

PARTIES POINT TO '40 IN DRIVE FOR LOCAL RULE

Other Issues Secondary in Indiana Municipal Vote Contests.

By LEONARD CASTLE
United Press Staff Correspondent

An accepted political axiom is that the ultimate strength of any political organization rests in its lowest units—the precincts and municipalities.

And so both major political parties naturally are bending every effort this fall to gain control of Indiana cities and towns.

A state-wide survey completed today by the United Press discloses that many local issues cloud the picture in the state's 20 largest cities, but from this emerges one salient fact—that each party is looking toward the Presidential election of 1940 and attempting to obtain control of the municipalities.

Indiana's municipal elections this year have such issues as: gambling, vice and corruption (these are particularly noticeable in Indianapolis, Kokomo, Terre Haute, Jeffersonville, New Albany, South Bend, Muncie and Gary); public utilities (Huntington, Logansport and Goshen); municipal expenditures (Ft. Wayne and Elkhart); the New Deal and WPA and several others.

Starting at random to discuss individual cities, it is found that in Hammond, the New Deal and WPA are playing a principal part in the campaign of Democratic Mayor Frank R. Martin for re-election over his Republican opponent, Roscoe Hemstock.

Mr. Martin was quoted as a 3-to-1 favorite because he was a "Roosevelt before Chicago, 1932" man and has succeeded in obtaining $2,000,000 in PWA funds for construction of three new schools and a $600,000 civic center in addition to getting the PWA to earmark $1,400,000 for a new sewage disposal plant.

Muncie Lists Challenged

Mr. Hemstock's supporters are basing their hopes on: 1, the garbage collection problem which they claim Mr. Martin has not solved; 2, the tax rate increase, which has gone from 84 cents to $1.04; 3, opposition from a Democratic faction headed by Charles Baran; 4, some of Mr. Martin's municipal appointments; 5, a united G. O. P. front for the first time in several years; and 6, the presence of two Hammond Republicans on the County ticket.

At Muncie, one of the city's most bitter campaigns is drawing to a close as the Republican organization challenges the voting rights of 9074 registered voters. The G. O. P. claims that the registration lists include many persons who are dead or have moved from the city or into another precinct.

Organized labor is taking an active part in the campaign, with the C. I. O. and most of the A. F. of L. lining up behind Democratic Mayor Rollin H. Bunch. Ira J. Wilson, the Republican candidate, is claiming some labor support, however.

In addition to the Republicans, Mr. Bunch is being opposed by a disgruntled group of former Democrats.

Bangs Forms Own Party

Mayor Clair W. H. Bangs, who was defeated for renomination by the Republicans, provides the color in Huntington's three-cornered mayoralty race although he is accorded little chance to win. Mr. Bangs, who spent several months in his own jail for violating court orders while fighting a private utility, organized the Citizens Party when he lost out in the primary.

Foster E. Cutshall won the Republican nomination from Mayor Bangs. Ray L. Ditzler is the Democratic candidate. Mayor Bangs has promised to continue his fight to obtain a municipally owned utility if he is re-elected.

Democratic candidates at Richmond, headed by Mayor Joseph Waltermann, are boasting of a reduced tax rate, numerous City improvements and salary boosts for City employees. John Britten, Republican nominee for Mayor, maintains, however, that these would not have been possible without dividends amounting to $315,000 annually from the City light plant.

The Richmond Council races assume importance because of a fight to raise the City's share for a proposed $227,000 gymnasium-auditorium. Present City officials are considering having the light plant take up bonds for this purpose.

Democrats Plan Parade To Precede Mass Meeting; Women's Head to Speak

Cox Charges Wolff Lauded, Then Threatened to Oust
Chief Morrissey; Townsend Cites New Deal
Farm Aid; VanNuys Talks Friday.

Democratic leaders made preparations today for a downtown parade tomorrow night preceding a major mass meeting at Cadle Tabernacle. The principal speaker will be Mrs. Dorothy McAllister, Washington, D. C., director of the Women's Division of the National Democratic Committee. Others will be Reginald H. Sullivan, Democratic mayoralty candidate; Circuit Court Judge Earl R. Cox and James E. Deery.

A mass meeting is scheduled for tonight at the Softball Stadium at Minnesota, St. and Belmont Ave., with Mr. Sullivan and Mr. Cox will be the principal speakers.

Democratic headquarters today issued a statement asserting that the "only public record, made by Herman C. Wolff, Republican mayoral candidate, is his handling of insurance for the City schools."

"In 1934, Mr. Wolff was vice chairman of the Citizens School Committee and he announced he would make a survey of the insurance carried on school property. He made that survey and has been handling the school insurance since that time," the statement said.

Mr. Wolff could not be reached for comment on the statement, but on other occasions he has said that his record was "open for inspection."

Other Meetings Listed

Democratic meetings tonight besides the rally at the Softball Stadium include:

Charges Wolff Lauded,
Threatened to Oust Chief

Circuit Court Judge Earl R. Cox last night, in an address at 5512 E. Washington St., charged that Herman C. Wolff, Republican candidate for mayor, "early this year told Police Chief Morrissey that he was the best chief Indianapolis ever had," and now promises to fire him Monday night.

"Can Mr. Wolff," he said, "who apparently is running for City Manager instead of Mayor, explain his sudden reversal and decision to oust the man he praised without reservation?"

"Mr. Wolff would have you believe he is going to maintain the merit system in the city administration if he is elected. Yet he has turned on the one man in that administration whose record of service drew his unqualified endorsement."

"A Lot of Us Agree"

"Mr. Wolff would have you believe he is no politician. A lot of us will agree with him in that. But when he attempts to pose as one

Progress Toward Stability
Claimed by Minton

MICHIGAN CITY, Nov. 2.—Government, business and labor are co-operating and making definite progress against economic instability, U. S. Senator Minton declared at a Democratic rally here last night.

Claiming that all basic industries have profited through the Federal Government's purchase of materials for the recovery program, he said: "Government has co-operated with business by making direct loans to small firms, by aid to the wheel in your hand has a fine and friendly feel—the treadle under your foot is a pressing invitation to travel.

When the fellow ahead of you sees you looming up in his mirror he's going to give you room. He knows you mean business, knows you have what it takes to go round him!"

For this stunning new 1939 Buick is first of all an action car, a standout performer—mobile as quicksilver, a honey to drive.

You look out through windows deeper all around—through as much as 413 added square inches of safety glass.

You spot your path ahead through a windshield that's higher, over a bonnet that's lower, past slender cornerposts well out of eye-way.

You can see—see the whole passing show. Scenery begins to mean something more than just a view of the tree-tops.

You've got a front-porch view of the whole wide world—that sitting-in-a-bathtub feeling's gone!

And that's just one of the things we were after when we planned this sensational new Buick. Better aerodynamics was another. So was the highly effective "catwalk-cooling" practiced on Europe's high-speed racing cars.

It's because our designers achieved these without straining for effect or seeking freakish fashion that the new Buick's the beauty it so patently is.

A beauty to look upon—a beauty to look out of.

banks, by the operation of the relief and recovery programs and by a long-term, low-interest policy. "The Reconstruction Finance Corp. has authorized loans totaling $234 million dollars and the Federal Reserve banks have approved loans totaling $161 million to small business."

"Banks have been aided by RFC purchases of preferred stock, capital notes and debentures which have totaled one billion, 78 million dollars. Guaranteed bank deposits have further increased the stability of banking."

New Deal Aid to Farmers
Praised by Townsend

BROOKVILLE, Nov. 2.—The Democratic party has permitted farmers to get together with the help of the Government to conserve and make a profit out of the soil, Governor Townsend told a meeting of farmers here today.

"Farmers who could not as individuals operate to enrich the soil have been enabled to work with neighbors toward this end," he said. "Poor areas are now being restored to full fertility and the bread basket of America is in no danger of disappearing."

Pointing out that much of the national agricultural wealth comes from the "top six inches" of the soil, the Governor asserted that it had been wasted away because "farmers were forced to produce more and more in a desperate race with falling prices to make an income."

Charges Mud-Slinging

"The thinking people of this community have not been fooled by the campaign of deception, of inconsistency, and of the vile mud-slinging that has been conducted by the Republican leaders in Marion County. Do our people want their government turned over to that type of public officials? If they can't use their heads in a campaign, what do you think would happen to them under the terrific responsibilities of government?"

"The Republicans are getting angrier every day because they have been unable to turn the Democratic candidate into the wild, floundering type of campaign that they are conducting. They are saying we can't answer the charges they are making. Well, we can't. They are so silly we can't take cognizance of them without making ourselves look foolish."

Manion Defends
New Deal Spending

ELKHART, Nov. 2.—Clarence Manion, Indiana director of the National Emergency Council, today asserted that the expenditures of the Roosevelt Administration had added no more to the national indebtedness than was added by the single presidential administration of Herbert Hoover.

In an address here last night, Mr. Manion asserted that when the two billion dollar soldiers' bonus and the amount of New Deal expenditures now secured by mortgages on the farms, homes and business properties of the country are subtracted from the sum total of the New Deal expenditures about "six billion dollars is all that is left."

Hanna Lauds Democratic Services to Indiana

LAPEL, Nov. 2.—Ralph Hanna, public counselor for the Public Service Commission, today had cited the State's co-operation with the Federal Social Security program, reductions in utility rates and mediation services of the State Labor Division as outstanding services of the Democratic Party in Indiana.

Mr. Hanna addressed a rally here last night. He cited a 26 per cent reduction in traffic deaths under the Administration's safety program.

VETERAN GENERAL DEAD

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 2 (U. P.)—Ninth Corps Area headquarters announced today that funeral services with full military honors will be held tomorrow for Maj. Gen. George S. Simonds. Gen. Simonds died yesterday. He was a veteran of the Philippine Insurrection, the Boxer Rebellion and one of the ablest officers of the American forces in the World War.

SON RETURNS, MOTHER DIES

DETROIT, Nov. 2 (U. P.)—The joy of having her son return from a four-year enlistment in the Navy was too great for Mrs. Florence Nernberger's heart. Mrs. Nernberger died yesterday at the age of 82. Her son, Barnard Cogins, 22, returned.

When night mists cleared today, there was a goat on the St. Vincent's Hospital grounds. Some one called police.

"There's a goat out here."

"What's it doing?"

"Well, sometimes it eats grass and sometimes it doesn't."

"Billy or Nanny?"

"We just don't know."

"Where is it now?"

"Well, some one tied it to a tree."

"We'll be right out."
