* * * One of the most serious errors in sleeping is to lie on the abdomen with the head turned to either side, he said, adding that the pillow is "a valuable aid to comfort and relaxation during sleep."

* * * Another prevalent idea is that modern overstuffed furniture is an aid to health," he said. "It has done an incalculable amount of harm to the lower part of the back."

* * * Lieut. Gov. Henry F. Schreiber delivered the address of welcome this morning and Dr. Harry K. McIlroy, Indianapolis, member of the State Board of Medical Registration and Examination, responded. A business meeting followed.

Migraine headaches are frequently caused by hardwood floors, cement sidewalks and spiked heels, Dr. C. Bader, Chicago, said yesterday.

* * * Our ancestors wore moccasins, walked and did their work upon the soft ground. As a consequence, they seldom suffered from headache," he said. "Now constant jarring and jolting force vertebrae out of position, sets up tension and causes headaches."

Dr. Bader is dean of the National College of Chiropractic at Chicago.

In a morning business session opening the convention yesterday, a committee was named to study the group's action on socialized medicine. Members are Dr. J. F. Kaiser, Columbus; Dr. C. W. Sharp, Indianapolis; Dr. W. E. Simmonds, Michigan City, and Dr. C. W. McGinness, Evansville.
