

Reds Given Lesson by Cubs' Root

Depends on His Control to Best League Leaders; Lombardi Homers.

By GEORGE KIRKSEY
United Press Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, July 1.—Ol' Charley Root, daddy of all major league pitchers, gave the Cincinnati Reds a lesson yesterday they had better learn if any of them are counting on pitching in the World Series against the Yankees next October. That lesson is control.

Root, who passed his 40th birthday last March 17, pitched the Cubs to a 5-1 victory over the Reds and did not walk a single man. It was his first triumph this season. Johnny Vander Meer started for the Reds and after walking four men in the second inning, was ejected by Umpire Ziggy Sears for protesting his ball and strike decisions.

Before Vander Meer left he had walked in one run. Then Whitely Moore came in and walked in another run. Those two runs were good enough to win for the Cubs.

Vander Meer and Moore allowed only four hits but they walked nine men. Root gave up eight hits but he didn't give anybody a free ticket. Only run made off base was Ernie Lombardi's homer (No. 12).

The defeat cut the Reds' lead over the Cubs to four games and elevated the Cubs to within half a game of third place.

The Brooklyn-Philadelphia night game at Ebbets Field was rained out for the second straight evening, and Dodger President Larry MacPhail announced it would be played the night of Sept. 7.

The Yankees won a seven-inning game from the Senators—shortened by rain and darkness—10-2, behind Oral Eckersley's fourth pitching. The champs strangled Carrasquel and Kraskauskas for 13 hits, including triples by Dahlgren and Rolfe. It was No. 5 for Hildebrand.

Two boots in the first inning cost the White Sox two runs and Detroit beat Chicago, 3-1. With runners on first and second, Catcher Tresh threw to second to catch McCoskey off. The ball went into center field and McCoskey scored and Fox advanced. Then Lake Appling fumbled Averill's grounder and Fox scored. Buck Newsom held the White Sox to eight hits in winning his eighth.

My Swimming Secrets—No. 6

Sam and Helen Howard form a graceful picture as they take off simultaneously on swan dives.

Last of six illustrated and informative articles written in connection with National Swim for Health Week, June 30-July 6.

By SAM and HELEN HOWARD
Internationally Famous Professional Divers

To be a successful diver one should first perfect the simple swan, jack-knife and one-and-a-half. The public appreciates the slower, graceful dives, even though the difficult two-and-a-half and body twists are more difficult to perform.

The simple dives are better for spectators because the movements of the body are easier followed. Popularity of slow motion pictures for instruction purposes bear this out.

Spectacular dives must be accomplished with such great speed that the beauty and precision of the maneuver often is lost.

The spectacular dives are a necessary part of competition and should be practiced industriously, but simplicity should be uppermost.

Berl, D'Antoni In Golf Finals

Coast Titleholder Meets New Orleans Champ.

DES MOINES, Iowa, July 1 (U. P.).—Warren Berl, Stanford University, and Vincent D'Antoni, Tulane, meet today in a 36-hole match over the Wakarusa Country Club course for the 42nd National Intercollegiate Golf Championship.

Berl, only 18 and recent winner of the Pacific Coast collegiate title, won his way to the finals yesterday by eliminating H. R. Merritt, retiring Yale captain, 5 and 4. D'Antoni, who twice has won the New Orleans city championship, eliminated Billy Hall, Iowa State, one up, on a sensational finish in the semifinal round.

Berl's match with Merritt ended on the 32nd hole when Merritt failed to sink a six-foot putt. Berl went seven over par.

D'Antoni staged a remarkable hole-in-one on the 34th hole under par—on the final hole of the 36-hole match. Pulling from behind, he sank a 15-foot putt on the 34th for a birdie to even the match, sank a 25-foot putt on the 35th to go one up, and shot the 36th in four, while Hall failed by inches on a 30-foot putt that would have tied up the match.

State Stream Reports

Phillies' Arnovich Continues To Lead Batsmen in National League.

U.S. Puts 3 in Quarterfinals

WIMBLEDON, England, July 1 (U. P.).—America's chances of retaining the men's singles in the 50th All-England Tennis Tournament were strengthened today when three of its players moved into the quarterfinal round.

Bobby Riggs of Chicago, second on the seeded list, defeated Ronald Shaves of England 7-5, 6-8, 6-4, 6-3, and Elwood Cooke of Portland, Ore., eliminated John Oliff, England, 6-1, 6-1, 6-4. Gene Smith of Berkeley, Cal., gained the round of eight yesterday.

Shaves was the first man to win a set from Riggs since the tournament started on Monday.

Cooke had no difficulty getting past J. S. Oliff, Great Britain, and went into the quarterfinals with a 6-1, 6-1, 6-4 victory.

WIFE WATCHES HUSBAND DIE; BURIAL MONDAY

Charles Wishmire Loses Life While Bathing in Big Eagle.

Services for Charles Wishmire of 1943 W. New York St., who was drowned in Big Eagle Creek yesterday, while his wife and three friends stood by helplessly, will be held at 10:30 a. m. Monday at the Conkle Funeral Home. He was 35.

Burial will be at Floral Park Cemetery.

The Wishmires had gone to Mulberry Beach near Vermont St. with Miss Irene Roraback, 1938 W. New York St.; Everett Briggs, 54, of 605 Somerset Ave. and Lester Roberts, 25, of 656 N. Tibbs Ave.

Mr. Wishmire went in swimming while the others watched from the bank. Suddenly he began thrashing in the water. Momentarily the group thought he was joking until Mrs. Wishmire shouted: "He's drowning."

Fully clothed Mr. Briggs jumped into the water, but Mr. Wishmire sank almost immediately. He was unable to find him. At the same time Mr. Roberts drove to a nearby beach and returned with Melvin Smotherman, 1675 N. Belle View Place, and Walter Lowe, 116 N. Traub Ave. City life guards.

Mr. Smotherman found Mr. Wishmire's body after diving for 10 minutes. He and Mr. Lowe then applied artificial respiration for nearly 40 minutes. City ambulance doctors, who had arrived shortly after Mr. Wishmire was found, also worked on him. A few minutes later Mark Mercer, deputy coroner, said he was dead.

Warning Destroyed
Deputy sheriffs said that a warning sign had been placed at the beach in April but that it evidently had been destroyed by vandals.

Mr. Wishmire was on the second day of a week's vacation from the Prest-O-Lite Co., where he had been employed for seven years.

He was born at Bloomington, Ill., and came here in 1903. He attended grade school 16. Following his graduation he worked at the Big Four Railroad Shops. He was a member of the Pleasant Chapel Methodist Church.

Besides his wife he is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wishmire; a brother, Cloyd, and three sisters, Mrs. Clara Ruckler, Mrs. Mary Wishmire and Mrs. Golda Parker.

TAKEN TO HOSPITAL; BEATING IS ALLEGED

Howard Huffman, 30, of 2733 N. LaSalle St., was taken to City Hospital early today after he allegedly was beaten by three men. He told police the attack took place at Columbus and Roosevelt Aves. He was not robbed.

When Ralph C. Smith, 40, of 105 W. Walnut St., told a thing who halted him on Ohio St., 300 block, that he had no money, the bandit pushed him, grabbed a suit he was carrying and fled. He told police there was about $1 in the suit.

for his [or her] sake raise him in your OWN HOME

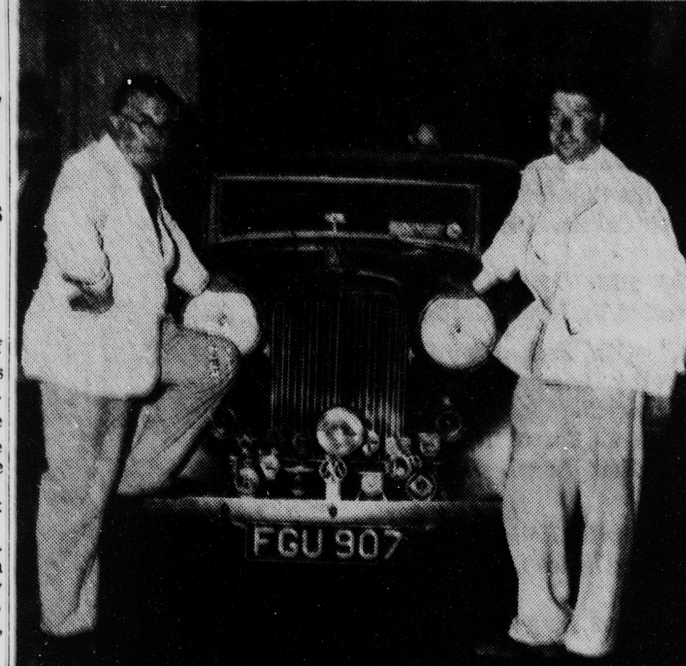

There is just no denying the fact that the child raised in his (or her) own home has very definite advantages in attaining happiness and success—lasting friendships, helpful acquaintances, a sense of confidence and thrift that go far toward happiness and success.

Selection right now is especially wide—nearly all sections of the city offer most all types and sizes of homes.

Prices and terms are most attractive—small down payments with all inclusive monthly payments that are no larger than regular rent.

Eager to Adopt 'Willed' Child Couple Never Saw

BEAVER, Pa., July 1 (U. P.).—Mr. and Mrs. Sam Turner of Alliquippa, today sought a court order approving adoption of a child they never seen—little Ethel Mary Wilkes of England, who was "willed" to Mrs. Turner by her deceased sister.

The Turners revealed the strange death-bed bequest of Mrs. Turner's sister, Florence Wilkes Harmer, in Wolverhampton, England, that her 5-year-old daughter be given to her American relatives to replace a daughter who died eight years ago.

The Turners stated that the 5-year-old orphan is now in a children's home in Wolverhampton and that her stepfather has consented to the adoption.

Mr. Turner, a British war veteran, came to Alliquippa from England 13 years ago. He brought his wife and 3-year-old daughter, Renee, with him.

Renee was stricken with an ear ailment and died in a Beaver Falls, Pa., hospital.

Mrs. Turner wrote of the tragedy to her sister in England. Two years later Ethel was born. The father died and the mother remained to Judge C. C. Tague, Brookville, Ind., Roy Hirschberger, Richmond, Ind., William E. Sawyer, Department Adjutant of Indiana, and H. L. Plummer, assistant national adjutant.

The party will fly directly to Billings, Mont., and from there to Seattle, where they will spend the night. From Vancouver they will fly the 850-mile over-water route to Juneau, Alaska.

Two days after Florence died, and Mrs. Turner wrote to the stepfather of her sister's "will."

1ST STEP TAKEN TO TRIM 3000 OFF STATE WPA

76,000 Start Enforced Vacations in Adjustment Under New Bill.

A five-day "ordered" holiday started today for 76,000 Indiana WPA workers, as State WPA officials prepared to trim 3000 from the rolls by July 10.

The holiday was ordered by Washington WPA officials to give state organizations time to make changes directed by the new relief bill signed shortly after 10 p. m. last night by President Roosevelt. The reduction in the relief rolls was ordered late yesterday to reduce the payroll budget in Indiana by approximately $200,000 during July, according to S. T. Bryan, deputy state administrator.

Cut Overloaded Projects
Mr. Bryan said the workers cut from the rolls would be those on "overloaded projects."

He said the vacation would not mean any loss of pay to the 73,000 workers left on the rolls, since they would be given their regular monthly working quota under schedules to be arranged by division heads.

The holiday will end next Thursday morning.

State officials here today were anxiously awaiting word from Washington concerning the new relief bill and its possible effects on the Indiana relief organization.

Mr. Bryan said that the provision abolishing the Federal Theater Project would not affect Indiana.

Full Cut Uncertain
He was not so sure, however, that Indiana's administrative forces would not be affected by the provision in the bill which provides that only 3.4 per cent of the appropriation can be spent for administration. He said that Indiana's administrative costs were under 3 per cent, but he did not know what portion of the Chicago and Washington office costs would be apportioned to this area.

OBITUARY REVEALS AGE AS 108 YEARS
READING, Pa., July 1 (U. P.).—A routine obituary report from the Berks County Home today had disclosed that Henry Metmyer, an inmate, had died at the age of 108 years.

Evans McGowan, steward of the home, said Mr. Metmyer's birth certificate showed he had been born in Poland Jan. 2, 1831, and came to this country 57 years ago. Mr. Metmyer did chores at the home and farm until a month ago.
