Tudor Hall Pupils Back to School

It's back to school for pupils at Tudor Hall with the opening day Wednesday. "Big sisters," all the juniors and seniors at the school, are making extensive plans for welcoming the newcomers. Mildred Milliken, president of the Student Government Association, and Letitia Sinclair, senior class president, head the "big sister" committee.

Each new student is assigned a "big sister" who aids her in finding classes, becoming acquainted with the faculty and students and adjusting herself to school life. Miss I. Hilda Stewart, principal, will speak at a general meeting of all classes from the first grade through the upper school at 8:30 Wednesday morning. Short class sessions will follow and school will be dismissed at noon. A half-day schedule with dismissal at noon will be observed for the remainder of the week. The kindergarten, under the direction of Miss Elizabeth Davol, will open at 9 a. m. Wednesday.

Miss Milliken Will Preside

Miss Milliken will preside at a student council meeting Wednesday afternoon to outline student government regulations for the year and to lay plans for the all-school party on Sept. 30. Miss Sinclair will hold a senior class meeting Thursday and the juniors, with Eva Taggart as president, will meet Friday.

Resident pupils will arrive tomorrow and the first faculty meeting will be at 7 p. m. tomorrow in the residence. Plans for the opening day of school were made by a group of the "big sisters" who met recently with Miss Stewart. At the meeting were Virginia Enford, Jane Cox, Marjorie Flückiger, Louise Glasser, Mildred Milliken, Emmy Panzer, Martha Raper, Lucile Schaf and Gloria Strashun, seniors; Alice Boozer, Peggy Logkuth, Marilyn Mulvihill, Carol Noel, Ann Sayles and Nancy Wolgemuth, juniors.
