South America and Florida Beaches Again Lure Many Hoosiers

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Lilly and Mr. and Mrs. Scot Butler Clifford to Make Long Cruise of Neighboring Continent.

By VIRGINIA MOORHEAD MANNON

The promise of uninterrupted sunshine plus the tropical attractions of sea and shore account for the ceaseless stream of travel South.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl B. Barnes are spending a few days at the Plaza Hotel in New York before sailing Friday on a cruise to South America. Today they will go down to the dock to meet Mrs. Barnes' cousins, Mrs. Thomas Carr Howe and Miss Charlotte Howe, who are to arrive on the S. S. Santa Clara after a month's trip to Lima, Peru, and other South American cities.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Lilly are to sail Thursday on the S. S. Kungs-holm for a month's cruise to South America. Mr. and Mrs. Scot Butler Clifford left Saturday on the S. S. Nieuw Amsterdam for a 45 day cruise around South America.

For the next few weeks Florida beaches will continue to be dotted with Hoosiers. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Elder Adams are to leave Wednesday for Naples to join their daughters, Mrs. William Macomber of Kendallville and Mrs. Morris Lanville Brown. Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Jungblut and Mr. and Mrs. Russell L. White have gone to Miami Beach. Mrs. W. W. Critchlow and Mrs. W. W. Wentz left yesterday to spend several weeks in Florida and Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Hartley will be off the last of this week.

Mrs. Ade Guest at Bath Club

From Florida comes the news that Mr. and Mrs. Philip R. Malory who have been cruising out of Miami on their yacht, Sangamo, spent last week-end at Ft. Lauderdale. Mrs. George Ade has been a guest at the Bath Club, Miami, with Mr. and Mrs. John T. McCutcheon who have bought Robert Louis Stevenson's Treasure Island outside of Nassau. Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Parrish of New York and their children, Patricia and Frankie, who recently visited Mrs. Parrish's mother, Mrs. Charles Brossman, are at Miami for the rest of the season.

Mrs. Frank C. Balke and her father, A. G. Nulson, will leave Sunday for a three-week visit to San Antonio, Mr. Nulson's former home. Mr. and Mrs. Austin H. Brown have returned from a cruise to Havana. Mrs. G. B. Wolfe and her mother, Mrs. W. W. Harris, are home after a three-week visit at Miami and Miami Beach.

Mrs. Kenneth Anderson of Pontiac, Mich., is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. John M. Hare, and Mr. Hare. Mr. and Mrs. Warrack Wallace have moved into their new home at Brendenwood.

The Marott Hotel will hold its pre-Lenten formal dinner and ball Thursday evening. Dinner will be served in the Crystal Room from 6 to 9 p. m. and dancing in the ballroom will begin at 9:30 and continue until 12:30 a. m.

The Indianapolis Junior League is to meet Feb. 23 at the American United Life Building Auditorium. Miss Gloria Chandler, children's theater representative of the Association of Junior Leagues of America, will be a special guest.

Lamb Frolic Draws Howls

As "Sweethearts on Parade," a company of animated valentines capered two by two through elaborate dance routines and rollicking arias at the Lamb Club Frolic Saturday evening at the Columbia Club. Against a backdrop of crimson hearts on a blue ground, "famous couples" made their entrances on a revolving stage as Percy H. Weir, in the role of a pink and blue cupid with Harpo Marx coiffure, "explained" them to the audience. Mrs. William G. Sparks and Michael J. Duffey Jr. at the two pianos provided tuneful accompaniments for the eight "turns."

A bouncing ball and slate served as "props" for the "School Days" number by Mr. and Mrs. Frederick C. Pier, Kid Sweethearts. Mrs. Walter J. Stuhldreher in silver lame, dazzling coronet and jewels made a stunning Josephine for Mr. Stuhldreher who contrived to maintain his Napoleonic pose throughout song and dance.

To the strains of "Three O'Clock in the Morning" Mrs. Rudolph Stempel as a red-wigged Maggie armed with a rolling pin threatened her comic strip jiggs, Joseph C. Wallace. Robert D. Robinson as a dashing Student Prince and Mrs. J. Harry Green, a peasant-costumed Kathie, harmonized to "Deep in My Heart, Dear."

The Lamb howled with delight when "Flat Foot Floogie" issued from the pianos for the Stokowski and Garbo impersonation, presented by Mrs. Herbert A. Pinnell as Greta and white-wigged William Frederick Souder. With an enigmatic pair of dumbbells Kurt F. Pantzer proved his strength as a bearded Sampson until Mrs. Souder, a jeweled and veiled Delilah, pulled out her shears and cut his shaggy locks.

Mrs. Pantzer and Johnnie Sweet, Campus Sweethearts, contributed a polished bit of ballroom dancing. Just before the grand finale George Fotheringham and Mr. Stempel appeared as a menacing pair of Hitler, complete with drooping forelocks, swastika armbands and Nazi salutes.
