

EHLERS TAKES POST ON CLAYPOOL STAFF

C. E. Ehlers, associated with the Hotel Washington for the past 17 years, today assumed his new duties as assistant manager of the Claypool Hotel. Born in Indianapolis, Mr. Ehlers is a member of the Lions Club, the Indiana Hotel Association and is a past vice president of the Exchange Club.

'Scream Not Fair Maiden, Please'—She Does, He Flees

A would-be bandit was routed by the screams of his intended victim, Miss Thelma Blount, 23, when he attempted to rob her about 9:30 o'clock last night in her room at 619 N. Pennsylvania St.

Miss Blount, a beauty school student, was studying when she saw the man peering through her window, which opens onto a roof.

"Keep still—this is a holdup," he said. Miss Blount screamed and the man fled. She rushed downstairs, but residents of the house were unable to find the prowler.

A slender, blond man, his face covered with a handkerchief, held up Silas Corbin, 50, Edward Planigan, 40, and Marion Corbin, 23, operators of a tavern at Massachusetts Ave. and Davidson St., as they were returning to their home, 904 E. Michigan St., at 12:15 a. m.

JUSTICES OF PEACE THREATEN VICE WAR

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Aug. 18 (U. P.)—Members of the newly formed Justices of the Peace and Constables Association, Inc., incensed at charges of speed trap operations, threatened today they would raid any gambling houses or disorderly houses found open.

retaliation to speed trap criticisms by County officials. County officers replied by saying they were enforcing laws "to the best of their ability."
