

Daladier Summons Troops to Defeat Strike of 5 Million

Nazi Mobilization of 110,000 Soldiers Is Reported.

way Co. as well as heads of the Railway Workers' Union.
M. Daladier secretly made extensive preparations to meet any situation that may develop tomorrow, both in regard to violence or suspension of vital services. His office denied that the decrees to requisition all public works were illegal as charged by the Leftists.

Showdown Expected

M. Daladier has called for a showdown on the efforts of the Left Wing labor leaders to rescind his financial and economy decrees modifying the social reforms so recently gained. The decree would lengthen the hours of labor, increase taxes and generally call on the nation for heavy sacrifices in the interests of recovery.

M. Daladier kept labor guessing today by keeping most of his preparations secret. No official announcement was made of the number of troops and mobile guards sent by train during the night to the Paris region, under cover of darkness.

Barracks in Paris, Versailles, St. Germain and other suburbs were kept closed to hide the number of troops. Alongside the Ecole Militaire in the center of Paris, tanks and armored cars were visible through the gates of the garison courtyard. Normally only a few horses are kept there.

Guns Moved Up

Guns and artillery also have been moved up secretly.

Five million workers are scheduled to go on strike tomorrow. The strike will be almost complete in industry but is not likely to affect Government offices, public utilities, banks, stores and trains in the Paris area.

Efforts at mediation failed, neither the C. G. T. nor the Government being able to retreat. Conciliatory efforts by parliamentary groups and the war veterans failed.

Germans Deny Mobilization Rumor

LONDON, Nov. 29 (U. P.).—The News Chronicle said today it had learned that Germany was secretly mobilizing 110,000 soldiers. The report could not be confirmed.

The newspaper said it believed the mobilization was in connection with Polish-Hungarian claims on Ruthenia, autonomous province of Czechoslovakia. Germany opposes their desire to take over Ruthenia so they will have a common leader.

Six divisions have been mobilized already and it was estimated that three more would be mobilized by the end of the week, the News Chronicle said. The nine divisions will total 110,000 men.

The News Chronicle said the Army corps mobilized included the eighth (Silesian) stationed at Breslau; the 17th, stationed at Vienna, and another, probably the 14th.

Officers Called Back

Leave of all officers was canceled. The speed with which the mobilization was carried out disrupted freight scheduled between Berlin and Vienna on the direct line running through Praha, the newspaper said.

The preparations were believed to be Germany's reply to persistent Polish-Hungarian efforts to obtain Ruthenia, where there have been frequent incidents for several weeks.

On the other hand, the News Chronicle said, well-informed circles suspect that the actual German aim was to await some particularly flagrant incident on the eastern frontiers of Czechoslovakia.

Wait Pled for Aid

This would prompt the pro-German elements in the Czech, Slovak or Ruthenian Governments to request armed aid from Germany and give the Germans the pretext of overrunning the whole of Czechoslovakia and occupying Praha, the News Chronicle said.

The newspaper pointed out that the current mobilization might easily have escaped attention because of the small numbers involved compared to 1,350,000 men called up during the Czech crisis.

BERLIN, Nov. 29 (U. P.).—The German War Ministry today officially denied a London News Chronicle dispatch reporting a new and secret German troop mobilization. It said the dispatch was "pure nonsense."

'Iron Guard' Members Arrested in Rumania

BUCHAREST, Nov. 29 (U. P.).—Troops were thrown around the city of Cluj today because of an attempt to assassinate Dr. Francis Stefanescu-Goanga, a Liberal and former Minister of Public Instruction.

Simultaneously the Rumanian Government began rounding up former members of the outlawed "Iron Guard," a Fascist, anti-Semitic organization, as the result of anti-Jewish outbreaks at Timisoara, Cernautzi and Cluj.

Dr. Stefanescu Goanga was shot down in the street. Two bullets struck near the heart and physicians said his recovery was doubtful. A detective accompanying him was killed by the assassins believed to be students.

Belgian Premier Seeks Spanish Peace

BRUSSELS, Nov. 29 (U. P.).—Premier Spaak announced in the Senate today that Belgium plans to press a program calling for mediation of the Spanish civil war by Belgium, Great Britain and France.

The announcement by M. Spaak created belief that a Cabinet crisis might develop this week-end because the Socialists, Liberals and Catholics are expected to oppose certain points in the program.

The program announced by the Premier called for:

1. Withdrawal of Belgium from the International Nonintervention Committee, which has sought to isolate the Spanish conflict. Liberals and Catholics are expected to oppose this proposal.

2. Dispatch of a representative to the Rebel regime. Socialists indicated they would fight this point.

3. Advocate creation of an international commission to supply foodstuffs to Spain.

4. Mediation of the civil war by Belgium, France and Britain.

Several mediation efforts in the past have been unsuccessful as a result of Rebel Generalissimo Franco's declaration that he would accept only the complete elimination of the Loyalist regime.

Chamberlain Seeks To Revive Appeasement

LONDON, Nov. 29 (U. P.).—Prime Minister Chamberlain's visit to Rome will mark active resumption of the British Government's effort to put European peace on a solid basis.

Mr. Chamberlain was expected to go to Italy about Jan. 10. He will be accompanied by Foreign Secretary Viscount Halifax.

Ever since the "peace of Munich" Mr. Chamberlain has been anxious to resume negotiations with the dictators to achieve general European appeasement.

The anti-Semitic campaign in Germany, however, strained Anglo-German relations and made it impossible for British statesmen to approach Germany.

Mr. Chamberlain therefore decided to accept an invitation from Premier Mussolini to visit Italy.

Anglo-Italian relations have been steadily improving in recent months.

In view of Sig. Mussolini's role in the Czech crisis it was believed Mr. Chamberlain might again seek his help in persuading Germany to join efforts for a general European settlement.

It was also assumed that Mr. Chamberlain would attempt to improve Franco-Italian relations. This would imply a new effort to settle the Spanish civil war because Sig. Mussolini has made it clear that he was not ready to talk with France until the Rebels have won.

Premier Mussolini was reported to welcome the visit "in principle, that is, without enthusiasm."

PLAN TO RESETTLE JEWS IS OFFERED

Austrian Industrialist on Way to London.

BERLIN, Nov. 29 (U. P.).—Arthur Kuefler, a baptized Jew and a prominent Austrian industrialist, will submit to international authorities in London a new plan to resettle German Jews abroad, it was learned today. Herr Kuefler was en route to London.

Herr Kuefler hoped to organize a stock company with headquarters in London. The company would carry out the resettlement of the Jews on a business basis instead of through charitable contributions.

The plan was originally drawn up by Herr Kuefler and Hans Gildemeester, son of a Dutch "Aryan" minister. It was reported to have had German official approval, but was abruptly halted after the slaying of Ernst vom Rath in Paris.

Helped Austrian Nazis

Herr Gildemeester was reported to be popular with the Nazis because during the Dollfus regime in Austria he helped Nazi prisoners escape. Through his efforts it was now hoped that the plan could be revived.

The plan proposes a company capitalized with 20,000 shares valued at $80 each. With this fund the company would negotiate with nations "to buy or rent areas suited for settlement."

Homesteads would be erected and all essentials would be provided. These homesteads would be rented or sold on an installment plan to settlers or settlement companies.

It possible the company would arrange with the German Government to have the property of Jews emigrating under its auspices turned over to a trustee to be appointed by the Reich.

The company gradually would pay off these amounts to the emigrants abroad, using the funds paid to the trustee by the emigrant, for the purchase of German goods to be exported to countries of emigrant destination to help them start their new existence.

JERUSALEM, Nov. 29 (U. P.).—Arab sources reported today that the notorious Rebel leader Abudurra was wounded during a battle between British troops and Rebels at the village of Umzinet, near Haifa, yesterday.

THANK YOU FOR SAYING "AND HE TREATED US RIGHT"

This advertisement is written in all humility and in thankfulness to my friends. For years I have appreciated comments about the beauty and completeness of our funeral service. But always I have appreciated far more the added comment that has come to me so often, consisting of those simple words, "And he treated us right." I'll continue to treat people right as long as I remain in business. It's the only manner in which I know how to operate.

Ambassadors Report to President

F.D.R. MAY HIT AT NAZIS AGAIN

Clarification of U. S. Stand
Possible at Press Parley Today.

WARM SPRINGS, Ga., Nov. 29 (U. P.).—President Roosevelt's intimates believed today that he might comment on affairs in Germany and Italy at his press conference this afternoon.

The occasion would be opportune, since he has conferred twice in the past two days with Hugh R. Wilson, Ambassador to Germany, and William Phillips, Ambassador to Italy.

White House attaches said that Mr. Roosevelt had explored the broad phases of anti-Semitism in both countries with the ambassadors, as well as the plight of Catholics and Protestants in Germany.

Neither of the ambassadors would comment on their talks with Mr. Roosevelt and for that reason, it was believed that he would at least clarify the United States attitude in the light of the ambassadors' reports in talking with the newspapermen.

Phillips to Go Back

Mr. Phillips said he would return to Rome Dec. 10 or 14, indicating that Mr. Roosevelt had no drastic protest in mind against anti-Semitism in Italy. Mr. Wilson, however, has been assigned to duty in the State Department in Washington and he could not say when, if ever, he would return to Germany.

It was reported on good authority here that Mr. Roosevelt planned to promote Dr. Ross T. McIntire, White House physician, to Surgeon General of the Navy with the title of Rear Admiral, to succeed Rear Admiral P. S. Rosier.

U. S. May Seek Co-ordinated Defense

LIMA, Peru, Nov. 29 (U. P.).—The United States is expected by Latin American countries to ask the Eighth Pan-American Conference to approve President Roosevelt's plan for a co-ordinated defense of the Western Hemisphere, it was learned today.

Latin sympathetic with his program, it was understood, will urge Secretary of State Hull two days before the conference opens on Dec. 9 to seek a resolution embodying in general terms the President's aims.

A formal treaty was regarded as out of the question, but supporters of the program will urge Secretary Hull to try to persuade the nations that hemispherical unity is essential.

Landon Heads Lima Committee

ABOARD S. S. SANTA CLARA,
En Route to Lima, Nov. 29 (U. P.).—

The United States delegation to the Pan-American Conference at Lima got down to work today when it elected committee chairmen, including Alf M. Landon as head of the important committee for organization of peace.

Delegates said informally that the United States was not preparing to spring any surprises at the conference, beginning Dec. 9, and that the United States views on continental defense needs would be considered within the framework of the scheduled program of business.

Green H. Hackworth, legal adviser of the State Department, was named chairman of the committee on international law, and A. A.

Berle Jr., Assistant Secretary of State, was named to head the committee on economic problems.

Argentina Opposes New Commitments

BUENOS AIRES, Nov. 29 (U. P.).—Argentina at the Pan-American Conference in Lima will support unification of existing peace instruments without entering new political commitments, Jose Luis Cantilo, foreign minister, said today as he left for Lima.

While expressing confidence that the conference would be successful, he said there is no change in Argentina's attitude. That was summarized in recent official statements as willingness to help better Pan-American relations without signing pacts.

The Argentine delegation, he said, will argue the necessity of ratifying existing anti-war agreements.

JAPAN REFUSES YANGTZE PLEA

U. S., Britain and France
Told River Cannot Be Opened to Them.

SHANGHAI, Nov. 29 (U. P.).—Japan formally refused today to reopen the Yangtze River to commercial navigation, as demanded by the United States, Britain, France and Italy.

Admiral Koshiro Okawa, Japanese naval commander-in-chief in China, delivered a memorandum to that effect to the naval commanders of the four powers.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29 (U. P.).—A man who identified himself to police today as John T. Clarke, 58, broke a window in the Japanese Embassy yesterday because he said he wanted to see a war between Japan and the United States. He said he wanted Japan to win.

A communique summarizing the memorandum concluded by saying: "We shall be compelled to stick to our decision as long as the Chinese forces maintain their present attitude."

Allegations by the United States and Britain that the Open Door pledge of the Nine-Power Treaty is being violated by Japan were again denied.

Chinese Finance Mission Is Failure

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29 (U. P.).—Official Chinese negotiations to obtain credit in this country were believed near an unsuccessful end today. It was learned that K. P. Chen, leader of a special financial mission to the United States, has left, presumably for China.

SPANISH INSURGENTS BOMB EASTERN COAST

HENDAYE, Nov. 29 (U. P.).—While both land armies were reported inactive today along the Spanish war fronts, Rebel air attacks continued along the East Coast.

Five Savoias penetrated the anti-aircraft barrage at Barcelona and dropped 50 bombs on the port. The British freighters Stanwell and Stangrove were hit, the former for the sixth time in a raid.
