Monday and elimination matches will follow on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. Prizes will be awarded at a luncheon next Friday.

Willson-Lunsford Rite Is Today

Miss Nancy Lee Lunsford, daughter of Mrs. Jacob Pierce Lunsford, Montclair, N. J., and Eugene Miller Willson, New York, will be married today at Montclair. Mr. Willson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Willson of this city. The bride was graduated from Penn Hall, Chambersburg, Pa., and Smith College. Mr. Willson is a Purdue University graduate. Mr. and Mrs. Russell Willson and their son, Larry, are in Montclair to attend the ceremony. Larry will be his brother's best man.

Mrs. John Spencer Atwater Honored Tonight

Dr. and Mrs. Carleton W. Atwater will receive informally tonight at their home from 7:30 to 9:30 o'clock for Mrs. John Spencer Atwater. Mrs. Atwater was Miss Virginia Zipples of Savannah, Ga., before her recent marriage. There are no invitations.

Awaits Letter From Sister in Europe

The European situation has its local angles, too. Mrs. Jack Harding, who has been anxiously awaiting word from her sister, Miss Emma Messing of the United States Embassy in Berlin, has received a cable from Miss Messing that says simply: "Evacuated. Tourist Hotel, Copenhagen, Denmark."

Mrs. Harding expects a letter the middle of next week, giving details of the evacuation. From Berlin, Miss Messing visited Mrs. Harding and another sister, Mrs. Sara Messing Stern, during July. In her last letter from Berlin, received Aug. 25, Mrs. Harding quoted Miss Messing as saying, "Remember my prophecy of war last April and how every one laughed at me?"

Of course, Mrs. Harding was worried over her sister's welfare, but her fears were allayed somewhat by a radio broadcast she heard one day last week that told of the women connected with the embassy being escorted to the German border and placed on boats bound for Denmark.
