

U. S. College Women Dress Better Than Britons, Tutor Says

Miss Elizabeth Drew to Address Eight Alumnae Clubs Tonight; George T. O'Conners, Wed 25 Years, Plan Open House.

By VIRGINIA MOORHEAD MANNON

Miss Elizabeth Drew, who reads with melodious English accents the poetry about which she writes so conversantly, is renewing some old acquaintances here. The slim young exponent of the British literati, who tutors and lectures at Cambridge University, will discuss "Jane Austen and Her Times" before alumnae of eight women's colleges and their guests tonight at the Indiana War Memorial Auditorium.

In the audience will be Mr. and Mrs. Thor Griffith Wessenberg, whom Miss Drew is visiting; Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell Coppel, Mrs. Henry H. Hornbrook, the Misses Helen and Esther Thornton, Olive Traylor, Evelyn Kletzing and Pearl Apland, all of whom Miss Drew has entertained in England and to whom she has lectured there.

She is the author of "The Modern World," "Discovering Poetry," "Discovering Drama" and the soon to be published "Directions in Modern Writing." In her honor the Bryn Mawr, Vassar, Smith, Wellesley, Mount Holyoke, Barnard, Radcliffe and Goucher College Clubs are for the first time holding a joint guest meeting. Miss Drew, who is making her 10th tour of the U. S., has visited 100 universities and colleges.

English Girls Work Harder, She Believes

Miss Drew's observations on English and American systems of higher education reveal that "American college girls dress much better, use considerably more makeup and don't work as hard as girls in English colleges. We specialize more in England while American students do much more in the way of extracurricular activities."

In England all education is aimed at a exceptional student, whereas here it's for the average, she said. "Everyone who goes to college in England will use his training afterward to earn his living. In the final analysis it's the aristocratic versus the democratic system."

In discussing modern poetry, Miss Drew declared the best poems of "the present age of disillusionment and disillusion in literature" are those of William Butler Yeats. "They bring the whole soul of man into objectivity." She considers T. S. Eliot's "Wasteland," which carries the idea of the parched personality that cannot find water to satisfy it, "the most important literary landmark of the postwar era. Eliot and his disciples dislocate language from themselves completely," she explained. "The basis of their poetry is the use of words in emotional and associational rather than logical sequence."

Two Bride-Elects to Be Guests

Miss Ruth Zinn will give a luncheon today for Miss Peggy Ann Pearson, whose marriage to Richard Henry Dickson Jr. will take place Dec. 10 at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Pearson. Guests will include Mesdames John S. Pearson Jr., Guernsey Van Riper Jr., Ronald Woodward and Mrs. Robert Sheldon Zinn of Bolivar, Mo., who is visiting Miss Zinn; the Misses Helene Petri, Esther Jane Throckmorton, Katherine Fulton and Johnnie Discotte.

Mrs. Lyman G. Hunter and Mrs. Ralph B. Coble will have a bridge party this evening at Mrs. Hunter's home for Misses Jean Hennessy, whose marriage to William L. Fortune will take place at 4:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the Indianapolis Athletic Club. Miss Hennessy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Hennessy and Mr. Fortune is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Fortune. Guests tonight will include Mesdames Arthur Holt, William Skinner, John Feser, Robert Jackson, E. Paul Fischer and Mrs. Edward Huston, and the Misses Barbara Jean Holt, Marjorie Case, Barbara Zeile, Jane Pfeiffer, Helen Dauner, Betty Wysong, Marjorie Henris, Jean Hanley, Ronny O'Neill, Magdelene Adams and Mary Koehler.

Mr. and Mrs. O. T. O'Conner will celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary at an open house at 6 o'clock this evening. Among the out-of-town guests will be Mrs. John Decker, Detroit; Charles Mattingly and Miss Kathleen Mattingly of Lachmont, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rose, South Bend, and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Clare, Terre Haute.

Mr. and Mrs. Ola Fred Heslar will leave tomorrow for their annual hunting trip to Lynneville, Tenn. They expect to remain a month.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel B. Sutphin will give a tea for Traders Point Hunt members following the drag hunt Saturday afternoon.

The Players Club will hold a dress rehearsal Friday evening at the Civic Theater for the two one-act plays to be presented at the season's opening performance Saturday evening.

Parties Planned for Brides; Several Name Attendants

The number of parties for Thanksgiving and post-Thanksgiving brides was increasing today as the day of their weddings drew near. Meanwhile several young women announced their attendants.

Miss Violet Taylor will be Miss

Virginia Taylor's maid of honor when she is married Thanksgiving Day to Gerald Sanders. They are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Taylor, 2306 Rockle St.

Miss Margaret Donnelly and Miss Betty Kay Davis, a niece of the bride-to-be, will be bridesmaids. Leonard Sanders, St. Louis, will be his brother's best man, and Harry Klinedinst and Vincent Sanders, also of St. Louis, will usher.

Miss Mary Carr will entertain tonight at her home, 4306 Park Ave., with a miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Margaret Mitchell, whose marriage to Jewel Floyd, Raleigh, N. C., will take place Nov. 26.

Guests will include Misses Cressida Fritz, Helen Meyer, Catherine Finneran, Margaret Weadick, Anna Pfortner, Dorothy Hamilton and Esther Woodcock and Mesdames Clotilda Mitchell, Foster Mitchell, Paul McGowan, Gordon Stillwell and Larry Wilberding. The hostess will be assisted by her mother, Mrs. John Carr.

Miss Marie Whitlow will be Miss Oscar Elizabeth Patrick's only attendant when she is married Thanksgiving morning to Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bonowski, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bonowski, 1409 Castle Ave., it was announced today. August Mueller is to be best man. The bride-to-be was third in the fine harness stake, third in the mare class and fifth in the five-gaited stake.

Miss Hyatt Wins

Miss Dorothy Metzger's Patrick Dare, shown by Mrs. Alex Metzger and Miss Joan Metzger, was second in the ladies' class, second in the three-gaited combination and third in the 15 hands class.

Miss Marylou Hyatt won the horsemanship class for children riding ponies. Her pony, Modernistic, was best in the pony combination and second in the pony class. Robert McNamara Debonair was second in the pony combination and third in the pony class.

Aliza Lee Dare, Miss Ethel Miller's entry, took second place in the five-gaited combination, third in the amateur class and fourth in the five-gaited mare class.

Dr. Bonham's Rides

Miss Lucy Kaufman's Mt. Adams, ridden by Dr. P. O. Bonham, took the blue ribbon in the open harness class, was third in the middle weight and lightweight hunters' class, fourth in the ladies' harness class and fourth in the touch and out.

Dr. Bonham's Gray Dawn won the heavyweight hunters' event and the touch and out. White oak, owned by George Sadler and ridden by Dr. Bonham, was second in the hunters and jumpers' stake and third in the touch and out. Fred Sharp's Gray Knight was second in the heavyweight hunters' event and second in the ladies' harness class.

Misses Noe and Mansfield entered last night at the home of the latter, 4408 Park Ave., with a miscellaneous shower for Miss Carter. Appointments were in the bridal colors, dusty rose and royal blue.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. Schmitt

Five Fall Brides at Home in Indianapolis

Kindred Photo.
Mrs. Ralph W. Everly was Miss Ruth Black before her marriage Oct. 28. The bride is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. C. S. Black, Brownstown. The couple is at home at 2102 N. Meridian St.

Voorhis Photo.
Miss Elinor Louise Stahl became the bride of William E. Bevan in a ceremony read Oct. 15 at the St. Joan of Arc Catholic Church. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee F. Stahl.

Holland Photo.
Mrs. Max Walther was Miss Marie Faubion before her recent marriage at the Centenary Christian Church. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Urias Faubion, 26 N. Denny St.

Plowman-Platt Photo.
In a recent ceremony read at the Zion Evangelical Church, Miss May Louise Roessner became the bride of Frank Steinbrugge Jr. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roessner.

Plowman-Platt Photo.
Mrs. John H. Leane was Miss Kathryn Gish, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Gish, 607 N. Emerson Ave., before her recent marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Leane are at home at 2305 College Ave.

Betty Reed to Become Bride Of Robert E. Sweeney Jr. In Attractive Wedding Today

One of the most attractive weddings of the season will be at 4:30 p. m. today when Miss Betty Reed, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Jewett V. Reed, Kessler Blvd., becomes the bride of Robert E. Sweeney Jr. at the Read home.

Mr. Sweeney is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Sweeney, 3157 Washington Blvd.

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Raymond R. Noll will read the single-ring ceremony. The bride will descend a smilax-entwined stairway, with a standard of white chrysanthemums with yellow accents at the base. On each side of the entrance will be two white columns with white chrysanthemums and greenery. The aisle to the altar will be marked by four plume-shaped standards topped by colonial bouquets of assorted flowers.

The bride is to wear a candlelight satin gown fashioned with a V-neck, a row of buttons down the back, and sleeves full at the shoulders, tapering to a point over the wrist. The full skirt is to fall into a short train. Her fingertip train is to be caught with a cap of orange blossoms.

Flower-Banked Altar

Her bouquet is to be a round arrangement of white orchids, white camellias and lilies of the valley, with a semi-shower of white flowers over the hands.

The altar where the ceremony is to be read is to be banked with ciborium and maidenhair ferns. On each side of the mantel will be pompon chrysanthemums cascading nearly to the floor. In the center of the arrangement is to be a 15-candle candelabra set in maidenhair ferns.

Mrs. William C. Bertermann is to be her sister's matron-of-honor. She is to wear a dubonnet velvet boudoir gown with a square neck, hooded skirt and a pink underskirt. Her bonnet is to be pique-styled and her only ornaments will be a gold chain and bracelets, heirlooms in Mrs. Reed's family.

The group's next event is the annual Christmas formal, to be held at the I. A. C. during the Christmastime vacation period.

P.T. A. Style Show Scheduled Monday

The P.T. A. of School 76 will hold a card party and style show at 2 p. m. Monday, Dec. 5, at Ayres' auditorium.

Proceeds will go to the Student Aid Fund. Mrs. Victor Deitch is in charge of arrangements, assisted by Miss Lillian Hirschfelder, Miss Mary Ellen Kennedy, Jack Spencer, Jack Reis and John Moynihan.

The nurses' orchestra, led by Mrs. Charles Geyer, will play several numbers. Mrs. George E. Dunn will sing a group of songs, accompanied by Miss Doris Scoggan. Mrs. Carrie

P.T. A. Style Show Scheduled Monday

The P.T. A. of School 76 will hold a card party and style show at 2 p. m. Monday, Dec. 5, at Ayres' auditorium.

Proceeds will go to the Student Aid Fund. Mrs. Victor Deitch is in charge of arrangements, assisted by Mrs. George Schumaker, candy chairman, and Mrs. Arthur Funk, ticket sales head.

Music will be provided by Mrs. Frank Edenthaler, piano; Mrs. Louise Koehne, harp; Mrs. Leland Fishback, violin, and Mrs. Robert Reiner, cello. They will be seated in the hall amid an arrangement of palms. Selections to be played before and after the ceremony include "Leibestadt," "At Dawn," "Ave Maria" and Debussy's "Romance."

Miss Reed will wear a Mardi-Gras-toned chiffon gown, basque style, and a corsage of coral pink bordovia. Mrs. Sweeney, is to wear an ankle-length black velvet gown with a matching hat, will have a corsage of gardenias and lilies of the valley.

James Ballard, Detroit, will be Mr. Reed's best man and Albert Smith and Walter Shiel will usher.

Music will be provided by Mrs. Frank Edenthaler, piano; Mrs. Louise Koehne, harp; Mrs. Leland Fishback, violin, and Mrs. Robert Reiner, cello. They will be seated in the hall amid an arrangement of palms. Selections to be played before and after the ceremony include "Leibestadt," "At Dawn," "Ave Maria" and Debussy's "Romance."

Miss Reed will wear a Mardi-Gras-toned chiffon gown, basque style, and a corsage of coral pink bordovia. Mrs. Sweeney, is to wear an ankle-length black velvet gown with a matching hat, will have a corsage of gardenias and lilies of the valley.

James Ballard, Detroit, will be Mr. Reed's best man and Albert Smith and Walter Shiel will usher.

Music will be provided by Mrs. Frank Edenthaler, piano; Mrs. Louise Koehne, harp; Mrs. Leland Fishback, violin, and Mrs. Robert Reiner, cello. They will be seated in the hall amid an arrangement of palms. Selections to be played before and after the ceremony include "Leibestadt," "At Dawn," "Ave Maria" and Debussy's "Romance."

Miss Reed will wear a Mardi-Gras-toned chiffon gown, basque style, and a corsage of coral pink bordovia. Mrs. Sweeney, is to wear an ankle-length black velvet gown with a matching hat, will have a corsage of gardenias and lilies of the valley.

James Ballard, Detroit, will be Mr. Reed's best man and Albert Smith and Walter Shiel will usher.

Music will be provided by Mrs. Frank Edenthaler, piano; Mrs. Louise Koehne, harp; Mrs. Leland Fishback, violin, and Mrs. Robert Reiner, cello. They will be seated in the hall amid an arrangement of palms. Selections to be played before and after the ceremony include "Leibestadt," "At Dawn," "Ave Maria" and Debussy's "Romance."

Miss Reed will wear a Mardi-Gras-toned chiffon gown, basque style, and a corsage of coral pink bordovia. Mrs. Sweeney, is to wear an ankle-length black velvet gown with a matching hat, will have a corsage of gardenias and lilies of the valley.

James Ballard, Detroit, will be Mr. Reed's best man and Albert Smith and Walter Shiel will usher.

Music will be provided by Mrs. Frank Edenthaler, piano; Mrs. Louise Koehne, harp; Mrs. Leland Fishback, violin, and Mrs. Robert Reiner, cello. They will be seated in the hall amid an arrangement of palms. Selections to be played before and after the ceremony include "Leibestadt," "At Dawn," "Ave Maria" and Debussy's "Romance."

Miss Reed will wear a Mardi-Gras-toned chiffon gown, basque style, and a corsage of coral pink bordovia. Mrs. Sweeney, is to wear an ankle-length black velvet gown with a matching hat, will have a corsage of gardenias and lilies of the valley.

James Ballard, Detroit, will be Mr. Reed's best man and Albert Smith and Walter Shiel will usher.

Music will be provided by Mrs. Frank Edenthaler, piano; Mrs. Louise Koehne, harp; Mrs. Leland Fishback, violin, and Mrs. Robert Reiner, cello. They will be seated in the hall amid an arrangement of palms. Selections to be played before and after the ceremony include "Leibestadt," "At Dawn," "Ave Maria" and Debussy's "Romance."

Miss Reed will wear a Mardi-Gras-toned chiffon gown, basque style, and a corsage of coral pink bordovia. Mrs. Sweeney, is to wear an ankle-length black velvet gown with a matching hat, will have a corsage of gardenias and lilies of the valley.

James Ballard, Detroit, will be Mr. Reed's best man and Albert Smith and Walter Shiel will usher.

Music will be provided by Mrs. Frank Edenthaler, piano; Mrs. Louise Koehne, harp; Mrs. Leland Fishback, violin, and Mrs. Robert Reiner, cello. They will be seated in the hall amid an arrangement of palms. Selections to be played before and after the ceremony include "Leibestadt," "At Dawn," "Ave Maria" and Debussy's "Romance."

Miss Reed will wear a Mardi-Gras-toned chiffon gown, basque style, and a corsage of coral pink bordovia. Mrs. Sweeney, is to wear an ankle-length black velvet gown with a matching hat, will have a corsage of gardenias and lilies of the valley.

James Ballard, Detroit, will be Mr. Reed's best man and Albert Smith and Walter Shiel will usher.

Music will be provided by Mrs. Frank Edenthaler, piano; Mrs. Louise Koehne, harp; Mrs. Leland Fishback, violin, and Mrs. Robert Reiner, cello. They will be seated in the hall amid an arrangement of palms. Selections to be played before and after the ceremony include "Leibestadt," "At Dawn," "Ave Maria" and Debussy's "Romance."

Miss Reed will wear a Mardi-Gras-toned chiffon gown, basque style, and a corsage of coral pink bordovia. Mrs. Sweeney, is to wear an ankle-length black velvet gown with a matching hat, will have a corsage of gardenias and lilies of the valley.

James Ballard, Detroit, will be Mr. Reed's best man and Albert Smith and Walter Shiel will usher.

Music will be provided by Mrs. Frank Edenthaler, piano; Mrs. Louise Koehne, harp; Mrs. Leland Fishback, violin, and Mrs. Robert Reiner, cello. They will be seated in the hall amid an arrangement of palms. Selections to be played before and after the ceremony include "Leibestadt," "At Dawn," "Ave Maria" and Debussy's "Romance."

Miss Reed will wear a Mardi-Gras-toned chiffon gown, basque style, and a corsage of coral pink bordovia. Mrs. Sweeney, is to wear an ankle-length black velvet gown with a matching hat, will have a corsage of gardenias and lilies of the valley.

James Ballard, Detroit, will be Mr. Reed's best man and Albert Smith and Walter Shiel will usher.

Music will be provided by Mrs. Frank Edenthaler, piano; Mrs. Louise Koehne, harp; Mrs. Leland Fishback, violin, and Mrs. Robert Reiner, cello. They will be seated in the hall amid an arrangement of palms. Selections to be played before and after the ceremony include "Leibestadt," "At Dawn," "Ave Maria" and Debussy's "Romance."

Miss Reed will wear a Mardi-Gras-toned chiffon gown, basque style, and a corsage of coral pink bordovia. Mrs. Sweeney, is to wear an ankle-length black velvet gown with a matching hat, will have a corsage of gardenias and lilies of the valley.

James Ballard, Detroit, will be Mr. Reed's best man and Albert Smith and Walter Shiel will usher.

Music will be provided by Mrs. Frank Edenthaler, piano; Mrs. Louise Koehne, harp; Mrs. Leland Fishback, violin, and Mrs. Robert Reiner, cello. They will be seated in the hall amid an arrangement of palms. Selections to be played before and after the ceremony include "Leibestadt," "At Dawn," "Ave Maria" and Debussy's "Romance."</p