

G. O. P. TO HEAR FRANK GANNETT AT RALLY HERE

Publisher Substitutes for Rep. Ditter; 20,000 May Attend Barbecue.

Substitution of Frank E. Gannett, Rochester, N. Y., publisher, for Rep. J. William Ditter (R. Pa.) as vice principal speaker at the State G. O. P. 14-40 Roundup Saturday at the State Fair Grounds was announced today.

Mr. Gannett, publisher of 19 newspapers and a leader in the fight against the President's Supreme Court reorganization plan, was invited by party officials after Rep. Ditter, chairman of the Republican national Congressional committee, sent word he would be unable to come here because of the special session of Congress.

Publicity Director Cancels Talk

Franklyn Walzman, national G. O. P. publicity director, also has canceled a speech scheduled for a luncheon Friday. Arch N. Bobbitt, state chairman, said another speaker is being sought for this meeting.

Other speakers at the Saturday mass meeting at the Fair Grounds grand stand will be Dr. Glenn Frank, Chicago, G. O. P. national program committee chairman; Homer E. Capehart, Washington, Ind.; Mrs. Bertha D. Bauer, Chicago, Republican national committee woman, and former Senators James E. Watson and Arthur R. Robinson.

The rally is being sponsored by the Indiana Republican Editorial Association and the State G. O. P. Central Committee.

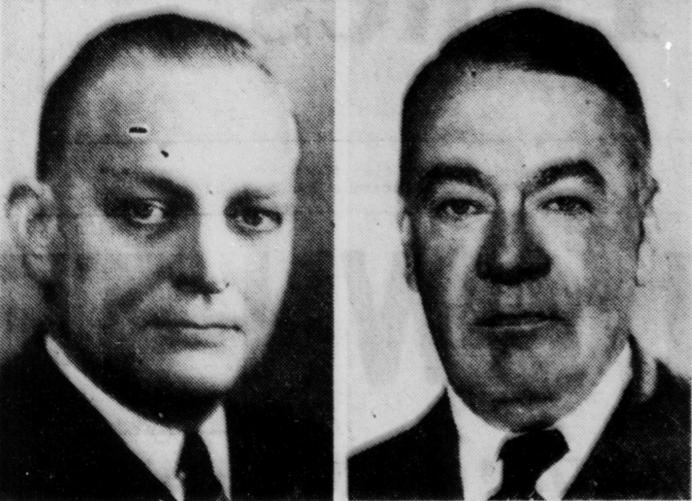

Editors to Meet Friday

Arrangements have been made for a crowd of more than 20,000 at the Fair Grounds barbecue meeting Saturday noon. The editors will hold their business sessions at the Claypool Hotel Friday at a luncheon and banquet at night.

The principal speaker at the Friday night banquet will be James J. Wadsworth, one of the younger members of the New York State Legislature. He is the son of Rep. James W. Wadsworth (R. N. Y.).

A parade comprised of 1200 banner-covered cars, 64 floats and 17 bands will proceed through the downtown streets at 10 a. m. Saturday and go to the Fair Grounds in time for the barbecue.

PUPILS GET TRYOUT AS FUND SPEAKERS

Tryouts for high school pupils who will deliver speeches for the Community Fund before civic groups during the campaign were to be held today at fund headquarters in the Majestic Building.

Community Fund officials, preparing for the approaching campaign, held the first city-wide rally yesterday noon at the Indianapolis Athletic Club. Approximately 200 attended.

Arthur R. Baxter, civic and welfare worker, urged board and staff members of the 37 agencies supported by the fund to make a "united effort" in behalf of the 20th annual drive. Harold B. West, fund president, said an "enthusiastic army" is being recruited as solicitors.

TRUCK KILLS BOY, 5

MISHAWAKA, Ind., Sept. 19 (UPI)—Larry Conney, 5-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. James Conney of Mishawaka, was killed yesterday when a truck driven by Henry Max, 23, of South Bend, went out of control and ran up on the sidewalk.
