

F. D. R. FACING 'PINGER ACTION' TO CUT POWERS

Force Comes From Both Right and Left; War Attitude Feared.

By LUDWELL DENNY
Times Special Writer
WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—Mr. Roosevelt faces an encircling movement from right and left to cut off Presidential emergency powers. This pincer movement has grown since Attorney General Frank Murphy refused to comply with the Vandenberg resolution, but, listed 100 laws granting the President such powers in addition to undefined constitutional authority. Those who would limit the President, or set up counter-balancing Congressional agencies, range from liberal isolationist Senators and Dr. Charles A. Beard on the left to the Gannett National Committee to Uphold Constitutional Government and the Republican Presidential aspirants, Senators Robert A. Taft of Ohio and Arthur H. Vandenberg of Michigan, on the right.

Fear Pro-Alies Sympathy

Among those who distrust Mr. Roosevelt in a war situation are many who were ready to give him a blank check for the domestic New Deal. But whether friend or foe of the man in the White House, these critics fear his open pro-Alies sympathies are so strong they may ensnare him and the nation. Also they are troubled by the Rooseveltian love of the spectacular, made famous by Theodore and more so by Franklin Delano. Specifically some of them think there was too much stunting in the Declaration of a Limited Emergency, the War Resources Board incident, and the Declaration of Panama (hemisphere safety zone).

Hamilton for Curb

As for the Republican Party, in addition to its two leading Presidential aspirants, Senators Vandenberg and Taft, its national chairman, John Hamilton, wants to curb the President's powers. So do Allen W. Dulles of New York, former aid to Charles Evans Hughes in the State Department, Rep. John Taber of New York, ranking member of the House Appropriations Committee, and many other Republican leaders. Admittedly the Republicans need a campaign issue—with the Gallup Poll showing 65 per cent of the voters now predicting a Democratic victory in 1940. Since the war emergency and Stand-Behind-the-President psychology is credited with the upswing in Rooseveltian popularity, it seems clever and just to some Republicans to reverse this same emergency psychology into fear of White House dictatorship.

Powers Listed

Among the numerous emergency powers of the President, apart from the greater undefined constitutional authority, are his rights to: Regulate Federal Reserve and foreign exchange and monetary transactions, suspend trade restrictions, suspend trading on security exchanges, suspend sugar quota laws, buy Army supplies without advertising for bids. Take over certain power houses and reservoirs and regulate electric power production and distribution, decree Interstate Commerce Commission priorities, requisition American ships or forbid their foreign transfer. Regulate radio and wire communications, expand credit and suspend the eight-hour day for work on Government contracts.

And Miracle of All Miracles—the Price Is Only—$19.75

Use Our Deferred Payment Plan!

Many fine mattress makers are using sisal insulation in their product, but for a long time we have recognized the need for ADDED protection from the constant grinding of springs against fiber. Therefore, we devised the PROTECTO PAD... and working with a well-known manufacturer, we developed this SUPER-COMFORT, SUPER-SERVICE mattress... and offer it at a price within the means of every one!

The Protecto Pad consists of a layer of cotton and a layer of sisal stitched between sturdy muslin sheeting to provide a distinctly separate unit from the top pad of fine felted cotton. Friction is reduced! More comfort is added! And in addition alternating rows of spring coils are offset—to prevent springs from buckling and rubbing against each other. See this wonder-mattress tomorrow—exclusively in Ayres' Downstairs Store!
