Printed Instructions on Firing Furnaces Will Be Distributed.

A door-to-door campaign to reduce the smoke nuisance in Indianapolis is to be undertaken soon with the assistance of the Police Department.

The Safety Board yesterday approved a design for printed instructions on firing furnaces. These are to be distributed to all homes in the city by policemen. Chief Michael F. Morrissey said.

Policemen Appointed

Seven policemen were appointed by the Board, subject to duty when called. They are Glenn D. Binegar, 1705 College Ave.; Arthur F. Roney Jr., 4059 Boulevard Place; Kenneth E. Luke, 1935 N. Alabama St.; Stanley J. Phillips, 8130 W. Ninth St.; Thomas P. Flattery, 2825 E. Vermont St.; Richard VanNoy, 1805 Woodlawn Ave.; and Lawrence A. Geigert, 2531 Webb St.

Alternates appointed are Wilbert R. Gruner, 1524 S. Talbott St.; L. E. Hillon, 1029 S. Hanna Ave.; C. E. Cronnon, 3928 Caroline Ave.; J. R. Gates, 1391 Hoefgen St.; and C. W. Lewis, 550 W. 25th St.

Fire Losses Increase

In the monthly fire report made by Assistant Fire Chief Roscoe A. McKinney, an increase of $46,730 in the fire loss last month over August a year ago was shown. There were 208 fires in August, 1938, resulting in a loss of $18,270 whereas there were 198 fires last month with a loss estimated at $65,000, the report said.

The fire protection contract with Woodruff Place was signed by the Board and will become effective when Woodruff Place officials and City Council approve it.

Appointed to Market

A request by Luella Caidon, 1028 S. Illinois St., that she be allowed to preach on the corners of S. Meridian and McCarthy Sts. and Illinois St. at Merrill St. and as many other corners as are available, was referred to Chief Morrissey for investigation.

Charles E. Taylor, 205 Leota St., was appointed assistant engineer and guard at the City Market, subject to Mayor Reginald H. Sullivan's approval. Earl C. Booth, 1946 Wilcox St., was presented a check for his expenses to Evanston, Ill., where he will spend nine months in traffic study at Northwestern University. Mr. Booth, a member of the Accident Prevention Bureau, won the Kemper Foundation Fellowship. Presentation of the check was made by Frank B. Fowler, president of the Indiana Lumbermen's Mutual Insurance Co., and J. J. Fitzgerald, president of the Grain Dealers National Mutual Fire Insurance Co.

1517 GIVEN JOBS THROUGH STATE

Total So Far This Year Is Over Figure for All of 1938, Says Smith.

The Indianapolis office of the Indiana State Employment Service placed 1517 persons with 675 employers during August, George J. Smith, Indianapolis district manager, said today.

The number placed exceeded the 1012 placed in July, but was less than the year's high of 1769 in June.

Of those for whom jobs were found, 286 were employed in the commercial and professional fields and 415 in jobs requiring skilled and semi-skilled experience. The remainder received jobs requiring a minimum of skill.

Gardeners, landscapers, restaurant, hotel and institutional workers received 328 of the jobs, while the domestic field accounted for 214 women. Straight manual labor jobs employed 264.

Mr. Smith said the total of 10,232 men and women placed thus far this year exceeds the total for all of last year.

The Times' cooking school has been a popular feature each fall for many years. More than a score of dishes will be prepared at each session and displayed in their complete form. ## OLD CAMPAIGNS TO BE RENEWED BY CIVIC CLUBS

Federation Meets Sept. 29 To Plan Fight on Milk Law.

By ROGER BUDROW

Indianapolis civic clubs, resuming their meetings after summer vacation, were drafting campaign plans today to achieve numerous long-sought goals.

Many predicted increased membership and renewed enthusiasm for projects they have determined to see realized.

One of the oldest projects is elevation of Belt Railroad tracks on the South Side. Others are newer, such as improved bus transportation from the Brookside Park district to downtown.

Federation Meets Sept. 29

The Federation of Community Civic Clubs is to hold its first fall meeting Sept. 29. Paul Wetter, president, said the Federation would renew its drive to have the Milk Control Law repealed at the next Legislature.

New playgrounds, park improvements, community houses and Belt Railroad underpasses are among other projects sought by various clubs.

The Enterprise Civic League, which may be the City's oldest as its by-laws were adopted in 1914, is campaigning for dredging and cleaning of Eagle Creek as a flood prevention measure and beautification of its banks to attract homebuilding to the West Side.

"We are working to get some kind of an underpass on S. Harding St. and W. Morris St.," Dr. Walter E. Hemphill, 1861 W. Morris St., League president, said. "If we cannot get both we are going to demand that W. Morris St. be underpassed. We are going to stress the fact that S. Harding and W. Morris Sts. are so high at the point where they cross the Belt Railroad that an underpass is very practical. The lack of an underpass on these two main streets causes a great economical loss to working people going to and from their work and also depresses property values."

Seek Feeder Lines

The E. 21st St. Civic League is asking Indianapolis Railways officials to abandon the present bus lines to the Brookside Park district and establish instead two feeder lines to trackless trolleys. Club officials said this would not only save patrons money but also much time getting in and out of work.

The League also is raising funds to build a community house.

Boulevard lights are sought by the Brightwood Civic League on Roosevelt Ave. and 25th St. between N. Gale St. and Sherman Drive and on Station St. from Roosevelt Ave. to 25th St.

Mass Meeting Planned

The active South Side Civic Club has announced its intention of holding a mass meeting next month in Garfield Park to rally support for track elevation. City officials, including Mayor Reginald H. Sullivan, are to be invited to express their views on achieving the long-sought improvement.

The Brookside Civic League has announced intentions of seeking lower water rates and improvement of Massachusetts Ave.

The Hawthorne Social Service Association is to open its fall program with the third annual Hawthorne Fall Festival tonight, tomorrow and Friday at the Hawthorne Community Center, 2440 W. Ohio St. Moving pictures, some with sound, will be shown portraying scenes in North and South America. Booths displaying business and industrial activities in Indianapolis will be included in the festival.

The Washington M. E. Church will serve the dinner tomorrow night, the Washington Presbyterian Church on Thursday night and the West Park Christian Church on Friday night. Music will be furnished by the Boy Scout Band, Indianapolis Newsboys Band and the young people of the Hawthorne Social and Athletic Club will be in charge of Friday night's program. Arrangements have been made for pupils of Schools 30 and 50 and St. Anthony's School to attend a showing of the motion pictures during the afternoon.

Hangman Game Snares Boy, 17

WHEN police finally got to him yesterday afternoon, Charles Sandlin, 17, of 2030 Tip-ton St., was fit to be tied. In fact, he was tied—all because, on a stroll through Oak Hill Park, he met three boys who invited him to join the "hangman's gang."

Charles, thinking it was all in fun, said he wouldn't mind. But he did mind when it turned out that he had been elected victim. The trio of exclusive club members tied Charles' wrists with a piece of rope, threw the rope over a swing frame, hauled Charles up until his toes barely touched the ground, and left him.

Neighbors heard cries for help from the improvised scaffold and called police.

SUIT SEEKS REFUND ON STOCK TAX PAID

Refund of $1500 capital stock tax paid the United States is sought by Shell - American Petroleum Co., which has brought suit in Federal Court against Will H. Smith, U. S. Internal Revenue collector for Indiana. Mr. Smith said it was the first suit of its kind filed in the state.

The tax was paid, the petition claims, on the company's capital stock of $1,500,000 as of Dec. 31, 1932. The tax is illegal, it is alleged, because the law "unlawfully delegates the function of fixing a tax base, through a device of declaring the value of capital stock, to each particular taxpayer without uniform standards" and because of the "contemplated use of a declared value in one year said future years without right of amendment."
