Today's Pattern

Plaids are smart! So the piquant design in Pattern 8340 is doubly smart. This is a practical fashion, for school or business, because several blouses, plus one suspender skirt, provide an easy and inexpensive way to have many workaday changes. The blouse has an appealing little round collar; the skirt has a nice flare to it. Both are almost ridiculously easy to make.

Pattern No. 8340 is designed for sizes 12, 14, 16, 18 and 20. Size 14 requires 2 1/4 yards of 39-inch material for the blouse with long sleeves; 1 1/2 yards for short sleeved blouse; 1 1/2 yards of 54-inch material for the skirt.

To obtain the pattern and step-by-step sewing instructions include 15 cents in coin together with the above pattern number and your size, your name and address and mail to Pattern Editor, The Indianapolis Times, 214 W. Maryland St., Indianapolis, Ind.

Tangerines Add Gaiety To Holidays

They Also Are Good Source of Vitamin C; 2 Recipes Given.

By MRS. GAYNOR MADDOX
The first tangerines come to town with the first of November. Their gay color is a sign of approaching holidays, for they seem a part of Thanksgiving and Christmas gaiety. They are a citrus fruit, therefore an excellent source of Vitamin C, and are said to be a good source of calcium.

Quick Tangerine Jam
Two cups tangerine pulp and juice, 1 lemon pulp and juice, 1 teaspoon grated tangerine rind, 1 1/2 cups sugar.
Remove seeds from tangerine pulp and juice. Combine ingredients. Boil rapidly 10 minutes or until clear. Delicious with cream cheese for nut bread sandwiches.

Tangerine Rolls
(About 3 dozen)
One cake yeast, 8 tablespoons sugar, 2 eggs, 6 tablespoons butter, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 1/2 tablespoons grated tangerine rind, 4 cups flour, 1 cup milk, 3 tangerines.
Crumble yeast, add 1 tablespoon of the sugar and stir until it becomes a thin mixture. Add 4 more tablespoons sugar, well beaten eggs, 4 tablespoons melted butter and tangerine rind.

Scald milk, cool until lukewarm, add alternately with flour to above mixture. Stir well and make a stiff mixture. Turn on board, knead lightly. Let stand in a warm place and rise until double in bulk; knead down and let rise again.

Roll dough 1/4-inch thick and cut with a small cutter. Make a crease through center, brush top with remainder of melted butter. Peel tangerines and carefully remove sections, place one section which has been rolled in remainder of sugar in the center of each roll.
Fold roll over and let rise until light. Bake 20 minutes in hot oven 400 degrees F.
