

TOOK TO CRIME TO PASS TIME, 2 YOUTHS SAY

Entered 23 Places on North Side; Failed to Dispose Of $1000 Loot.

Two 17-year-old boys admitted in Criminal Court today that they had burglarized 23 North Side homes and stores "because we didn't have anything else to do."

One of them said he had never attempted to get a job to fill in his time, and both said they had applied for admission to a CCC camp and were "willing away their time" in crime while they waited a reply.

They made no effort to dispose of valuables worth about $1000 taken from the homes and said they never had intended to steal for profit—only for the thrill.

Police said most of the articles stolen were recovered in the homes of the boys, including a $100 meat slicer taken from a grocery.

Judge Dewey Myers sentenced each of them to a year on the State Farm.

LOCAL MAN FREED IN POSTAL INQUIRY

One of two Indianapolis men, charged with stealing parcel post packages, was free today because U. S. Commissioner Howard S. Young ruled the evidence insufficient to hold him in Federal custody.

The man released was Edward Barber, 28, of 1128 1/2 N. Senate Ave.

Floyd Claybrook, 31, of 241 Puryear St., arrested on the same charge, was committed to Marion County Jail in default of $2000 bond following the hearing.

Build Us New Park, West Side Urges

$10,000 to Be Put Aside For More Playgrounds

Ten thousand dollars in the Park Department's 1940 budget will be earmarked to buy and maintain additional park and playground space on the Southwest Side, Jackie W. Joseph, Board president, announced today.

The announcement followed the proposal of West Side civic clubs yesterday that the City purchase 130 acres of abandoned Indianapolis Railway Co. land lying along Big Eagle Creek between Lambert and Raymond Sts.

Need for an extension of the City's playground system was outlined recently in a report of the Indiana Council of Social Agencies. Officials have stated that they would seek additional funds to lease and equip 12 more playlots throughout the City.

Board members decided yesterday to meet Monday night on the Park Department's 1940 budget needs.

"We are giving serious consideration to the need of West and Southwest Indianapolis residents for greater outdoor recreational facilities," Mr. Joseph said.

"To that end, we will set aside at least $10,000 in our budget estimate for next year. We are surveying several sites, including the strip along Big Eagle Creek."

Led by Republican Councilman Walter E. Hemphill, a delegation headed by Mrs. Anna Brand, West Indianapolis Civic League president, and Archie McKinney of the Enterprise Civic League, asked the

WOMAN BEATEN; TWO MOLESTED

Accepts Ride, Struck on Head; Another Nabbed By 'Kiss-and-Skipper.'

A 22-year-old woman was beaten severely early today and two other young women were molested, one by a "kiss-and-skip" motorist, police reported.

Two men who offered to take her home after she left a West Side tavern drove into the country instead and beat her on the head and face when she resisted them, Miss Lucille Rayman told police.

Miss Betty Husted, 22, of 1031 Elm St., told police that a cab driver whom she had hailed early today attempted to force his attentions on her. She said she jumped from the cab and walked home. Harry Wright, 22, of 847 Woodlawn Ave., was arrested later on charge of assault and battery, and police said Miss Husted identified him as her assailant.

Miss Evelyn Staton said she was walking home from a theater when two young men drove up to the curb, reached out of their car, grabbed and kissed her and then drove away.

TRUCK TIRE TAX SUIT DISMISSAL ASKED BY STATE

Motion Charges U. S. Court Lacks Jurisdiction in Tilley Case.

A motion to dismiss an Indianapolis truck driver's suit seeking to restrain the State from enforcing the Truck Tire Tax Law was filed by the State before a three-judge tribunal in Federal Court here today.

The plaintiff was instructed to file his brief Monday. The State's brief is due Tuesday, after which the tribunal will rule on the motion. The hearing was recessed until today's motion is decided upon.

It was based on the contention that Federal Court has no jurisdiction in the action because it seeks to restrain the State from collecting State taxes. The State claims also that the law has been upheld by the Indiana Supreme Court three times and that the proper procedure is to appeal one of those decisions to the United States Supreme Court.

Extension Is Granted
A temporary restraining order which had been granted to the Trans-American Freight Lines, Inc., of Detroit, by Federal Judge Thomas W. Slick, of South Bend, was to have expired at 4 p. m. tomorrow.

Judge Walter E. Treanor, of the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals at Chicago, who is substituting for Judge Slick on the tribunal, granted an extension for 10 days or until he gives further notice.

Other judges hearing the case are Federal Judge Robert C. Baltzell and Judge Charles G. Briggs, of the U. S. Southern Illinois District Court at Springfield.

Permanent Writ Sought
The suit, filed by Ralph Tilley, 219 E. 10th St., asks for a temporary injunction, permanent injunction and attacks the constitutionality of the statute.

Mr. Tilley's suit maintains the tax imposes a burden on interstate commerce because the license fee charged—from $2 to $75 depending on the size of the tires used—is greater than the cost of building and maintaining roads and of policing traffic.

The fees are not based on the amount of depreciation to the highways, it is alleged, but are arbitrary impositions which are "unjust, unfair and unreasonable." It is further maintained that the fees are not apportioned properly between interstate and intrastate traffic.
