touchdown painted the scoreboard in the third quarter. Jack Blake, on a reverse from Bob Briggs, twirled around his right end and crossed the goal line standing up—aggravation, aggravation.

Indiana's first touchdown taste of the season.

the autumn came in the fourth period. Veteran Vincent Oliver started the rally by taking Joe Nicholson's pass and sprinting 37 yards to the fourth quarter. That Graham caught Nicholson's outshoot and crossed the payoff line. Nicholson erred on the point kick.

Irish Have Tough Schedule Ahead

Since the canny Scots couldn't do it, Notre Dame is shining like its Golden Dome and strengthening its bid for a national title.

The Army is next. Then the Navy. And then Minnesota and Northwestern. Then to the Golden West they go to meet Southern California.

A fourth quarter touchdown saved Layden's legions last Saturday midst argument and a talk to Notre Dame team.

Substitute Willie Kerr entered the hero's role when he went across on an end-around. Third Stringer Morrison kicked the point. That was Notre Dame's only scoring opportunity, and they took advantage of it.

Imagine such a fight? Tartans, six first downs, Notre Dame only four.

DePaul's Tigers kick worrying about Manchester upsetting them and dug in today for the University of Chicago at Stagg Field next Saturday. Don't be surprised if the Tiger chews off a piece of Big Ten stuff.

It was a romp for Butler over Evansville. The Batting Bishops of Ohio Wesleyan, 35 to 0. Poor Washburn lost another, 13 to 2, to Franklin.

Central Normal broke the ice and held DePaul, O., to a 7-to-7 tie.

Evansville's Purple Aces won the pot again. Earlham lost it, 7 to 0. Valparaiso out-toughened Indianapolis, 34 to 20, and Rose Poly went over to Alton, Ill., and topped Sturteiff, 12 to 0.

St. Joseph's must have been holding back. They shot the works and held Ball State even at 13 to 13.

Isbell, Davis Star for Pros

NEW YORK, Oct. 24 (U. P.).—The man of the hour in professional football today was Art Lewis, who has shoved into one of the toughest spots in the National League a month ago as coach of the disorganized Cleveland Rams.

Cleveland had lost its first three games, including an unmerciful 37-13 licking from the champion Washington Redskins, who have a leading rushing and kicking back, replaced the venerable Hugo Bezdek. With a little magic and a lot of hard work Lewis whipped Cleveland into a team which today had a fighting chance to win the league's Western division championship.

The Rams crowned their comeback yesterday with a sensational 23-21 victory over the league-leading Chicago Bears at Wrigley Field.

Corby Davis, ex-Indiana fullback, plunked over the Rams' winning score in the last few minutes of play.

Isbell Leads Attack

Green Bay moved into the Western division lead by defeating Pittsburgh, 20-0. Cecil Isbell, the Texan from Purdue, led the Packers to victory with his running and passing. He dashed 37 yards to Green Bay's first score and was a leading factor in an air attack that netted 150 yards.

The Detroit Lions held third place by winning a hard-fought, 10-0 victory over the Chicago Cardinals.

The champion Washington Redskins maintained their lead in the Eastern division by outscoring the Philadelphia Eagles, 20-14.

Playing their best game of the season the New York Giants remained on the heels of the Redskins by scoring a 28-14 victory over the Brooklyn Dodgers.

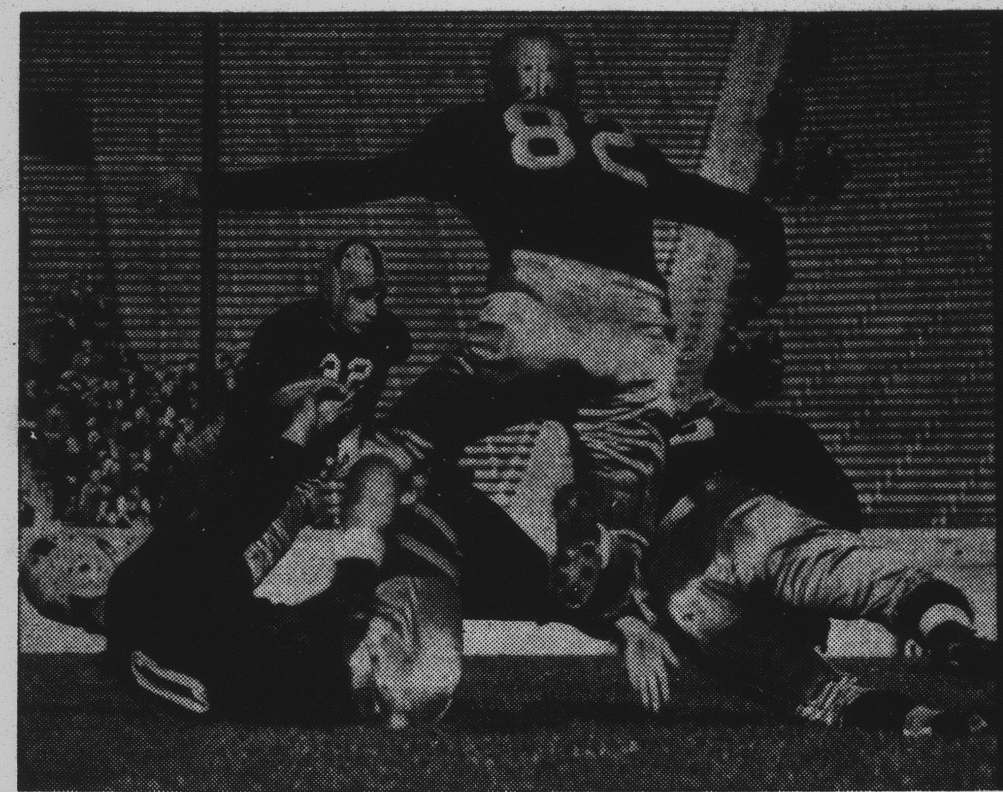

A total of 114,145 persons saw the five games, with the largest crowd, 36,228, at the Giants-Dodgers game. Other crowds were: At Washington, 30,000; at Chicago, 18,000; at Detroit, 17,917; at Green Bay, 12,000.

MILLER AND RODAK SEEK TITLE RATING

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24 (U. P.).—Freddie Miller of Cincinnati and Leo Rodak of Chicago meet tonight in a fight that will have an important bearing on the featherweight championship.

The winner will challenge Joe Archibald for the title. If Archibald falls to accept himself, observers believe the National Boxing Association would be forced to recognize the challenger as champion.

The New York State Boxing commission recognizes Archibald as champion. The N. B. A., however, rates him third, behind Rodak and

After a scoreless three quarters, Notre Dame started down the field to score and beat Carnegie Tech, 7 to 0. Stevenson of Notre Dame is shown making a three-yard gain through the line in the first quarter with Striegel (82) of Carnegie, who made the tackle, hurdling two Irish blockers.
