Rauch-Reynolds Prenuptial Parties Hold Social Spotlight

THE social spotlight for an entire week will be turned on the festivities preceding the wedding of Miss Harriet Anne Rauch and Alfred Owen Reynolds next Saturday evening. Dinners, picnics, luncheons and cocktail parties will give the bridal party and friends of the couple few leisure moments.

Miss Rauch is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Rauch, and Mr. Reynolds' parents are Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell K. Reynolds of Marquette, Mich. The Rev. Harry Campbell will read the service at 8:30 p.m. at the Second Presbyterian Church.

Attendants Are Named

Mrs. John M. Kitchen, the bride's sister, will be matron of honor. Bridesmaids named today by Miss Rauch include Mrs. Lincoln B. Frazier, Marquette, the bridegroom-to-be's sister; Miss Kathryn Elliott, New Brunswick, N. J.; Miss Frances Letchford, Morristown, N. J.; Miss Marjorie McLeod, Providence, R. I., and Miss Alice Emerson and Miss Alice Vonnegut of Indianapolis.

Maxwell Kennedy Reynolds Jr., Marquette, will be his brother's best man. Ushers will be Lincoln B. Frazier, Marquette; Frank James Russell, Marquette; Monroe L. Lovvay, Tibbetts, Marquette; Henry DeMille Jericho, L. I., and John M. Kitchen and John G. Rauch, the bride's brother, of Indianapolis.

John G. Rauch Jr. is arriving today from a western trip. Miss Letchford will come tomorrow and Miss MacLeod will be here on Monday. Miss Elliott is expected on Tuesday. The ushers and the bridegroom's family will stay at the Marott Hotel.

Round of Festivities

The bride and her attendants will be entertained at luncheons Tuesday at the Woodstock Club. Miss Vonnegut and Miss Emerson will be hostess. Mrs. Kitchen will be hostess at a "Hen Party" and dinner on Wednesday night. The young people will go to the Rauch farm on Thursday evening for a picnic. Mr. and Mrs. Rauch will entertain with a bridal dinner Friday night before the wedding rehearsal.

Miss Rauch attended Tudor Hall and was graduated from Dana Hall School in Wellesley, Mass. She attended Bryn Mawr. In the summer of 1936 she studied at the University of Heidelberg. Mr. Reynolds was graduated from Gunnery Preparatory School and Princeton University.

Taggart Invitations Issued

Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. Taggart today had issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Patricia, and Ross G. Lyons, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Lyons.

The wedding will be at 12 o'clock noon Aug. 1 at the summer home of the Taggarts, Pinewoods Camp, Higgins Lake, Mich. Dr. Logan Hall of the Meridian Street Methodist Church will officiate. The Taggarts were to leave today for their summer home.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander L. Taggart also are to leave this weekend for Higgins Lake.

The Vacation Scene—

Miss Jane Lawson and Miss Betty Erickson will leave tomorrow for Camp Kosciusko, Winona Lake, for about two weeks' stay. Miss Lawson's mother, Mrs. Edward A. Lawson, is to leave to visit Mrs. Newton L. Silver, Detroit, and will be joined there by her daughter. Miss Henry D. Ridgely is visiting in New York.

An Extra Passenger!

The Sherwood's daughter, Mrs. G. D. Johnson, and her three children have been visiting the Sherwoods and remained at their home during the Sherwood's trip. Mrs. Johnson will be paying fare for an extra passenger when she returns to her home at Brantford, Canada—a baby daughter born July 19. Mr. Johnson is en route home from a trip abroad.

The Country Clubs Offer—

The Indianapolis Country Club will hold a swimming party tonight. A buffet and bar will be set up along the edge of the pool.

The Meridian Hills Country Club is celebrating its 14th anniversary today with a variety of entertainment, including tennis exhibitions, golf tournaments, swimming exhibitions and a buffet supper on the lawn.

Highland Golf and Country Club will have its weekly dinner dance tonight. Dinner will be served at 6 o'clock and Bill Hart and his Dictators of Rhythm will play for dancing beginning at 9 p.m.

The monthly bridge luncheon will be Wednesday.

The Hillcrest Country Club will be host tomorrow for the Middle States and Indiana A. A. U. Outdoor Swimming Championships meet.

Dellwood to Open Week-end Program With Southern Party

A Southern plantation party tonight, religious services, a swimming exhibition and a ballad dramatization tomorrow are among special events planned for the week-end at Camp Dellwood, Girl Scout summer camp. Members of the Girl Scout council will meet Tuesday morning.

Campers in the four units at Dellwood will take part in the Southern plantation party tonight in Sycamore Lodge. Southern folk songs will be sung by one group and another will present square dances.

Members of the other two units will present "Raggle Gypsies," "My Man John," "Stamp and Dance," "The Keys of Canterbury" and "Dabbling in Dew."

Retreat will be held at 5:30 p.m. on the camp grounds. Members of the color guard will include the Misses Winifred Bundy, Rita Rohr, Ann Hutchinson, Patty Lewis and Barbara Churchman, Fairy Ring Unit, and the Misses Sally Miller, Frances Wileman, Mary Beth Denny, Winifred Ham and Susanne Schlosser, Service Unit.

Members of the Service and Woodland Units have scheduled hayrides as part of next week's program. The Sherwood Unit will take a canoe trip.

Scouts of the Service Unit will show floating formations at 4:30 p.m. and the Sherwood Unit will demonstrate canoe tests and the use of the canoe in the pool. Missing at her home.

Party to Honor Martha Free; Marjorie Case to Wed Sept. 9

Alpha Omicron Alpha to Give Founders' Day Party on Aug. 9

Observance of Founders' Day, several rush parties and a week-end outing are among plans highlighting the week-end and future events for members of Indianapolis Greek letter organizations. One sorority has appointed a chairman for an annual benefit card party in September.

Members of Alpha Omicron Alpha, national philanthropic society, will observe Founders' Day with a luncheon Wednesday, Aug. 9, at The Homestead, 5894 N. Meridian St. The luncheon will be one of two events in the year attended by all chapters, and members from Indianapolis, Columbus and Muncie are expected to be present.

Mr. J. W. Hill is chairman, assisted by Mrs. George Studebaker and Mrs. J. K. Kintner. Mrs. Marjorie Lindley and Mrs. William Stewart are in charge of arrangements for the benefit party after the luncheon. Mrs. Charles Miller and Mrs. L. H. Noble will arrange decorations. The union meeting in January also is attended by all chapters.

Mrs. Noble will be general chairman of the annual convention Oct. 6-8 at the Hotel Lincoln. Mrs. J. P. Parker and Mrs. Charles Kuhlman will be vice chairmen. Mrs. J. R. Sennett, national president, made the appointments. The sorority's annual benefit card party will be Tuesday, Sept. 19, in Ayres' auditorium. Proceeds will be used in the organization's philanthropic activities including the National Project, the Needwork Guild of America. Mrs. J. A. Cameron will be chairman of the party.

Members of the Indianapolis Alumnae Association of Phi Mu, national college sorority, will entertain about 30 rush guests with a swimming party and picnic dinner this afternoon at the Riviera Club.

Miss Martha Davis will be hostess to members and guests of Indiana Alpha Chapter of Delta Theta Chi Monday evening at a rush party at her home. Mrs. Ruby M. Bever, educational director of the group, will have charge of the program, and Mrs. William Kraus III will be entertainment chairman.

Members of the St. Joan of Arc Catholic Church choir will entertain their escorts at a dinner party tomorrow evening at the Riviera Club.

Deacon Harry Gardner and the Rev. Fr. Henry Hoover will be honor guests. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Krieger will be chaperones. Mrs. William Kraus III will be entertainment chairman.

Members of the local group met recently with representatives of chapters in Terre Haute, Kokomo, Ft. Wayne, Logansport and Muncie.
