

SOCIETY—

State Fair Horse Show to Hold Attention of Local Social Set.

A RECORD number of outstanding horses are to be exhibited at the Indiana State Fair Horse Show which opens tomorrow night. The total of 372 entries eclipses all previous ones. The show will be held this year in the new Coliseum and in the fine new tanbark arena.

Senator John Bright Webb and his assistants have arranged a nightly program of 25 stakes and 80 classes in competition for the $10,150 in awards. A large number of Indianapolis society folk are expected to be in the boxes about the oval.

Golden Avalanche, champion three-gaited horse at the show for the last two years and winner of honors at the California Exposition, is an entry.

Mrs. L. Victor Will of Fair City Stables, N. J., has brought Dixie Maid and Moreland Maid. The Williamsdale Farms, Erlanger, Ky., have brought Elsie Caldwells, the well-known five-gaited mare, and Bourbon Genius, the famous show stallion will be shown by Dixiana Farm, Lexington, Ky. The junior champion five-gaited horse, Mountain Dawn, will be back for honors at the show this year.

Southern Club Arranges Party

The Southern Club will hold its first party of the 1939-1940 social season at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Colby for members families. The Plantation Party is to begin next Saturday at 3 p. m. with a treasure hunt, hay ride, horseshoes, badminton and quoits are some of the amusement features planned for the outing. An old-fashioned barbecue will be held at 5:30 p. m. Hurricane lamps will light the long serving tables and a bonfire is to be built in the neat background.

Mrs. A. L. Rice to Show Movies

Mrs. A. L. Rice is to show films of a recent trip and scenes at the New York World's Fair following the supper. The arrangements committee is headed by Mr. and Mrs. Marshall G. Knox. Their assistants include Messrs. and Mesdames W. B. Freihofer, G. C. Codding, F. T. Foley, George T. Whelden, Ernest Edward, T. D. Powers and Rice.

Names Concert Campaign Aids

Mrs. Jack A. Goodman, general chairman of the season subscription campaign for the coming concert series by the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra, today named members of her advisory committee. One hundred volunteer workers will present the series to the public between Sept. 11 and 23.

The committee includes Mesdames John H. Bingham, Hortense Rauh Burpee, Jeremiah L. Cadick, D. Laurance Chambers, Augustus Coburn, Frank T. Dowd, William Dudine, Chauncey H. Eno, Lowell S. Fisher, Dan W. Fleckinger, Edward A. Gardner, William E. Gavin, Alexander R. Holliday, Gilbert J. Hurty, Henry V. Kabin, Edna Kuhn Martin, Otto Moore, Bert C. McCommon, Hugh McGibney, Hiram W. McKee, E. Kirk McKinney, Paul V. McNutt, J. L. Michael, Robert M. Moore, Wilson Mothershead, Jacob L. Mueller, E. O. Noggle, Wayne Ritter, William M. Rockwood, John K. Ruckleshaus, T. Saphi Bosch, Louis Serein, Guy H. Shadiner, Samuel Lewis Shank, Thomas H. D. Sheerin, George A. Smith, Leah Spence, Louis R. Thomas, H. A. VanOsdol, Herbert T. Wagner, John G. Williams, Herman W. Wold and Anita Springer of Greencastle.

Others are the Mesdames Amanda A. Anderson, Ada Bicking, Mildred Gellacher, Ruth Hoover, Helen Humphreys and Elizabeth Ohr, Mesdames John Miller, Wallace O. Lee, J. P. Rooney, Leland R. Smith, Elmer A. Steffen, Ralph W. Wright, Msgr. Henry F. Dugan and the Rev. Leonard Wernsing.

Comings and Goings

Mrs. I. Hilda Stewart, principal of Tudor Hall School, has returned to Indianapolis after spending the summer at her home at Keene, N. H. Mr. G. C. Gordon has left for Harbor Springs, Mich., where he will spend a week-end and return after Labor Day with his wife and daughters, Sally and Suzanne. Mrs. Gordon and the children have been spending the month of August at Harbor Springs.

Miss Emily Strickler of Lancaster, O., is the guest of Miss Jane Leisure. The young women are classmates at Skidmore College. Miss Leisure will leave Sept. 20 for Philadelphia where she will attend a house-party. She will return to Skidmore for her sophomore year.

Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Griffin of Chicago are to arrive today to spend the Labor-Day week-end with Mrs. Griffin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Miller Sr. Mrs. Griffin is the former Miss Martha Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Miller Jr. will entertain the visitors this evening at a party at the Labor Day dinner-dance at Woodstock. Other guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Sweeney Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Sam Tyndall and Frederick Matson.

Miss Nancy Wolcott, daughter of Mrs. Ryland Wolcott, of Winnetka, Ill., will be a visitor over the holiday week-end at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Wolcott.

Joseph Barr, Beth Williston Nuptials at 4:30 Tomorrow

Miss Beth Ann Williston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dudley M. Williston, 45th St. and Kessler Blvd., will become the bride of Joseph Barr, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Barr, Bicknell, at 4:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the Williston home.

The Rev. George S. Southworth will perform the single ring service before the fireplace in the living room. The improvised altar will be adorned with palms and ferns and two seven-branched candelabra and vases of white flowers will stand on either side. Pasquale Montani, harpist, will play and Miss Mildred Mullen will sing "I Love You Truly," "Dancing" and "Liebestraum."

Mr. Williston will give his daughter in marriage. Her dress will be of white imported net made with long sleeves, a high neck and a full skirt with a three-yard train. Her long veil of Brittany lace is the one worn by her great-great-grandmother. A tiara effect of lace and a small cap hold the veil in place. Her bridal bouquet will be a cascade of white orchids and stephanotis.

Mrs. A. E. Campbell, New Albany, the bride's sister, will be her matron of honor. Her gown will be in pink with a skirt of net and a basque top with a ruffle. She will wear an American Beauty violet brooch in her hair. American Beauty show and will carry an arm bouquet of American Beauty roses. Miss Phyllis Carlton, Wilmette, Ill., will be bridesmaid and will wear the same kind of dress as the matron of honor. John H. Barr, the bridegroom's brother, will be best man.

Miss Williston has chosen a dress of amethyst crepe with matching accessories with which she will wear an orchid corsage. Mrs. Barr will wear black crepe with a gardenia corsage.

A reception will be held after the ceremony and the couple will leave on a trip to the East. The bride will travel in a blue costume suit trimmed in lynx-dyed fox with matching accessories and a corsage of orchids. After their trip, the couple will live in the East. About 75 out-of-town guests will attend the wedding and reception.

Both the bride and bridegroom are graduates of DePauw University. Miss Williston is a member of Kappa Gamma Sorority and Mr. Barr is a member of Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity.

SOCIETY...

Jack Ferguson, Marie J. Foley To Marry Today

Miss Marie Josephine Foley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Foley, and Jack William Ferguson, son of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Ferguson, will be married at 7:30 o'clock this evening in the Grace Methodist Church.

The Rev. Clair Wallace Calvert will officiate. The church will be decorated with white drapes, palms and ferns and it will be lighted with candelabra. Robert Burford, organist, will play and Miss Joan Ferguson, the bridegroom's sister, will sing.

Enters With Father

The bride, who will enter the church with her father, will wear a gown of white satin fashioned on princess lines with a sweetheart neckline, short puffed sleeves and a full skirt extending into a long train. She will wear long white kid gloves and her long veil of white tulle will be topped with orange blossoms. Her bridal bouquet will be of Johanna Hill roses with an orchid center.

Miss Lucille Siebert, maid of honor, will wear an aquamarine net gown over taffeta made colonial style with a hoop skirt, short puffed sleeves and a sweetheart neckline. She will carry a colonial bouquet in pastel shades.

Miss Ferguson, Miss Pauline Poe and Mrs. Joseph Ake Jr., bridesmaids, will be gowned in net made on colonial lines and worn over taffeta slips with hoop skirts of pastel shades. Their colonial bouquets will be in pastel shades with ribbons to match their dresses.

Richard A. Ferguson, the bridegroom's brother, will be best man and ushers will include Joseph Ake Jr., Howard Foley, a brother of the bride, and Joseph Kendall, Kokomo.

Reception Planned

After the ceremony, a reception will be held at the Foley home. Out-of-town guests will include Mrs. Ada Deering, Louisville; Mr. and Mrs. Firm C. Kenyon, Anchorage, Ky.; Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Swank and Jay Berwanger, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Judd and Dr. and Mrs. C. O. Richie, Evansville; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Jerram, Edgewood; Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Kittridge, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Turner and Mrs. James Weed, Dayton, and Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Booth, Columbus, Ind.

The couple will leave on a trip west after the reception and will be home after Oct. 1 in Evansville. The bride will travel in a black ensemble with black accessories and an orchid corsage.

Both the bride and bridegroom are graduates of DePauw University. Miss Williston is a member of Kappa Gamma Sorority and Mr. Barr is a member of Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity.

Miss Sue Ammerman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. K. V. Ammerman, left recently for Stephens College where she will serve as a junior councilor. (Ayres Photo.)

1. The Indianapolis Junior League reopened its Next to New Shop yesterday for the fall season. The shop has been closed for remodeling. Mrs. Blaine Miller Jr. is shown here doing a bit of "touching up" on a display counter.

2. Mrs. William Lockhead of the Junior League inspects several of the reconditioned articles for sale at the shop.

3. The Civic Theater's subscription campaign will open officially on Sept. 20. Here is a group of workers in the drive, including (left to right) Miss Marjorie Bunch, Mrs. Ronald Hazel, Mrs. Chauncey E. H. and Mrs. E. Hardie Adriance.

4. Mr. and Mrs. Frederic M. Ayres are enroute home from La Jolla, Cal., where they spent the month of August. Mr. and Mrs. Ayres and their daughter, Anne (left), are shown here with Mrs. Fabien Sevitzky (second from right). Mrs. Sevitzky, under her professional name, Maria Koussevitzky, will be soloist with the Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra in the coming season. Mrs. Ayres is head of the Indiana State Symphony Society's women's committee.

5. Royal Entertainer is one of the outstanding entries in the State Fair Horse Show which opens tomorrow night at the new Coliseum. The champion is one of a string entered by R. D. Keene, Orlando, Fla.

6. Mrs. Elmer J. Carrick was Miss Janet Ann Hardin of Knightsbridge before her marriage Aug. 29. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Hardin. (W. Hurley Ashby Photo.)

7. Miss Sue Ammerman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. K. V. Ammerman, left recently for Stephens College where she will serve as a junior councilor. (Ayres Photo.)

Lieut. Leo M. Stadtmiller and Catherine Ann Bingham Wed

Miss Catherine Ann Bingham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Bingham, 5759 Gulford Ave., and Lieut. Leo M. Stadtmiller, son of Adam G. Stadtmiller, Shelbyville, exchanged nuptial vows at 10 o'clock this morning in the Church of Christ the King.

The Rev. Fr. Joseph Sones officiated at the single ring ceremony before an altar banked with palms, white gladioli and white asters. The family pews were marked with white satin ribbons. Preceding the ceremony, Victoria Montani, harpist, played bridal music, accompanied by Louis Swain, organist.

Mrs. Stadtmiller, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin made on princess lines with a sweetheart neckline, short puffed sleeves and a long veil of illusion with rose point lace trim. Her bouquet was of Bride's roses, orchids and baby's breath.

Miss Lucille Siebert, maid of honor, will wear an aquamarine net gown over taffeta made colonial style with a hoop skirt, short puffed sleeves and a sweetheart neckline. She will wear long white kid gloves and a long veil of illusion with rose point lace trim. Her bouquet was of Bride's roses, orchids and baby's breath.

Mrs. Stadtmiller, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin made on princess lines with a sweetheart neckline, short puffed sleeves and a long veil of illusion with rose point lace trim. Her bouquet was of Bride's roses, orchids and baby's breath.

Mr. Stadtmiller, who was given in marriage by his father, wore a gown of white satin made on princess lines with a sweetheart neckline, short puffed sleeves and a long veil of illusion with rose point lace trim. His bouquet was of Bride's roses, orchids and baby's breath.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund H. Folkening, and LaVaughn Brabender, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brabender, will be married at 8 o'clock tonight at St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church.

The Rev. Louis Wambgsass will officiate before an altar banked with palms and interspersed with canary birds.

Mr. Folkening will give his daughter a white satin gown with a bustle back and cut on princess lines. The dress has tiny satin buttons extending from neck to hemline in the back. The sleeves are long and tight fitting and two pearl clips accent the neckline. Her finger tip veil is to be caught with orange blossoms and her bridal bouquet will be of white gladioli and lilies of the valley.

The bride and bridegroom will be fanned similarly with tight bodices, bustle backs and low, square necklines. Miss Mildred Strong, the maid of honor, will wear Spanish magenta and Miss Doris Brabender and Mrs. M. C. Folkening will be in rose coral. Their bouquets will be of seed pearls and she carried a white satin covered prayer book. Her sister, Mary Magdalene, was her only attendant.

After the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served at Woodstock rose coral.

James Herdrich, Florence Scott Ceremony Today

Shades of blue from the heavenly hue to the cathedral blue will be used in decorations and costumes for the wedding this afternoon of Miss Florence Jane Scott and James Robert Herdrich. Miss Scott is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. Scott and Mr. and Mrs. Herdrich's parents are Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Herdrich.

The ceremony will be read at 4:40 p. m. at the First Presbyterian Church. The Rev. George Arthur Frantz will officiate. The service will be read before a green cedar panel interspersed with clipped arborvitae and lighted by 15-branch candelabra at the sides. Two deep blue vases of blue cat tails, blue tree of heaven and white gladioli will decorate the altar. The aisle ribbons will be heavenly blue with pocket vases of gladioli.

Uncle to Give Bride

William H. Hill of Vincennes will give his niece in marriage. Miss Scott's gown will be of heavenly blue silk satin fashioned on Victorian lines with long basque waist, sweetheart neckline and a full skirt shirred at the waistline and falling into a long train. Her full length veil of illusion and shoulder length face veil will fall from a crown of orange blossoms. She will carry a cascade bouquet of orchids surrounded by blue forget-me-nots and stephanotis.

Ruth Coler, the maid of honor, will wear a cathedral blue satin gown fashioned similar to that of the bride. She will wear a disc hat of light and dark blue tulle and a shoulder length veil. She will carry blue transparent water lilies with stems covered in silver mesh and with silver streamers. The gowns of the bridesmaids, Miss Katherine Landis, Logansport; Miss Mary Louise Spencer, Monticello, and Miss Marjorie Hill, Brucerville, will be similar to those of the maid of honor. They will wear disc hats and carry the blue water lilies.

Brother Is Best Man

Mr. Scott has chosen a gown of Alencon lace for the ceremony. It is of ashes of roses shade. With it she will wear a wine velvet turban and corsage of tuberous begonia and camellias. Mrs. Herdrich will be in black moire with dusky rose accessories and a corsage of rubrum lilies and Finch roses.

Miss Scott will be best man. William Blachley, William Lucas, William Gaus and Ted Scott will usher.

A reception will follow the ceremony at the Pronylum. The couple will leave on a motor trip and after Sept. 15 will be at home at 3606 N. Illinois St. The bride attended Indiana University and is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta Sorority. Mr. Herdrich was graduated from Indiana University and is a member of Phi Gamma Delta.

Huck-Gottmoeller Vows Solemnized

Miss Mildred Gottmoeller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Gottmoeller, and Albert B. Huck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brabender, will be married at 8:30 o'clock this morning in the Holy Name Catholic Church. The Rev. Msgr. Peter Killion officiated at the single ring service.

The bride wore a gown of white net over satin made with a full skirt that extended into a slight train. Her finger tip veil fell from the neck. The maid of honor, will wear Spanish magenta and Miss Doris Brabender and Mrs. M. C. Folkening will be in rose coral. Their bouquets will be of seed pearls and she carried a white satin covered prayer book. Her sister, Mary Magdalene, was her only attendant.

The bride wore a gown of white net over satin made with a full skirt that extended into a slight train. Her finger tip veil fell from the neck. The maid of honor, will wear Spanish magenta and Miss Doris Brabender and Mrs. M. C. Folkening will be in rose coral. Their bouquets will be of seed pearls and she carried a white satin covered prayer book. Her sister, Mary Magdalene, was her only attendant.