

ROUGH WEATHER HOLDS SQUALUS ON SEA BOTTOM

Navy Says Sub May Not Be Lifted Until August; Pontoons Used.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., July 7 (U. P.)—Navy officials believed today that the elements—rough weather and tidal currents—would hold the submarine Squalus with its 26 dead below the surface until August.

Because of the weather, they said, raising of the undersea craft from its grave 40 fathoms below the surface will be delayed. The Squalus sank on May 23, but 33 members of its crew were saved by an undersea diving bell.

HOOVER PROPOSES EASING WAR HORROR

CLEVELAND, July 7 (U. P.)—Former President Herbert Hoover, speaking before more than 6000 delegates to the opening session of the international convention of Christian Endeavor societies last night proposed to "mitigate" the barbarities of war by the United States joining with other neutral nations as "referees" in restrictive international agreements.

Mr. Hoover, addressing the convention on proposed American action in event of a general European war, offered "a proposal that might end the worst" of war's horrors suffered by starved and bombed women and children.

He suggested that all nations who are willing to do so agree:

1. To grant food ships the same immunity from attack and blockades as hospital ships.

2. To restrict bombings to actual scenes of combat or works devoted strictly to munitions and refrain from bombing "civil populations."

Death Wins 4th Game Of Roulette

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., July 7 (U. P.)—Richard Surkamp, 40, and socially prominent, entertained friends today by playing "Russian Roulette"—a game with death in which the player puts a partially loaded pistol against his head, spins the cylinder and pulls the trigger.

He played three times and won every time. But a short while later his body was found in his automobile on a highway, and officers said that on the fourth game he lost. He had a bullet in his temple.

His death was listed officially by Justice Otis West as a suicide.

LEGION ROLLS BOLSTERED

Twelfth District American Legion membership of the Indiana Department now totals 4081 men, an all-time high, James C. Ahern, district commander, announced at a meeting last night. A delegation from Bloomington gave the meeting information about the state convention to be held there Aug. 19 to 22.
